NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Those Were The Days

NFK Update: Those Were The Days

Those Were the Days! Seems just like yesterday I was playing basketball, baseball and football. I wasn't worrying about a thing other than who would win the game, always trying to acquire the winning strategies to take us over the hump.

It seemed like those days would never end; yet as quickly as they began, they ended. As my teammates and I wondered what we would do next, our entire lives flashed before us. During those many games of competition, we learned to work together as a team to win, and heaven knows, none of us liked losing. Despite temporarily falling down, we always got up, brushed off our pants, and moved forward without knowing where it would lead us.

Fortunately, we all survived. Many took the easiest road to earn an income, buy a house and raise a family. Others took that road less travelled, sometimes unsuccessfully. I decided "working for the man" was boring, so I went about chasing my own demons and shadows while still young. Sure, things were confusing and challenging, but I always managed to get up and get back into the race. And, as the music says, "What a long, strange trip it's been"!

These Are the Days! Now in the Autumn of my life I find myself in the biggest battle yet! This is not just my battle, but the World's Battle! I now find myself reflecting on my teachings and what I've learned, and I do not mean school. I mean dear friends along the way, many who still exist, who took me by the hand, poured me a few martinis at the local bar and proceeded to curse me up and down till certain things were drilled in my head.

There was a basketball coach and his wife who took me in when I moved far away from my home to play for the university team. And, of course, there were many businessmen who at that time saw something in me that I never saw in myself. Ironically, I now see in others the very same qualities then seen in me.

Consequently, I want to give them the opportunities to achieve their greatness, as those businessmen once did for me. I cannot wait to extend my hand to them and smile while watching them grow as individuals into their greatness.

Now Will Be the Days! I'm sitting here writing a Preface, and you've heard it all before. Now you need action! Action is exactly what I'm now putting my heart and soul into at this very moment so that we will get over the hump, get the letters signed, and procure the trunks after which even more must be done. Group K will continue to vigorously fight to get those Accounts open for everyone, especially for the Indonesians who have loyally held onto them for more than 80 years. They rightfully deserve a break, a reward for all they've done.

No one, and I mean no one, ever came to them with one cent in hand to thank them for safely "keeping" them for over such a long period of time. Most turned their heads and walked away even while knowing karma can be such a bitch and bite them. The Elders waited patiently for the right time that they wisely knew was coming. Now after 80 years, the time is moving fast upon us all, and what we've always known what it would be:

IT'S OUR TIME! The belief that this was such a long, hard road to climb is true, but it is even harder to stay on top once you get there.

All in all, my road along the way has successfully led to my dealing with Presidents of foreign nations, Kings and Queens, even the Vatican and Pope John Paul II before he was murdered by the Black Pope or Jesuits, along with numerous ministries throughout the world, and world business leaders.

Our Pope

Their Pope

Finally, and most importantly, I want everyone to know that I never could have done this myself alone. My team, Group K, second to none, has been fantastic and has shown so much character and resiliency. They are not just amazing associates, but they are incredible people. Therefore, let the world know they are incomparable and remain steadfast in freeing everyone from their bonds.

Some have come and gone, but they all have left a lasting impression. Thank God such wonderful people have come into my life! I must always include Group K as I go forward, for without them, I would be out of luck with so much still to do.

These are the Days!

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Indonesia At Bat: “Connect The Dots”

January 22, 2016

NFK Update: | Indonesia At Bat: “Connect The Dots” pt 2

The Prelude

I believe you know me by now and realize that I like cracking jokes, despite the pressure. And to be frank, if I have a choice on how to handle things I would rather joke about the entire mess and deal with it without your having to face it, or even know it is being dealt with – and then finally reappear making light of the entire issue.

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

There is no need for everyone to feel the pressure if a few can make it go away. I would rather be the one that faces that music. It is apparent that the music playing today is a familiar song to me and understand this game we have been playing for years now always would determine the outcome of our civilization.

“Take Me Out to The Ball Game”

First of all, our opposition has had their side picked for a long time, while we are near formation of ours and about ready to let things fly, so the best I can think of saying is “give me that damn bat we are not losing today or any day” ... I just have to be ready for the spitter, you see, they do not play fair...

Raymond Reddington is taking out the cabal in his world (in the television series “The Blacklist”) and now it is time for us to do the same in our world, the “real” world.

“The Cabal”

I have said for many years that Indonesia is at the epicenter of everything that needs to transpire. It had to be. It has been at the center since the 1950's when the Western Alliance and Japan moved their stolen assets (mostly from China) throughout Asia to be used by them at a later date.

With the stolen assets being the real prize of the war, which coincidentally was planned no later than 1921 by Emperor Hirohito and the Western Powers in London. No sooner had the First World War ended and we had conspiracies beginning for a Second World War.

Soon after the Second World War and the theft and rape of many nations we had the Bretton Woods agreement which only gave the West, who created their own financial system, the opportunity to steal whatever it is and was they tucked away.

And they did tuck it away for a rainy day and that day is now, and the place is Indonesia.

Without the stolen assets placed in locations such as Indonesia the West is going to suffer a horrible defeat. China is up on its heels, along with Russia, India and others including usual friends England and Germany and to be frank "they are not going to put up with Western bullshit any longer".

They have been stripping them down without firing a shot and magnificently so at that. Then again, the United States voted in a layman as President and he will be the one in the history books to take the blame for all that has happened and although unjust it is rightful seeing the mouthpiece of the West has no idea what he is doing (or does he?).

In the following preface you will see not only do the dots connect with what is happening now in Indonesia but how it all coincides with the Presidential election of Donald Trump; the only man that can and will be able to help us.

We no longer need Democrats or Republicans; both are of the same smelly ilk anyway (Soros/Rothschild) and although Mr. Trump is running as a Republican you can quickly reflect back a couple of months when he was ready to leave the party if it continued playing games.

He is not one of their boys simply because he is his own man paying his own way. And on this worldwide stage and with the entire game at stake and Indonesia at bat you can clearly see a repetition of the Sukarno/Kennedy alliance emanating in the very near future between Trump and Widodo (the current President of Indonesia).

I have spent a lot of time in Indonesia and I see how they can be (not just they but all) joined at the hips, thereby making this world a better place as it was meant to be. There are necessary steps that have to be taken and things that have to be done by the Indonesian people in order to bring about certain specific outcomes; but when this is all over with not only Indonesia and the East win this ballgame, but we all win.

Yet the Key to winning is the same as in any game and that is the Trump card and be sure the United States holds the one and only unique Trump card in the world.

Neil Keenan

The Preface

In his typical lighthearted fashion, on this occasion Neil begins by introducing us to his Snow Woman, Thasja; who is blessed with M&M's for eyes and shells from Bali as buttons.

Neil notes that this post has been, unfortunately, a bit of a rushed job but there are a few serious matters that need to be tabled.

The mall attack in Jakarta had nothing to do with foreigners. This attack was another attempt to spread the cabal-engineered brand of the "Islamic State" and Islamic extremism further around the world. It was also a message from the cabal that they do not want the Global Collateral Accounts' assets released.

But they have no choice in the matter. The truth is that this latest false flag event was carried out by an Indonesian national – who used to work for the "Islamic State" in Syria. This man had previously spent over two years in jail in Indonesia on terrorism charges.

Neil also reminds us about the insurrection in Indonesia that was financed by Rothschild bagman George Soros – that the Indonesian military had to put an end to.

He recalls Bill Clinton's Arkansas Foundation funneling drug money into the country so that they could try to assassinate the Vice President of Indonesia – with a plan to plant a western cabal-run Vice President in his place there.

Neil reminds us that the Japanese military mobilized for the first time since WW2, in an attempt to invade and steal the Indonesian Gold; only to be derailed by Keenan who publicly exposed the planned attack.

Neil further exposes the plot regarding Colombian drug money being sent by the Clinton Arkansas Foundation directly to Indonesian globalists and politicians, in their attempt to create panic and chaos in Indonesia and to manufacture a cabal-controlled government. Remember, the plan was to assassinate the Indonesian Vice President.

The Clinton Gang had flown in on their private jets, the Japanese Emperor's sister had also flown in on her jet with her Indonesian husband, and money transfers had taken place through Bill Clinton's Arkansas Foundation – directly to a political party.

Said funds were illegal, confiscated Colombian drug funds which somehow found their way from the US Drug Enforcement Agency coffers through the Arkansas Foundation into Indonesia with the main objective being to steal what does not belong to either the Clintons nor the Japanese Emperor's sister. The assets belong to the depositors.

We advised long ago that this was the plan, and of course that the Japanese Military is on standby. Should they not be able to purchase the gold, the West and their allies will attempt to take the assets one way or another.

Neil recalls the World Economic Forum meeting in Jakarta and their efforts to get their sticky mitts further into Indonesia. It is important to acknowledge that the World Economic Forum is another name for the Bilderberg network. These organizations are the same but different, in some respects.

In any event, we know for sure that the way that these thugs infiltrate countries is by way of heavy investment – investment with certain devious terms. And then soon enough, when a nation cannot repay the debt owed to said WEF, demand for payment will be made in terms of resources and assets, including political placements.

Neil reiterates that China and other countries have made it very clear that they no longer want any of these US dollar "Federal Reserve Notes". They are dumping them and they are working towards taking down the US dollar as the global reserve currency, by requiring that payments for goods and services rendered be made in their own national currencies.

This further serves to weaken the grip of the cabal with regards to their already-sinking ship. The US corporation dollar could have been saved once upon a time but now it has to go; as it is too far gone.

Everybody is fed up with the puppet Obama and the machinations of his handlers. These "people"; the likes of Barack Obama in the US, David Cameron in the UK, John Key in New Zealand, and whomever the current Prime Minister of the day happens to be in Australia – do only what their handlers instruct them to do.

Neil reflects upon the current Presidential race in the US and asserts his belief only one of the candidates that is going to be of any assistance to the people of America and the world that being Donald Trump:

While there are many people still trying to get their heads around the concept of a 'President Trump'; he is the only candidate that refuses to deal with moneyed lobbyists and corporate funding. He is fully self-funded and will not let anybody attach strings to him, such that they would like to pull.

The rest of the candidates are hopeless "bipartisan system" cut-out phonies – and Hillary is going to wind up in jail.

Neil states that without a President Trump, it would be extremely difficult to get assets from the Global Collateral Accounts into the United States without said resources being swiped by the cabal.

Therefore; Donald Trump should not only be the officially elected President of the United States of America; but as for "We the People" of America, and "We The People" of the World – he should become known as the Trump card.

And as we understand the Trump card supersedes all others.

He will rid us of the vermin that reside within, and who occupy and control the system. And in essence, we talk about the Pied Piper often, but this is one individual who will clean up the mess that others created. He is a winner, but most of all he is Donald Trump, and that is what makes him unique. Neil Keenan

Neil notes again the increasing number of properties being purchased in New Zealand, because the cabal now realize that the strongholds, they had established in places such as Costa Rica are now not far away enough for them; from the mess that they intentionally created. And the cabal are keenly aware that this mess is soon to catch up with them.

It has emerged that many members of the cabal have planned to relocate to remote New Zealand locations and to exterminate the Maori population – they intend to take control of their remote tribal landholdings in order to establish strongholds there. But the Maori are a warrior race; and there are many in NZ who are all too well aware of the game that is afoot.

In New Zealand, as in all places, the Global Collateral Account assets will be distributed by way of foundations that will be especially established in order that the cabal and their minions cannot gain access to any GCA assets.

Neil reflects upon the point that we could have had this whole thing done earlier, and that in the early days resources were not perhaps always used in the best possible ways – but this is to be expected when one is gaining an assessment of the lay of the land – and who's who in the zoo, so to speak.

Additionally, contributing to the fact that we are not out of this bind yet are the actions of the numerous shills such as the Italian Daniel dal Bosco, who got in the way and created trouble on the behalf of the P2 Lodge / Vatican.

This is all covered in the recently published 'History and Events Timeline' section of our website. (There are now PDF download versions of this material available, and at the time of writing these are available in English and Russian. We also have further translations in the works for other recent posts).

Neil reminds us of the threat made by John Kerry when he visited Indonesia; that he wanted the gold – and when he was told that he could not have any gold – he remarked about the weather and earthquake technologies that the West (the Zionist Nazi faction of the Cabal) have access to.

Kerry indirectly threatened to 'sink' Indonesia (and any other country that attempts to stand in their way) and this threat is on the record... just so you know. One further note; Indonesia has already felt the wrath of the HAARP machines, as have Turkey and a number of South American nations.

The Cabal will not be taking over Indonesia.

Neil notes that he is very clear on the steps that need to be taken from here. We are just about there, and we will win. There are no second thoughts, we will win.

Neil recalls that when John F. Kennedy returned home from his last meeting with President Sukarno in Indonesia relating to efforts to establish a new US financial system – that at that time, JFK already had two strikes against him.

The first being Kennedy's return of West Papua from the Dutch, to the Indonesians; thereby alienating the oil and corporate magnates that had significant control over strategic locations, also noted for gold deposits.

Secondly, Kennedy overlooked the deception with regards to his very own Vice President Lyndon Johnson who was receiving all information pertaining to the proceedings in Indonesia and who was forwarding this information to his handlers; information relating to the dissolution of both the CIA and the Federal Reserve Banks.

This directly led to John F. Kennedy's assassination.

Both Presidents Kennedy and Sukarno were working on numerous projects to make their nations stronger and greater; but one such project in particular was the new American financial system; eliminating all privately-owned Federal Reserve FIAT currency printing – and returning the power of issuance of the nation's currency to the American government itself.

“On June 4, 1963, a virtually unknown Presidential decree, Executive Order 11110, was signed with the authority to basically strip the Bank of its power to loan money to the United States Federal Government at interest.

With the stroke of a pen, President Kennedy declared that the privately-owned Federal Reserve Bank would soon be out of business.

The text of Executive Order President Kennedy's Executive Order (E.O.) 11110 modified the pre-existing Executive Order 10289 issued by U.S. President Harry S. Truman on September 17, 1951, and stated the following:

The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby designated and empowered to perform the following-described functions of the President without the approval, ratification, or other action of the President...

The order then lists tasks (a) through (h) which the Secretary may now do without instruction from the President.

None of the powers assigned to the Treasury in E.O. 10289 relate to money or to monetary policy. Kennedy's E.O. 11110 then instructs that:

SECTION 1.

Executive Order No. 10289 of September 9, 1951, as amended, is hereby further amended (a) By adding at the end of paragraph 1 thereof the following subparagraph: The authority vested in the President by paragraph (b) of section 43 of the Act of May 12, 1933, as amended (31 U.S.C. 821(b)), to issue silver certificates against any silver bullion, silver, or standard silver dollars in the Treasury not then held for redemption of an outstanding silver certificates, to prescribe the denominations of such silver certificates, and to coin standard silver dollars and subsidiary silver currency for their redemption,' and (b) By revoking subparagraphs (b) and (c) of paragraph 2 thereof.

SECTION 2.

The amendments made by this Order shall not affect any act done, or any right accruing or accrued or any suit or proceeding had or commenced in any civil or criminal cause prior to the date of this Order but all such liabilities shall continue and may be enforced as if said amendments had not been made.

John F. Kennedy,

THE WHITE HOUSE, June 4, 1963.

And in concluding this update, Neil touches on the point that he has a number of "Irons in the fire" and it is simply a matter of time until he gets things moving either now and / or once he is back in Indonesia. We are very close to our goal now and so Neil is choosing his words with great consideration.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | They Are All Watching You: 'Malaysia'

February 9, 2016

NFK Update: They Are All Watching You: 'Malaysia'

A few days ago, I received an anonymous message advising me that a major global scam was about to take place that would inflict economic damage beyond belief on most of the world.

They Are All Watching You: 'Malaysia'

Malaysian Prime Minister Najib Razak

At first, I shook my head to make sure everything was actually working right and that I was reading it right, and hearing right and so on. Once I said, "Okay, let's get down to it and find out where this is taking us", I learned that in just one day, on February 9th, this scam would be taking place. Fortunately, the deal was postponed until sometime after the Chinese New Year.

The players are 'major players' on the Eastern stage being manipulated by the Western or Western-educated. There is no question we are talking about the New World Order and the one person they are squeezing is Malaysia's Prime Minister: Najib Razak. The Prime Minister is apparently a good man who walked into a very bad situation, but it was his doing that set the entire situation off.

You can read about this all over the Internet, but this not what the complete problem is, because so much more is at stake.

This could be considered an internal problem in Malaysia, but, in fact, it is a far greater problem with world-wide consequences. It affects many nations which thereby creates a second level of the scam including the scurry to find the funds to cover up the first scam.

The second level is meant not only to enslave the Malaysian people and their economy for the next 49 years to their newly found foreign masters; it would also put a quick finish to the US Dollar as we know it.

What is of grave concern right now is the $14 Trillion USD in a cash deposit in an offshore bank. It is real, and it is deposited, but the Feds, the CIA, Switzerland and others have already made it clear to this person that these funds cannot be used.

Swiss Attorney General Michael Lauber

Yet, here we have this serious scam sneaking up onto Center Stage ready to engulf the world and destroy many an economy. Who is responsible for this? None other than “Bongbong” Marcos, the son of the former Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos. He was born Ferdinand Romualdez Marcos on September 13, 1957, and is widely known as “Bongbong” Marcos.

Bongbong Marcos

His father was never a “Depositor” of these assets, but only a “Holder” of them which is an important difference. These were predominately Dragon Family assets that were used to develop most of the world at that previous time.

The payments relating to the leasing of those assets ended up in many bunkers throughout Asia from where the $14 Trillion arose. Allegedly, this grand amount emerged from much smaller beginnings but went into a trade (PPP) where it was turned and rolled over and over and over until it became such a number.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Again, it is real, and it is in place. But it cannot and must not be used now, because it would damage or destroy much of the world's economy!

Also, the releasing of such funds now would also destroy the world reserve as it is currently. However, the USD is now on a course to destroy itself with Khazarian Mafia characters running the show who are strongly intent on accomplishing this agenda.

Thus, this attempted play by “Bongbong” Marcos is pushing the crucial time schedule forward today rather than tomorrow. He might be part of the overall plan, as he is part of the New World Order, just as his father was. If this is so, then why is he not listening to those who are telling him that he cannot do anything with such a huge amount?

Why? Because he has the “green light” to move forward, and, if so, it is up to the rest of the world to stop such a perilous move! It will be widely destructive enough to each and every nation.

4.5 Riggit to $1 USD is the exchange to take place on February 9, 2016. (The deal has now been postponed, in order to sneak it through after the Chinese New Year). 30% of this is to be returned to kickback the Cabal cronies who are involved in the deal with the rest being turned over to Bongbong.

He has taken “personal leave” amidst corruption scandals associated with Malaysia's state-owned 1MDB fund, with which Goldman Sachs worked closely – and they seem to be getting the hell out of Dodge.

On the other hand, the PM would love for this to end BUT he has nowhere to go. Mr. Razak is to be the scapegoat for this entire fiasco and he is helpless. They have cornered him and are about to toss him under the ‘world’ bus.

Ongoing probes

SWITZERLAND - The Attorney-General has asked Malaysia to aid in a probe into the alleged misappropriation of US$4 billion (S$5.7 billion) linked to state investor firm, 1Malaysia Development Berhad (1MDB). The Swiss authorities refer to four cases related to allegations of criminal conduct, bribery of foreign public officials, misconduct in public office, money laundering and criminal mismanagement. They involve various "former Malaysian public officials and both former and current public officials from the United Arab Emirates".

SINGAPORE - The Commercial Affairs Department (CAD) and the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS) have seized a "large number" of bank accounts over possible money-laundering and other offences linked to alleged financial mismanagement at 1MDB. A total of 12 bank accounts with about $9.71 million belonging to a private banker, Mr Yak Yew Chee, who dealt with entities connected to 1MDB as well as Malaysian businessman Low Taek Jho, also known as Jho Low, remains frozen.

HONGKONG - Reports say police are still probing bank deposits worth over US$250 million after a report was lodged in August 2015 by former Umno branch chief, Khairuddin Abu Hassan, who has been a staunch critic of Malaysian Prime Minister Najib Razak.

UNITED STATES - The New York Times says a unit of the Justice Department is investigating properties purchased in the US in recent years by shell companies belonging to Mr Najib's stepson, as well as other real estate connected to Jho Low, according to the New York Times.

MALAYSIA - The Attorney-General has said he found no criminal wrongdoing in either the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission's investigation reports, nor that of the central bank, with regards to 1MDB. He has also cleared Mr Najib of wrongdoing in connection with US$681 million deposited into his bank account, saying it was a donation from the Saudi royal family. Mr Najib says most of the money has been returned. However, other investigations are ongoing, including a review of 1MDB's accounts by Malaysia's Auditor-General that will be examined by Parliament's Public Accounts Committee as well as a probe by the police.

1MDB

In the meantime, there has been political infighting in Malaysia for the PM's position as well as that of the Governor of the Bank. This smells like something we are getting used to, the New World Order.

Yeah, they would love to get their own guy into the PM's position or the Governor of the Bank. If so, they would then control Malaysia, and, therefore, begin their Asia Conquest. This one is not very hard for us to figure out, but it might be difficult to prevent from happening. So, everyone needs to call the office of the Governor of the Central Bank of Malaysia and let them know we are aware of this scam, that "All eyes are upon you"! We do not want it or need it. Our plate is full, thank you!

Remember this is not a David Copperfield magic act where now you see it, and now you don't. In one minute, Malaysia will have $14 Trillion, minus the 30% kickback, and the next day, they will have nothing! This leaves Mr. Marcos with Trillions in Ringgits, the NWO with 30%, and the Malaysian government with zero.

What more does one have to say? On the one hand, yes, you will have a new PM and/or a new Governor of the Central Bank. I guess you could bet your eyetooth that they will be positioned into place by the NWO, similar to what we have already seen in Italy and Greece.

Remember, from what I have seen from the accounts, "Bongbong" never held any such numbers in any account. If something was left to him in his father's will (I have read the will), then he should understand his father was a “Nominee”, not a “Depositor”, which is a big difference!

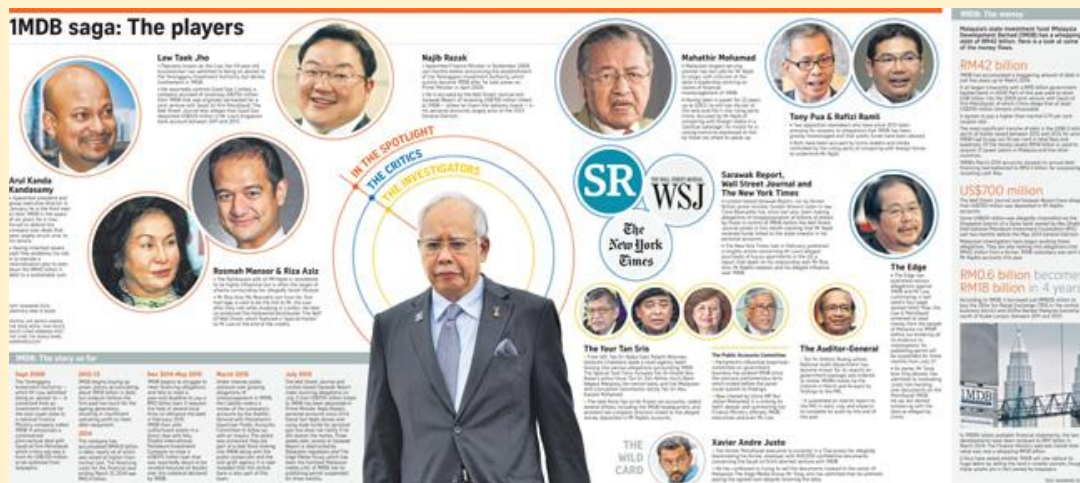

Should anything transpire of such magnitude, then the banks have to be personally held responsible along with “Bongbong” and the lower-level players who are being paid to shut up. They must all be tossed into the mix and brought to justice.

Malaysia, you have your hands full, but you can do it with just making a few immediate phone calls to the PM's and the Governor's offices. You must stop this! The world must stop this! Let them know you are watching them, because, right now, as I write this, the satellites in the sky are on them. And the jails are getting warmed up for them. One final note, and I want those involved to seriously think about what I say:

“If you know about the above, then can you imagine what they will do with you when they arrest you? I am only the messenger, and I want to prevent this, so this is why I submit it for the world-at-large to see.”

The graphic below provides the Malaysian names, corporations, and government representatives involved with the 1MDB. You can see for yourself “Who’s Who” in this game. Many have fled or are about to flee, but others stay for greed.

1MDB Saga: The Players: (But in many ways they are also the scapegoats)

One further question I have is: “If they are allowed to dump $14 Million USD into the World Market, just how much value will the US Dollar have?”
I will tell you how much... and I have no idea of the money game... Nothing!

Malaysia's former prime minister Najib Razak has been found guilty of all seven charges in his first trial linked to the multibillion-dollar 1MDB scandal – a landmark conviction that means he now faces 12 years in jail.

Najib has denied any wrongdoing in relation to what is one of the world's biggest financial frauds, in which billions of dollars were allegedly looted from a state fund set up to promote development. The scandal shook Malaysian politics, led to the ousting of Najib's Umno party after 61 years in power, and prompted a series of investigations in countries around the world.

Asian Insider Speaks Out

Hello once again.

I had a feeling I might return for an encore, but I was hoping that common sense would have prevailed prior to this juncture.

Nevertheless, from this very tired Western-educated Asian graduate, I must say that it is not in my chemical make-up to let urgent things go that need addressing in order to save our planet. You see, I have a beautiful family and home here in Asia, and I intend on keeping that with which I am blessed.

If you are an obstacle as Neil says, then you have to be removed.

After reading Mr. Keenan / Group K's most recent Malaysian post, I had to put my seat belt on to assure myself that I would not fall off my chair! The possibilities of my witnessing my last days on this planet flashed before my eyes and I said, "No! Not this! I am going to take out my almighty pen (computer) and address things once again. If it's the last thing I do I will have my say."

You see, I know Malaysia as well as I know the back of my hand. I know ex-Prime Minister Mr. Mahathir, I know Mr. Keenan's friend Alex Li Ling Soon, who owns gold mines in Kalimantan, Indonesia. And I know Mr. Benjamin Fulford's friend Mr. Kawase who never wanted to be one of the three that comprised the White Dragon Society (WDS). Mr. Mahathir was a wonderful stately politician who is looking to, despite his age enter the political arena once again.

Politically speaking, I have been involved in Asian politics my entire life, despite being a family member. And so, when I witness events transpiring which I actually have my finger on, and reports are not factually made, I, despite being elderly, still have the power and ability to correct the record.

The record should always be straight forward, and transparent.

I have no motive, no spin. I simply believe that the people always deserve better than they get. We are a world-wide people, as one, and the sooner we all realize that we are in the same pot of shit, the faster we will climb out of it.

Bloggers are only bloggers. They tell you what they think; yet how can they think about that which they will never be able to fathom, and in the process step upon, and dirty, good clean information? They are not qualified to analyze situations when they have no facts to work with.

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

This is one reason I write, to inform. The other is to directly address Mr. Keenan and his Group K.

Shall I start by being kind or nasty? Do you wish to hear the good or the bad? I flipped a coin and nasty/bad win.

Well, we can begin with Ben Fulford's most recent post, which clearly sounds familiar to what NK stated with regards to the Sarinah Mall attack in Jakarta. That post made it clear that George Soros is financing the terrorists and that they were being trained in Syria, not America, although America has terrorist training bases. Please read it again or 'Google it' to discover that the name of the terrorist who trained in Syria and spent time in Indonesian jails is Bahron Naim.

This is the terrorist who was involved in the Sarinah Mall blast. Not only did Mr. Keenan mention that George Soros is financing a terrorist group, but also, did he not make this point very clear as well? Did Mr. Keenan not talk about George Soros being expelled once before from Indonesia with his help, when Soros was financing a group of terrorists in which the Indonesian military surrounded a village?

Mr. Fulford, your news is old news. Mr. Keenan must have told you to go forthwith and use it. I could go on writing, but why waste my time?

There are better things to focus on like Mr. Keenan and Group K. I have come a long way over the years from being a believer, to outright amazed at how this man and his team pick up information, yet all the while, maintaining focus on the Collateral Accounts. Not for one second do they lose focus.

Also, Mr. Keenan does not lose sight of the fact that the East, and most especially, Indonesia, have been abused by the West for 60-80 years. The people of Indonesia will be treated fairly and properly and will be more than compensated for the unfairness that has been delivered them in the past.

What everyone must be concerned about now is the US dollar bottoming out. If the US dollar collapses, then there is little reward for anyone, and so we need to get those Elders off their seats immediately in order to get things done. More than 80 years of holding must be worth something, so whomever has their ear should advise them that the window of opportunity is closing, and very quickly.

And the window is also closing fast on the East Javan Elders, who have totally neglected everyone concerned with the Collateral Accounts. They believe that no one, and I mean no one, realizes what they are up to.

Yet, all they ever had to do was look up. If they are as spiritually connected as they claim, they would be cognizant of the fact that the bunkers they watch have been passed down by family member to family member to watch over. And they would also realize that our family does not allow anyone to move assets without explicit approval.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Mr. Keenan has that approval. In other words, we do watch you, see you, know who you are dealing with, speaking with, selling to, and we definitely know where our gold is, even if sold, at all times.

You are hereby on notice that every detail and every move is tracked!

Unfortunately, these people have been taking gold out piece by piece in their efforts to cash in on someone else's deposits. Are you Elders or thieves? Holders or depositors? Maybe it would be nice to have one of our drones pay your families a visit? It's not so far-fetched, it just might get our message across as to whom the depositors are. What's ours is ours!

NOT yours!

Sorry I got off the beaten track, but these concerns must be clearly stated. Please understand, Mr. Keenan, that since the days of Bretton Woods 1 and 2, the West has entirely cut us off from our own assets while, at the same time, illegally using these very same assets for their own personal gain.

I understand, Mr. Keenan, that you have all of the NEW Codes for the Black Book, so we, the family, are safe. No longer do the Bretton Woods Agreements apply to any Asian nation. The West has blatantly violated the conditions of the agreements, thus, rendering them null and void. We have clear International law denoting this.

You Westerners have one outspoken, alleged representative of the World Bank named Karen Hudes, who purports to represent the Global Collateral Accounts. Be assured that she has nothing whatsoever to do with our holdings in Asia.

I would also like to personally thank Mr. Keenan for saving Malaysia from its own path of destruction. As well as for preventing the collapse of the US dollar which – consequently, would have led to the collapse of many nations.

Mr. Keenan and Group K have already saved much of this planet and especially in places that still believe in, and have faith in the US dollar. Once again, as with the gold in South Korea, Thailand, and Indonesia, he has saved the planet from overloading its financial circuits.

The recently failed $14 Trillion USD transaction would have been far more than what the world could absorb at the moment without delivering a mortal blow. Had it happened it would have been our "Swan Song".

Reflecting on Group K's amazing time-line of events, accomplishments, and on-going challenges, I wonder why Mr. Keenan goes it alone? As far as I know, he does not like asking anyone for help, and waits until he figures out his own strategy towards any particular goal. Because, with Mr. Keenan things are changing constantly and his mind moves so quickly that nothing can remain invariable. He is always ten steps ahead of the opposition and I hate to think what would happen to him (and us) if he were not.

But this is a world problem, our problem, not just Mr. Keenan's problem, and realistically; many a dollar is needed to complete all the efforts to be made. Should the help and financial assistance that is most needed now come forth, from those with the will and means to help, then the waiting should be over to get this completed.

Mr. Keenan is not a blogger; he is an 'action figure', a "one-man wrecking crew", as they say – who has opened up door after door, time and time again with a limited budget. Neil now approaches an expenditure of eight figures, which is apparently not enough to make this happen, nor could anyone reasonably expect it to be.

Many nations who have spent billions of dollars fighting this battle, on one side or the other, have accomplished nothing in comparison to Group K with their limited budget. You have to wonder how hard they tried? Group K should be holding their heads high, and they should be demanding assistance, yet you do not hear even the slightest peep unless you are in the inner circle.

His team, whom someone recently referred to as "ragamuffins", are far from being such. As a matter of fact, the Chinese government as well as Pentagon officials, have stated that Group K is by far the most competent humanitarian organization on the planet today. Yet this team still hunts for the funds to finish their quest, our quest. We are the East, and we are solvent. We have patiently waited for nearly 100 years to use our own assets, all the while watching the West illegally use them, as we watch our own people starve while the West eat with our money.

And now we are still gracious enough to extend our hands to assist Mr. Keenan and Group K so we may finally get things moving as they should have been such a long time ago – providing the West takes responsibility for their own problems. The world needs to rid themselves of the Western criminal Cabal, the bankers, and the ridiculous "leaders" such as Obama. And once the West does this, then you can take a deep breath.

We will assist Mr. Keenan, but this is a Western battle. Do remember that! Should the battle move to an Asian arena, you can depend on us to take control of the matter immediately.

So how do you get Mr. Keenan to ask for financial help? He won't ask and so what can one do?

Just imagine how much more he and Group K could do if they had the necessary funding to finish their quest to open the Global Collateral Accounts. How much easier life would be, especially the precautions that could be taken against the Cabal and the Western system.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

I am not telling you what to do with your dollars, but without Mr. Keenan your dollars would have gone kaput last week!

He saved them for you. He saved Malaysia as well. He never expects a 'Thank You'. Indeed, Group K, you are a remarkable group of loyal people binding together to make this world a better place, and we thank you for it. As for Mr. Keenan's associate, Mr. Drake Kent, your day is coming soon. We know of you through Mr. Keenan.

I am not sure if NK and his team can continue to save this planet, but up to now, he surely has a high degree of success. What if he comes up short financially, and he fails? The entire West could go belly up, and why? Because we depended on Mr. Keenan to take care of all financial matters himself. It's perhaps time to help out since we are coming to the end of this road.

We are either going to be winners or losers; but you all will most certainly not be spectators.

Sorry Neil, but you need to be put in your place here and permit others to share the burden. People are waiting for you to request help although you don't ask. This is your shortcoming and, having spent millions of your own dollars, this is more than enough. Forget it, open your doors, and let a few in and let us get this over with. Everyone is waiting for a happy ending for all.

Mr. Keenan, I have been advised to come out and make such statements. It is time to end this waiting game! There exists no more time for delay. Everything is moving quickly now; every second, every minute, every hour – someone is losing a loved one because of the situation you are facing.

Time has become not only costly but precious. You have brought everyone thus far, and we pray you carry everyone with you till our new beginnings, and then, let YOUR New World begin to breathe.

Thank you, Mr. Keenan, for all you and your team do. You definitely are not bloggers, but doers. We are all so happy you found your quest, and it involves the saving, not only of all our lives, but the actual planet itself. And, more so we're happy, because you found the best people along the road that now comprise Group K.

Thank you.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Beware Of The Trojan Horses

NFK Update: Beware Of The Trojan Horses

This is a rather unusual preface, with respect to a very important situation. Within this short preface you will find that Neil Keenan has his own thoughts on how things move forward, and although time is moving quickly, he is aware that one wrong move would mess up the entire package.

As Neil says, "I have taken it further than anyone else in history with mostly my own money, my labor and my time (with my team). I guess if anyone is going to make a mistake, it should be me. Not someone else." Above all, who knows better than Neil? No one!

This includes a rather tame video where Neil thanks the Asian Insider whom Neil names "Lanny". Yes, Neil thanks Lanny for what is purported to be well-meaning, heartfelt assistance. However, in fact, Neil has been through these many times and knows the ups and downs; while there are many more downs than ups.

Neil realizes that Lanny heard about Neil's bank account being robbed, but, on the other hand, Lanny did not hear that Neil made contact with the Family. They told him he was doing just fine and to take things one step at a time. More importantly, one mistake, and it's over! There is no room for error now.

In an unusual manner Neil deals with the Asian Insider's post advising Neil that he has "to let others in". Neil's response is, "Who do I let in? Where are they? What do they have to offer? And at whose expense? Now if you wish to advise me that you, Asian Insider, are ready, or have someone who is; to further finance this operation, that's great!

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Let's check it out and see if it's a fit. If not, then don't you think it's best to just let me continue to do what I have done since the very beginning... which is to do things myself? That way there are no last-minute mistakes, and this deal gets done for the planet at large."

There are going to be many far-reaching changes taking place in the very near future. You are not going to believe much of what is already taking place, but this is Neil's job to tell you. Even right now the US is attempting to make deals with China for the US debt with new US paper money.

FIATs! How does this affect us all if the US purchases the debt with more Fiat money? It puts the US on top of the game again with still more of this perpetrated fraud. Does it give the US more omnipotent power? The answer is NO, because the "House of Cards" is going to fall quickly.

Neil will be there to pick it up should it ever get this far.

There are many reasons to be concerned here. If such things happen, then we are all in trouble! The US dollar was cancelled out on January 2, 2016, but this information has not yet been released. This relates directly to the "new" Fiat money now being discussed here.

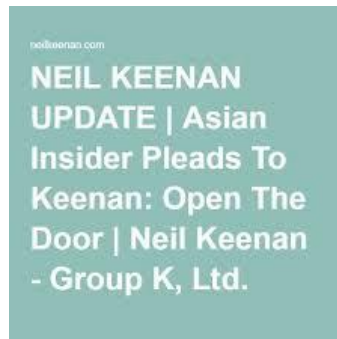

What are the "Terms of Agreement" to rid them of the Chinese debt? Did they give up the house? The boat? What? We need to know now, and TRUMP needs to know so that he can correct any desperate measures taken by the Cabal and the Obama groups in their panic.

You see, when TRUMP takes over as President, they are done! Gone!

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

The Bushes, the Clintons, Obama and all the others who are in deep shit! TRUMP will veto and nullify any and ALL agreements they made on their own behalf. They will be beaten in every deal they make now that is not in the people's interest. This is what every nation must be assured of, and so beware to everyone who is hoping to pick the bones of the American bird! This bird is not ready to be cooked, and it will be back with a vengeance! Again, this you can be resolutely assured of.

Finally, Neil does recognize that he is going to need astute and effective help. Group K is going to grow exponentially. An organization that's going to do the work of millions will take thousands on a worldwide scale. So now, "Help" it is, and good help at that!

But the doors are always open, Asian Insider, as you respectfully requested. Little did you know that the doors have always been open, but as the Family states, "Step by step." Also, good help is hard to find!

Next time, my friend, please knock on the door, and the door will be opened...

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Newt Gingrich Exposes The Republican Party

Rubio, Cruz are Part of the Cabal: Donald Trump is not one of them.

As we have all been sitting, watching and wondering what the hell is going on with the Republican race in particular; here their party joins together to destroy front runner Donald Trump with lies, slurs and innuendo. They are going all-out to try to take Trump down because they are the Cabal, and should Trump take this parties' leadership position in the Presidential Elections, they will have lost. Years and years of screwing "We the People" will come to an end and a new era of growth and prosperity shall begin.

You have heard throughout that we have been dealing with what some consider to be "Conspiracy Theories". And given the usual the Cabal-controlled media treatment, such matters are never mentioned as anything other than such. This is standard disinformation procedure.

Now, the former speaker of the House, Newt Gingrich, finally has grown tired of listening to the chaos and panic that is running rampant throughout the halls of the Republican Party and he has decided enough is enough. Gingrich sees the Grand Old Party falling apart, with the front runner Donald Trump – who is not part of the secretive boys club; has not taken any initiation rites, who is considered an outsider – one whom 'they' cannot control, and most of all who is not part of their very own corrupt team. The 'team' that has been raping society for who knows how many years.

If, after watching the following [short] video, you do not grab yourself and your neighbors to go out and vote Trump – then you are not Americans nor Patriots – you are traitors. The battle lines are being finalized and thank god Gingrich has come forward in making an effort towards saving the world from these evil, despicable beasts who care nothing for you.

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

This does not begin and end with the States. No, this stretches throughout the entire world. Now you know what you are dealing with. For those of you in the US; get off your backsides, go out and vote TRUMP. Make sure your vote gets out as such; and raise hell if you should see it change to anyone other than him.

God Bless you Newt Gingrich for exposing all that is bad, and possibly assisting in the effort towards creating an opportunity for the planet to finally engender peace.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | A Fly On The Wall

March 7, 2016

For nearly all of the entire two-month period that Neil spent in Jakarta at the end of 2015 – working on releasing the Global Collateral Accounts, he had Lanny (also known as the Asian Insider) with him. Not always, but often.

Neil felt that 'Lanny' was keeping an eye on him (likely as part of a final evaluation exercise in order to determine as to whether or not Neil was qualified to handle the Global Collateral Accounts) and report back to the Family. His latest correspondence to Neil (below) is a post for all to see; as to whether or not Neil would pass muster or fall on his face.

We leave it to you to find out for yourselves, reading 'Lanny's Observations,' which are quite detailed and were surprising even for Neil to read. And if this was startling for Neil, we can only imagine what you will think when you see it.

This is being posted for only one reason, the Asian Insider wants everyone to see his evaluation of the person we know as Neil Keenan.

[ Asian Insider Correspondence Begins]

Mr. Keenan,

The completion of one journey necessitates the beginning of another.

In response to your recent post, I want to reassure you that in no way will I reveal any further, your most private business affairs. I have every confidence that you are perfectly situated in the right place at the right time now – even though some challenges remain.

I must relate that in spending time with you I have experienced both enjoyable and confusing escapades. Personally, I would like to thank you for allowing me to bear witness to your many trying circumstances, from calmness to tumultuous storms, and to your giving so generously from the heart.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Your drive and your desire are incomparable. I have never witnessed such an incredible soul drive through the challenges that you have endured without complaint. I know of the poisoning episodes (now numbering six or seven?), the robotic bug, and most recently the health challenges delivered upon you both in terms of blood sugar and acidic elevations.

You then went into hiding and so most people had no idea. Only those who were extremely close to you knew what you were going through, and that it was not very pleasant. I am aware that you almost did not make it this time, but with your team and friends pulling together for you and assisting you, you managed to kick your way back to health.

What an amazing story Group K has to tell one day!

I must confess that I was “planted” to observe you and your habits, Neil. Some had tasked me with determining, at this pivotal point, to make definitively sure that you really are a conscious, diligent stalwart and not a “one trick pony”?

We could not have been duped into turning over the quadrillions of dollars in the Global Collateral Accounts to just anyone, or even to someone like you; without being totally assured that you could handle such a monumental undertaking. What I have learned is that you are more than capable of handling this mission, although not entirely by yourself.

I (we), know you will delegate responsibility to others more qualified than yourself to do what you have no desire to do. As a matter of fact, this is not so much about the money with you, as it is the thrill of the chase, catching what no one else has ever caught; as well as your sincere desire to help Indonesia and the rest of the world.

The one difference you noted to me between this and other deals, is that this is the gift that keeps on giving, not just to you or your group, but to the entire world. In other words, what you said to me whilst not being aware of my wider job description, immediately set me to thinking that you are absolutely the man for this job.

I watched you go through so much of your own money and then go without, while knowing there is “gold in them ‘thar’ hills.”

You did not push things even though you had every right to do so. No, you looked over the terrain and acted strategically when you deemed it to be appropriate. A necessary attribute in dealing with something so very important as the Global Collateral Accounts.

You have such a small team at this time, yet although somewhat in disarray, they always seem to find a way to get things done. I can only imagine what will happen when you have things going the way you would prefer them to be. You were always at a disadvantage in Jakarta working from your room, waiting for your team mates to arrive, and when they didn't, you'd lose another day and another dollar.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

I also saw that patience is not one of your virtues, but this is no longer so important, seeing you will have a team of highly qualified professionals, thereby freeing you to do even more important things. This is the way smart people work, and in our extended discourse you relayed to me that this is the way you plan on doing things.

You are right in counting on your family friends both in Hong Kong and in Ireland. Both are strong team members who know exactly what they're doing. Most importantly, you respectfully defer to them in their fields of expertise.

I've overheard the conversations you've held with them, and I observed that at all times you listened to them regarding financing and marketing. You are a team player and a skilled leader, the perfect one to lead this effort regarding the freeing of the contents of the Global Collateral Accounts.

Your team is going to swell into a megalith of a foundation, one that will facilitate the financing of the freedom of this planet. You've already seen the truth of this as well as stating to me that "everyone will come to us for financing, when seeing we will have the most money worldwide." The writing is on the wall.

I saw your eyes light up when the discussion took place among the Elders who said they have been speaking to you for 30 years. You laughed, but the Elders were serious. You need to truly understand that they are not on the same playing field as you find yourself, or your spiritual time line.

They often work in another dimension, and, rightfully so, they do know what you're going to say even a day in advance. They also know who you are, and knew who you were even before you took your first step into Indonesia. They have told you as such.

Remember the Elders told you about how the entities need you in order to be released from the bunkers, and you heard their spirits calling you as you were driving away, asking you to help them and not to leave them. At first you thought you were hearing things, but now you know it to be true and you must further open your consciousness and allow things to happen. This is a topic that will eventually be explained to you. The entities live on another plane of existence so let them help and assist you as well.

Well, I had many weeks to observe, and I must say that both yourself and your team are very impressive. You continue to make achievements against phenomenal odds, but I might add, as has been relayed to you before, know that you are protected by 9 angels and often 12 or more. This is no laughing matter.

You have so many helping to protect and assist you in your quest. You have already experienced this but rarely speak of it as you have concerns about how "you could never tell anyone what is happening, because it seems so crazy." "Coo Coo," you called it. But you also understood miraculous things were happening outside of this physical plane are taking place, and you are active within it all.

There is a lot more that I could say, but I am releasing this onto the internet for one reason: To let everyone know that my last communique was to push you on one last time. This would appear to have served its purpose – I wanted to see the “mad dog” in you come out once more and it did, although it was a much more restrained version than the last one, I saw observed in Jakarta. You still are a “one man wrecking crew,” and you are fearless.

This is good, but please understand you will not be able to interact with everybody in such a manner. Your soft side is so often a joy to watch and experience. You may have struggled to be one of the boys, especially when small talk does not come naturally to you.

You are on an expansive playing field now my friend, so use it, use it well, use it all, and most especially your numerous formidable talents.

I am available should you require my assistance at any stage in the future. As per my one of my key directives, I have reassured all parties involved that you are the only person for this assignment. Make the necessary arrangements including whatever bridging finance you may need.

The task of releasing the Global Collateral Accounts is as imminent as it is urgent. You must proceed as quickly as practicable upon your return.

You are the Key.

*Kind Regards,
Asian Insider*

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Does Anyone Really Know What Time It Is?

NFK Update: Does Anyone Really Know What Time It Is?

This is a time where everyone seems to be fighting for position, if they ever had one to begin with. You can see the desperation in what they write and how it simply holds no rhyme or reason why there. Yet it is!

Chicago – Does Anybody Really Know What Time It Is?

Neil's latest post mostly stands to correct some matters that have been tossed out there as fact and add a little to what has happened that barely has been touched but is real. He has lost quite a bit of time with some ailments he incurred while in Asia, with some not only lingering but clinging on – and biting him as though they would never let go.

But let's not forget that Neil is the biter here and he usually finds his way through the maladies they have tossed at him. This one is no different! Dr. Group is just a stone's throw away when Neil gets whacked with something – and as usual he came through with flying colors and got the meds to Neil right before things could take a turn for the worse.

Gracias Sr. Group! First and foremost, one only has to look and do a bit of homework on the New York Agreement (where the Dutch were duped by the Americans and Indonesians) and you will understand the past leading to the present.

Joko Widodo to Visit the Netherlands to Improve Trade Relations?

"Indonesian President Joko Widodo may visit the Netherlands in 2016. In an interview with Dutch newspaper "De Telegraaf" newly appointed Indonesian ambassador to the Netherlands Gusti Agung Wesaka Puja hinted at Widodo's visit to the Netherlands. Ambassador Puja informed further that more information about this possible state visit is to follow in the next couple of weeks. "You will be surprised," he was quoted saying. Reportedly, Bert Koenders, Dutch Minister of Foreign Affairs, will visit Indonesia in the next two weeks to prepare Widodo's visit.

The article in De Telegraaf was published on Saturday 5 March 2016. When Dutch reporters asked Indonesian Ambassador Gusti Agung Wesaka Puja whether a state visit of Joko Widodo to the Netherlands would improve trade relations between both countries, Puja replied: "you will be surprised in the next couple of weeks.

When asked whether Indonesian President Joko Widodo (often referred to as Jokowi) will visit the Netherlands this year or next year, Pura replied: "I expect this year to become an important year for both countries." On the reporters' follow up question "does this mean that Widodo will visit the Netherlands this year?", Pura replied: "Be patient, soon there will be more information."

Puja's statements clearly inform that there are serious plans for a state visit of Widodo to the Netherlands. This would be the first time an Indonesian president visits the Netherlands since Abdurrahman Wahid in the year 2000. Wahid is only the second Indonesian president ever to visit the Netherlands. Back in 1970 president Suharto made the first state visit.

Diplomatic Relations Indonesia - The Netherlands

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Relations between Indonesia and its former colonial masters have been volatile. Notable examples of turbulent relations in the recent past include the following issues: in 2010 then President Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono called off a state visit to the Netherlands after the separatist group 'Republic of South Moluccas' (RMS) asked for Yudhoyono's arrest when touching ground in the Netherlands.

In 2012 a tank deal (involving the purchase of 100 Dutch second-hand tanks), worth around USD $280 million, between both countries failed after Dutch parliament declined to approve the deal on concern that the Indonesian government could use these vehicles against its own people. Indonesian authorities were not amused to learn this reason, and it was particularly sensitive considering the Dutch were the former colonial power in Indonesia.

A positive event occurred in November 2013 when a group of Dutch politicians and more than one hundred Dutch company delegates, led by prime minister Mark Rutte, paid a four-day visit to Indonesia with the aim to enhance bilateral relations and search for business opportunities between both countries.

However, relations became strained again in January 2015 after Indonesia went ahead - despite fierce resistance from Dutch authorities - with the execution of several convicted foreign drug traffickers, including one Dutch citizen. As a consequence, the Netherlands temporarily recalled its ambassador from Jakarta."

Let's face it the Indonesians are not happy with their agreement with Freeport McMorran and have decided to take their deal elsewhere, and what better place than the nation that was shafted by the US – The Netherlands?

Why would President Jokowi ever meet with the P2 Lodge, an organization that Benjamin is familiar with? – The P2 Lodge was never involved in governmental agreements and is in fact part of the Western Cabal!

Why would the Vatican be involved in this matter other than the fact Ben is always favorably speaking of the Black Pope (surely not our Pope) and I am speaking of the fake Pope named Francis? I could speak on this for some time but it is best just to state what is real and that is Jokowi is leveraging his nations position and rightfully so by bringing this package around to the Dutch. If the Dutch offer a better deal for the Indonesian Government and people it should belong to them or any other concern that raises the stakes henceforth providing Indonesia with a stronger return on its offering; especially in West Papua.

Related: Jakarta unhappy with Freeport divestment offer

Related: Papua's Hidden Past Haunts Jokowi Presidency

Secondly, people are popping up from every nook and cranny, all Cabal – in support of anyone but Trump. Imagine that for years everyone wondered who these slimy snakes were and well, now you know.

Just watch any Primary debate and you have them pegged. Going further it seems as though Ted Cruz lied one too many times, The National Enquirer caught up with him and now that his wife and her business has been exposed, we all know TED is included in their package. He is NWO! She is as well. She is a member of the CFR and was involved with Goldman Sachs. Nice girl, just the kind you want to bring home to Mommy. Then again with Ted's shenanigans recently surfacing, you are most likely getting a close look at their dysfunctional relationship. Would this extend to the White House?

Would we have another Whoop de doo affair similar to what we have with Obama and his transgender other? Then we have another new fake taking the place of the old fake this time, by the name of Kamaran Abdul Rakim Faily. Faily claims he is a consultant to the Royal Families but forgets to tell you that he speaks of the Western Royal Families if any at all – and he is Cabal himself.

Faily tells you how according to the Bretton woods agreement the assets are still in control of the Global accounts? Hahahah! – Impossible seeing the East who owns as Depositors (in the BIS) the majority of the Global Accounts, and have never participated in any such fraudulent agreement from the date of signature.

Before the contracts were dry the West was up to their old ways and hijacked the financial system not for the first time but the second. He tosses in the Vatican and the Committee of 300 and what do you get? The same old Smorgasbord you had for more than 60 years. Simply bullshit and remember this joker as the (real) family called him (other name for a clown) wants you to call him and offer your bunker trunks to him, should you be an ELDER?

What he does not tell you is that the West has defrauded not only the depositors of the assets but also the people of this planet that were supposed to receive humanitarian projects with this investment. The only ones who made money or did projects with said assets are those we call '1 Percenters'. Not anyone else and most assuredly not you!

The Cabals' days are numbered.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

No thank you Mr. Faily we do not wish to feed your alleged friends any longer. In matter of fact we want them the hell out of our country. Tell your friends George and Hank and the many others that they need to look for another cash cow and get out of Dodge before our New President or the K Group skewers their asses – as they have done to us for who knows how many years. The Brussels Airport is all about the RV's which were supposed to be opened this past week. Because of the disruption the RV's are still closed.

The historical assets will be redeemed soon after. A new date is being set. I wonder why Faily did not know this seeing, after all, he is the Western Royal Family consultant (according to him)? Then again, we have many names emanating out of the Philippines. Many tied into the White Spiritual Boy attempting to make claim to the assets.

I wonder what happened to the Boy who allegedly controlled so many of the world's assets? Faily mentions the Committee of 300 but never the Spiritual White Boy or actually 1 of 5 of them! There are actually 5. Not a one of them is the real Anthony Martin who passed away years ago. You see, when you control a system like the West you can do anything you want and people can be seen as something they are not.

Our system is inundated with such people and you will never know unless someone exposes them. In other words, you could be sleeping with the Devil without knowing it. The system is crashing down hard alongside them at this moment. We can chat all day about such things but the real issue is to open our eyes and get things done. Not to allow them to do such hateful things to us with immunity.

It begins and ends with who we put in office and should one take a close look at who is running there is only one option and whether you like it or not this is our "only choice". Be smart, be diligent and be cautious because your lives depend upon it!

On the other hand, pray that we get our job done and tighten up their financial purses. Once we acquire our financing "the responsibility for this is on us!" So, let it be. And thank you again to Jo and Nelu for holding the fort!

The Who - I Can See For Miles

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | BREAKING NEWS

March 30, 2016

This bulletin is breaking news and can be considered an addendum to “Does Anybody Really Know What Time It Is?” (our last post).

Whereas our last post discussed Indonesian President Jokowi, West Papua gold, and the President's meetings in the Netherlands, this just takes it a little further. In matter of fact, not anything of this nature would ever have been revealed had Benjamin Fulford not made the accusations such as Jokowi was going to meet with the P2 Lodge and the Vatican while he visited Holland.

Being personally entrenched in Indonesia, I thought it best that I follow this thing through to reveal to us and the Indonesian people what really is happening in West Papua. It did not matter if Ben was right. This is not a pissing contest. This is about bringing things accurately to the people, and, boy oh boy, what did we learn! On March 10, 2016...12 days before the bombings in Brussels, Belgium, King Willem Alexander and the Queen Maxima of the Netherlands paid an official visit to France to meet with French President Hollande.

Prior to this meeting Indonesian President Jokowi met with the King and Queen where he laid out his demands in his usual humble manner; this time it was regarding the gold and uranium in Indonesia. Before making any changes, he needed to be assured that the Dutch had everything in place, which means France and its state-owned company AREVA. Without France a major part of the agreement regarding uranium made by Jokowi would not take place.

Related: AREVA: Forward Looking Energy

The current contract for gold is locked into Freeport McMoRan until 2020, and they have requested another extension of said contract for twenty years. This contract as constructed is great for McMoRan, but not for the Indonesian people.

So, the good President decided to go shopping, and where would he go first? Right where it all began, Holland. President Jokowi wanted to be assured that any agreement with the Dutch would also include the uranium in the package deal. If you can produce, chances are you just might get the contract and, if not, then it most likely would go to the highest bidder. Jokowi is tired of playing the Western game of fools. He now realizes that he holds the cards, not some Zionist bums that continue to threaten the world with devastation.

He is standing his ground, and although he is small in stature, he stands like a giant in this matter. He is taking it directly to them and is not doing what others said when they wrote about other secret societies, meetings etc. It seems that the French support the Dutch so this might soon be on the table. However, we are not completely sure about this at the present time.

Despite the fact I have put this out to the public, in essence it is still being held in secret, seeing that no one has yet seen any of the final details involving said agreement. If it was orally proposed or not, this deal is a winner for whomever gets it! Also, understand one thing and this is for sure: Jokowi is holding all the cards. This game is rapidly changing, and it looks bleak for the Western Zionists / Khazarians.

On the other hand, President Jokowi gets two for one – gold and uranium packaged neatly together with professional expertise should he decide to go the European way. Jokowi clearly needs to be assured before deliberating with the Dutch that the French state-owned company 'AREVA' with their state-of-the-art capabilities, new power plants, etc., are on board and raring to go. His demand for such should rightfully be assuaged.

To substantiate the French interest there was allegedly an NDA (Non-Disclosure-Agreement) signed between the Netherlands and France to secure the mines and uranium processing in order to acquire control of mining in West Papua. Indonesia can only rely on the French operations, as the Americans are no longer reliable in many ways. The French also no longer have a taste for Americans, since they recently lost 8.97 Billion Euros regarding the BNP case with the US. As a result, they have since decided their best bet is working with Europeans from here on out. This could be a match made in heaven!

Upon further review, AREVA also has been in charge of the MALI operations for the past three years, and, believe it or not, there is an AREVA mine with uranium and gold! This sounds to me like Freeport McMoRan is on its last legs in West Papua which further means that Rio Tinto is as well.

As the cards unfold, you clearly see President Jokowi holds the entire deck, and he will make wise decisions that benefit the Indonesian people. He is a peoples' President. You will often find the Globalists attacking him, but he seems to have big shoulders and just shrugs off their comments and goes about his work. This is excellent work by Mr. President and Indonesia should be proud. So many years have been in waiting, and finally, West Papua will get something tangible in return for their great losses.

PS: Is it true that the Executive arm of Indonesia is planning on stealing the Global assets that belong to others... that they will attempt to raid the bunkers the Elders have taken care of for many years?

Well, it matters not seeing that the IMF, BIS, WORLD BANK and Indonesia itself are now placed on notice that those Assets are owned by the Depositors, not the Elders. Also, they are registered within the BIS as well as prominent banks so their every move will be monitored. The Dragon Family doubts that President Jokowi knows of such plans and they will visit Jakarta in the very near future.

And as advised, Neil Keenan, who is getting stronger by the day, will soon be returning to watch over his dominion and take care of his people (Indonesians). He will also get set for the opening of the Accounts, a strategic move which the West is attempting to prevent. So, which is it the RV's or the Accounts? I believe they both will be opened very soon! Neil is the key to this entire matter, and he promises he will be there just in time to keep things honest.

This song is dedicated to President Jokowi...

Just when they thought they had Neil down, he resurfaces with renewed vigor, advising them they will soon be “mincemeat” in the circle of things. Yes, Neil has shaken off the pains created by those who wished to see him leave this planet yesterday!

He has bounced back and with nary a “hello” goes directly for their jugulars! You know, if you knew Neil, he can be the sweetest guy, but rub him the wrong way, and you’ll have a world of problems. Your world becomes a nightmare, and he does not want to hear about taking prisoners at all.

What’s great is that you can now see his intensity level is up where it belongs when he is healthy, and his eyes are sharply focused on what needs to be completed. Believe me, he clearly knows what he now has to do.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Neil is angry that many capable individuals have let you people down by not stepping up at critical times and not moving forward to give a hand to Neil whom has given his all for the last 7 years.

Despite this, Neil has vowed to continue fighting until the very end, because he deeply cares about you people!

Neil cannot believe that people with great financial means can donate huge sums to a political campaign, but they cannot give to assist the people of this planet, thus continuing to allow the Globalists / Oligarchs to poison or destroy all of us one way or another. What is happening is sick and unwarranted... other than "entitled" population control!

We must vigorously continue to apply pressure to them to "shit or get off the pot", and if they do not get off the pot, toss them... into the FEMA camps that are waiting for them, not us!

Keep your eyes and prayers on Drake. He is not well, and he also needs to make things happen. He is in hibernation while his wife takes good care of him. He also needs to know you are there for him as well. Now let's get this thing going and finally put to bed, and get those Accounts opened before it's too late!

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | US / NATO / Finland: We're Watching You

Bulletin: Addressed to Russia / Finland

Unbeknownst to most nations and people on this planet there is much subterfuge taking place that is either set to destroy our planet or create WW3.

Do we need either?

This is one such matter that you do not hear about until it is too late...It is here now and we can nip it in the bud and let the aggressors understand we neither want our children involved nor our nations. Let's force the aggressors to bring home our people safely and not any longer in boxes. The same goes for both sides.

Alert As the students of foreign policy most likely know, Finland signed an agreement with NATO to take part in military exercises.

Of course, they would have to make it known, not only to nearby nations such as Russia; that such exercises would be taking place – but also that the host nations' political structures and organizations themselves may possibly be party to this.

Well, at this very moment the US and NATO have decided that the time is ripe to create such exercises but without giving fair notice to either the Finnish Parliament or its people. Most especially they did not notify Russia.

NATO / US do not have an air base in Finland and are already bringing in planes for the exercises or is it more? They are using the Finnish Airport Tampere Rissala. Tampere is located north from Helsinki about 170 km.

US Troops have been lingering dangerously close to the Russian border for a while now. Turku Harbour has been receiving more and more military equipment all the time. One can clearly see more military vehicles on Finnish roads. It seems as though there is much more to exercises here. Such a ground force is illegal and furthermore understood that the Finns do not want any military drills forced upon them this summer, and here you have it that not even Finland's' Parliament knew about all of this going on.

In the meanwhile, on the flip side the US / Western allies are doing what they always do; and that is calculating exactly what Finland has of value to them.

What can they steal? And what is the cost?

Does this sound like another Ukrainian situation to you?

It does to the Finns! And it just might to Russia.

Could this be another attempt by the mighty Obama to create WW3? He has failed in all his other attempts to bring the US to war.

Remember should there be war Obama declares martial law and remains in office and will continue his attempts at destroying the US from within.

We must remember that desperate people do desperate things and this certainly smells bad.

A statement from Neil Keenan: "Let me tell you that I know a few Finnish people who are the salt of the earth. They are hardworking, concerned, devoted, kind, loyal and so much more. I cannot say anything more other than they love their nation and its people.

They want to know of their futures and they do not like the fox coming into their hen house as is happening now. They need to know their children and families are safe and how safe can they be with NATO / US soldiers patrolling along the Russian border?

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

It is not fair and not safe.

Who is to gain from all this? Ask this question. Then you will know where you are headed.

I see Finland taking the high road in the very near future and good people taking over in politics and once there Finland will be in a class it always should have been with the world leaders or even better. I wish Finland well and know this, when I get those Global Accounts open you will be a part of it.

I promise you this. Take care my friends, and God Bless Finland. Stay strong and stay safe.” Neil Keenan

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Revolution

April 30, 2016

We don't want to change the world. We'd like to improve it.

NFK Update: Revolution

Can you smell it coming? It is moving fast, and if for any reason you cannot smell it, then just dig a hole and put your head in it, because you will just get in the way above ground. That is something no one needs right now.

We don't want to change the world. We want to fix it.

The Beatles - Revolution

Just yesterday Neil called the shot that the NATO / US / Finns were secretly running around about the Russian border, while he also pointed out the possibility that Obama was looking to create WW3 once again. Today we have this:

Obama Calling For German Military Support To Fight Russia

Sure enough, Obama wishes to have his ass handed to him one way or another. Whether it be militarily or by revolution, it does not matter to us so long as he leaves The White House that was never intended for him to live in from the very beginning.

What if we all just said, "No"? Do you think they would get the message? Well, it's fast coming to this! So many are saying, "This cannot happen!" However, in an instance, we could be tossed right into the middle of the fire. And why? Because Obama wants to remain President beyond his term so that he can finish off the extraction of the US for the NWO globalist agenda.

Remember, Obama is their puppet.

This is where you the people have to be diligent. You have to know the US remains strong, but it will be destroyed if we elect the wrong person. So, we must place someone capable of fighting off all of the ominous challenges created by Obama's appointees.

Who could that be? Hillary? Cruz? Forget about it; they would take the chosen NWO track and dig a hole for what we once knew as the United States of America... Surely the name change will do us some good to take us back to sovereignty, but first we must vote in the one person who will and can help us... someone with brass balls who already has overcome numerous death threats and party pressure.

Yes, he has stood up to incredible pressure and yet still has accumulated more votes than anyone in Republican conventional history (or is about to) and that is Donald Trump. Just look at it like this, would you want to follow this Fake Cruz or War Monger Hillary? They do have some qualities but not enough to get us over the hill. In matter of fact, they will push us all off a cliff once they get a chance. It's time to get very serious and take back our country and build a Wall. Vote Trump!

This is a time where the Globalists are rapidly moving towards staying alive! How do they do this? They will steal the Global Accounts!? And what are they doing at this very movement? Attempting to steal the Global Accounts! Right now, as I'm writing this, they are in Asia attempting to steal the bunkers and private warehouses. Next week they hope to conclude their quests, but remember one thing; they are not the owners!

These families are most powerful in these matters seeing they control most of the accounts... The accounts in question are dominated by depositors known as the Golden Dragons. They have not given their permissions for any funds to be released therefore this must be considered a theft in which the Western Financial System is held responsible seeing the (BIS) has all accounts duly registered under their umbrella.

Furthermore, it is the BIS and fellow Western Banking System Partners, IMF, World Bank, and Feds applying pressure to the eastern governments to turn over all assets to them (which do not belong to them) ...Let me tell you how it works with the gold. South Korean President Pak also known as the coordinator of the largest attempted Gold Heist in History (250 thousand metric tons) also belonging to the Golden Dragons was shut down in July 2014 by the Neil Keenan and his team.

What they were doing and are again now doing is melting the gold bars down into ingots. They are changing the stamps and seals, and of course, all the paperwork hoping this is enough to get things free. The refinery is busy once again the same as 2014, and they are working hard now at getting things ready.

However, little do they understand that they are being closely watched, and sooner rather than later, they will be arrested for such blatant corruption and theft. This is also taking place all over Asia with the UN, the World Bank, the IMF, and the Feds running around praying they can fill their coffers with someone else's goods. Again, they repeatedly attempt to replenish their war chest while getting ready for what ultimately could be a major war. To do battle they have to pay the price of admission. They are doing their best to recover their former strength.

They continue to kill us slowly with their Chem trails, vaccines, HAARP, and so much more! Everything we touch stinks of their touch. Yet it is we whom they consider to be the dirty ones! Here we sit while pedophiles tell us it is alright to play with children while we shake our heads in disgust. At one time they would not have lasted 5 minutes saying such a thing to us without fear of repercussion. Even the Black Pope told us while he, too, was charged with Pedophilia. Imagine these sick times we are living through. Go ahead and shake your head. It's okay!

M2, a brilliant strategist states, "There is going to be a huge Greek bailout involving a very large bank, but guess what? Greece will not get the money!" Yanis, the ex-Greek Finance Minister calls it "Economic Waterboarding".

Guess who will get the money? Germany and France! It is already spent even though it has not "officially" happened at the time of this writing. What the Greeks and rest of Europe should concentrate on are their very own assets as depositors of the Global Collateral Accounts (Finland as well). All Europe contributed to this, and their assets still remain at large in Europe, not Asia, as some think, although Asian assets are also in Europe in major banks who are allegedly holding them for the depositors.

Yes, we know where some are. It is a job to do, but once done, we will never have to worry about debts again. Everyone concerned had better get moving and do your jobs before the Western Globalists decide to go after your very own funds and end up calling them their own!

My M2 advised me that there is so much money, not just for Europe, but for the entire world! If so, why are we fighting? The answer is simple: The Globalists insist they control the world, and they cannot do it with so many of us awakening! Depopulation is necessary for them to maintain control. This is not going to happen without a fight!

No longer will people turn their heads and allow others to command them like slaves! Whoever made them our rulers made a very poor choice, seeing they cannot even control their own lives. They are now in shambles and, therefore, must be thankful for Daddy leaving them things. They never would have made it on their own.

Finally, in answer to many emails: Initially, the necessary funds already in my bank account were stolen. Then last week when new money transfers to compensate were being sent to me, the US banks would not allow it to slide through the system so they intentionally blocked the transfers and returned them to sender. So, I am at it again seeking another route to avoid more of same. Do not worry. I have someone kicking me in the ass, and it is enough to keep me going.

Wishing you all the very best. Yes, things are moving quickly! I am glued to my seat awaiting something to happen financially so I can personally address these overseas issues in Asia. As I've said many times before, once I get the Accounts opened, it is a new world for us all!

Then please let me go away for a while. I need it! Until then, it is work, work, work! There will be no whistling until it is, we who are left standing, not the globalists! Thank God Asia stands beside us! I do not mean financially as yet, but they will do battle if needed along with Russia, and we will win! As Putin says, "Keep your weapons and do not register them."

Let them wonder where they are, as we wonder where they sent the weapons, they plan on using to destroy us. Suck it up and get moving. "Get er done!", as Drake says.

NFK Update: BREAKING NEWS: Obama Out / Cabal Surrender / Currency Revaluation In Progress

Neil Keenan and Group K have been working for the last 72 hours on formatting the release of some incredibly important information relating to recent developments of historical importance.

In the coming day we will provide a full preface to this post, along with edited video. In the interim, we have uploaded unedited video regarding this breaking news. This interim measure is not in any way ideal – but these developments are too important and must be publicized ASAP.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | UPDATED: Obama Out / Cabal Surrender / Currency Revaluation In Progress

May 8, 2016

Neil told you there was a 'Revolution' happening in his last post.

NFK Update: BREAKING NEWS: Obama Out / Cabal Surrender / Currency Revaluation In Progress

Can't you smell it? It is moving fast, folks!

Let the history books say that World War III ended at 8:59:59 PM on April 30, 2016! For 20 years this silent battle has been ongoing and finally came to an end on the above-mentioned date. This war may not seem over, seeing there are still many cabal members who do not wish to relinquish their weapons, but in essence, it is over with.

As a result, we should be much safer than before.

The information you're about to receive is highly relevant and somewhat tested, as a major US player in brokering assets made the call that convinced Neil to put this notice out.

Sure, the information came from the Dragon Family, whom Neil really trusts, but it was his call that assured Neil that he must let you all in on the secret before there isn't one any longer. In other words, he doesn't want you to miss the boat on this! Neil has no interest in this, since he holds no notes whatsoever, so his motive is purely humanitarian.

For over 7 years Neil Keenan and the Dragon Family have been inseparable through many challenges. The Family has watched Neil go through "hell and high water" to get where he is today.

Despite the loss of the FRNs and Bonds stolen (which will still be reclaimed one way or another) by Daniel Del Bosco, Neil and the Family are now tighter today more than ever. Neil made his deal and lived with it despite the Family's never-ending doubts that anyone could get through the tremendous roadblocks set up by the Globalists trying desperately to prevent Neil from doing such a task.

The Family applauds Neil now for this announcement being made while acknowledging his enormous contributions. In fact, they love his "Never Say Die" attitude!

Some might call it "the Luck of the Irish" that Neil is still with us, but many people, who have actually participated in this and who are aware of what really happened throughout, are still speechless as well. Neil made a sincere promise and has kept it despite the many cards stacked against him, and this is what the Family is in awe of.

Neil never sat down behind a desk receiving phone calls from third party informants who ended up singing lullaby's while putting us to sleep with insanity, but he and many of his team went throughout the sweaty jungles and the rough Asian terrain to get what they needed.

Next, the focus is on the following, amazing Intel that Neil wants to share with you, as it is something of an "anointment" and gift to him. The Family wanted to show they're thanks to Neil and Group K by allowing him access to this "History Breaking News" which you will find incredibly hard to believe.

Actually, Neil has made it clear that he has seen so many twists and turns that even he is not always sure which end is up!

But this is the news of a lifetime!!

Please, if you are over 16, sit down before you fall down, and remember Neil never believed in the RV which is the second part of his announcement. He still holds reservations, but he also understands the quality and integrity of the people who brought this important Intel to him. Therefore, he feels it is only right that he brings it to you.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

If anyone dares to question Mr. Keenan's credibility, all one has to do is look at his timeline of accomplishments and then look at those making such critical comments, and you will know they have no leg to stand on whatsoever.

Not one of them!

Remember Neil does not expect to go unscathed because of this posting, but he does expect you to keep an eye on things. Even though you might not know minute by minute what is going on, you should keep your eye on the ball as this pan out. Neil has posted this for you.

Those screaming that this is not happening have never been part of any loop so just check out their history and ask yourself what gives the right to question anyone let alone Neil who has brought so much to mankind over the years. Consequently, Neil realizes the importance of bringing this information to you.

Message from Neil Keenan to the People:

"Here you go! Just as I stated, the family controlled the entire process and got it to me immediately as it was happening in the back room!"

We've noticed that others are coming out with their information relating to what happened.

And, guess what? It is on the same page as Neil's so let's appreciate what Benjamin Fulford and Zap have done for mankind by putting their necks on the line for you the people. There are also others; all you have to do is look.

For those screaming, "impossible", just look at their histories and what they have done for this world to date.

You will find they are legends in their own minds criticizing the very people who have kept this thing turning to the point where we get an answer.

Sorry, but the world does not need incessant talkers with lullabies and all. Watch how they act and you will immediately notice who is with us and who is not." Neil Keenan

(By the way, Neil made the earlier video while exhausted just to get it out to you as soon as possible.)

Message to Neil Keenan from the Dragon Family:

"Let the history books say WWW III ended on April 30, 20016."

On the evening of April 30th in Washington, DC just before President Obama was scheduled to speak at his White House Correspondent's Dinner (WHCD), there was a secret back room deal that took place. It was a deal which had Obama and the Cabal cornered.

As he says himself, he is out – and not a happy camper.

EXECUTIVE ORDER FACILITATION OF A PRESIDENTIAL TRANSITION

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, including section 7301 of title 5, United States Code, and the Presidential Transition Act of 1963, as amended, and to assist the Presidential transition, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. Policy. The peaceful transition of power has long been a hallmark of American democracy. It is the policy of the United States to undertake all reasonable efforts to ensure that Presidential transitions are well-coordinated and effective, without regard to party affiliation.

Sec. 2. Establishment of the White House Transition Coordinating Council. (a) To facilitate the Presidential transition, including assisting and supporting the transition efforts of the transition teams of eligible candidates, there is established a White House Transition Coordinating Council.

(b) The White House Transition Coordinating Council shall be composed of the following officials or their designees:

- (i) Assistant to the President and Chief of Staff, who shall serve as Chair;
- (ii) Assistant to the President and Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations, who shall serve as Vice Chair;
- (iii) Assistant to the President and Deputy Chief of Staff for Implementation;
- (iv) Counsel to the President;
- (v) Assistant to the President for Presidential Personnel;
- (vi) Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs;
- (vii) Assistant to the President for Homeland Security and Counterterrorism;
- (viii) Assistant to the President for Economic Policy and Director, National Economic Council;
- (ix) Director of National Intelligence;
- (x) Director of the Office of Management and Budget;
- (xi) Administrator of General Services;
- (xii) Federal Transition Coordinator;
- (xiii) the transition representative for each eligible candidate, who shall serve in an advisory capacity; and
- (xiv) any other executive branch official the President determines appropriate.

(c) The White House Transition Coordinating Council shall:

- (i) provide guidance to executive departments and agencies (agencies) and the Federal Transition Coordinator regarding preparations for the Presidential transition, including succession planning and preparation of briefing materials;

(ii) facilitate communication and information sharing between the transition representatives of eligible candidates and senior employees in agencies and the Executive Office of the President, including the provision of information relevant to facilitating the personnel aspects of a Presidential transition and such other information that, in the Council's judgment, is useful and appropriate, as long as providing such information is not otherwise prohibited by law; and

(iii) prepare and host interagency emergency preparedness and response exercises.

(d) In order to obtain a wide range of facts and information on prior transitions and best practices, the White House Transition Coordinating Council, its members, or their designees may seek information from private individuals, including individuals in outside organizations, who have significant experience or expertise in Presidential transitions. The White House Transition Coordinating Council, its members, or their designees shall endeavor to obtain such facts and information from individuals representing a range of bipartisan or nonpartisan viewpoints. If the White House Transition Coordinating Council, its members, or their designees find it necessary to seek advice from private individuals or outside organizations, such counsel should be sought in a manner that seeks individual advice and does not involve collective judgment or deliberation.

Sec. 3. Establishment of the Agency Transition Directors Council. (a) To implement the guidance provided by the White House Transition Coordinating Council and to coordinate transition activities across agencies, there is established an Agency Transition Directors Council.

(b) The Agency Transition Directors Council shall be composed of the following officials or their designees:

(i) Federal Transition Coordinator, who shall serve as Co-Chair;

(ii) Deputy Director for Management of the Office of Management and Budget, who shall serve as Co-Chair;

(iii) a senior career representative from each agency described in section 901(b)(1) of title 31, United States Code, the Office of Personnel Management, the Office of Government Ethics, and the National Archives and Records Administration whose responsibilities include leading Presidential transition efforts within the agency;

- (iv) during a year in which a Presidential election will be held, a transition representative for each eligible candidate, who shall serve in an advisory capacity;
- (v) a senior career representative from any other agency determined by the Co-Chairs to be an agency that has significant responsibilities relating to the Presidential transition process; and
- (vi) other senior employees serving in the Executive Office of the President, as determined by the President.

(c) The Agency Transition Directors Council shall:

- (i) ensure the Federal Government has an integrated strategy for addressing interagency challenges and responsibilities around Presidential transitions and turnover of non-career appointees;
- (ii) coordinate transition activities among the Executive Office of the President, agencies, and the transition team of eligible candidates and the President-elect and Vice-President-elect;
- (iii) draw on guidance provided by the White House Transition Coordinating Council and lessons learned from previous Presidential transitions in carrying out its duties;
- (iv) assist the Federal Transition Coordinator in identifying and carrying out his or her responsibilities relating to a Presidential transition;
- (v) provide guidance to agencies in gathering briefing materials and information relating to the Presidential transition that may be requested by eligible candidates;
- (vi) ensure materials and information described in subparagraph (v) of this subsection are prepared not later than November 1 of the year during which a Presidential election is held;
- (vii) ensure agencies adequately prepare career employees who are designated to fill non-career positions during a Presidential transition; and
- (viii) consult with the President's Management Council, or any successor thereto, in carrying out its duties.

(d) The Agency Transition Directors Council shall meet:

(i) subject to subparagraph (ii) of this subsection, not less than once per year; and

(ii) during the period beginning on the date that is 6 months before a Presidential election and ending on the date on which the President-elect is inaugurated, on a regular basis as necessary to carry out its duties and authorities.

Sec. 4. General Provisions. (a) Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect:

(i) the authority granted by law to a department or agency, or the head thereof; or

(ii) the functions of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget relating to budgetary, administrative, or legislative proposals.

(b) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations.

(c) The terms "eligible candidate," "Federal Transition Coordinator," and "Presidential election" shall have the same meaning as those terms used in the Presidential Transition Act of 1963, as amended. The term "President's Management Council" shall have the same meaning as that term is used in the Presidential Memorandum of July 11, 2001.

(d) This order is intended only to facilitate the transition and is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person.

BARACK OBAMA

THE WHITE HOUSE,

May 6, 2016.

They were given an offer they could not refuse, so after much bickering, they realized they had no choice but to surrender and sign the agreements, as overseeing "President" Dunford would push Obama aside and publicly announce the changing of the guard and the New Republic in front of all the world's press corps. Little choice did they have!

Citibank was therefore forced to default to AIB / WF / HSBC and become Basel III compliant.

Security Forces which earlier had been pulled from holding back the Citibank redemption locations were returned by midnight as 800#s and sovereign rates authorized for the Sunday, May 1st release.

This sounds crazy, doesn't it? But this news was given to Neil from reliable sources at the very top who are now making the changes that are taking place in silence. As for those who don't like the fact the Asians are saving our asses... tough! And, yes, they like General Dunford! Most of you did nothing at all but talk so someone had to come around to save you... while you are still endlessly talking.

What was even more strange was when Obama spoke at the April 30th White House dinner where it seems like he was stuck with the old script and didn't have time to change it before his scheduled talk.

Obama starts by saying, "It is my honor to be at my last, and perhaps the last, White House Correspondent's Dinner... hahaha", and he next says, *"The END of the Republic never looked better!"

Wow, what he just says? Well, at least he said, "I am just counting the days before my death panel!" Then in the final act, he said the well-fitting, "I have only 2 words to close with... Obama... Out!" (We sure hope so from the Intel we heard!)

But wait... he continues and quickly raises two fingers to his lips (Masonic secret degree sign-his obligation that enjoins secrecy) and with his other hand picks up the portable mic, raises it over his head, and then intentionally drops the mic out of his hand to the ground.

This was a very significant closing statement or a sign-language message from Obama to his "fellow men's club"! It's certain that "Two fingers Obama" will keep his obligation that enjoins secrecy, but to whom?
Obama's Speech

President Obama at the 2016 White House Correspondents' Dinner

Wow! It's one thing for Obama to come out and say, "The END of the Republic has never looked better". But with the new Intel, it actually means it's the end of Obama and his White House Cabal Corporate members!

It is also important to note that after the WHCD, Obama did NOT go back to the White House, because the "Obamas" no longer live there! Didn't you hear him say, "Obama Out" ... again meaning he's no longer living at the White House?

The Obama family has now occupied an apartment for several weeks inside the beltway in order to "keep up appearances" both during his remaining months as "President" and to act as though the Obama family is staying in DC so their 2 girls can finish their education.

Neil again thanks to Ben for his recent news post being "right on the money!"
Ben: "US Armed Forces and agencies will continue to be financed, as they are being asked to clean out the filth infesting Washington DC, New York, and also, Chicago."
In fact, Pentagon sources tell us that the White House was under lock-down April 26 and 27th "as Special Forces led by (General Joseph) Dunford entered via tunnel to demand resignations.” We can confirm there was a lock-down on those days; “officially because of a fence-jumper”.

However, President Obama has been seen in public since then so we are not quite sure what resignations were demanded.

Update from the Dragon Family:

“The historical RV is now happening, because the AFIB / WF / HSBC put a 10:00PM deadline on Citibank to get Basel III compliant or default.

The RV is scheduled to start worldwide in harmony with the Chinese market opening on Monday at 6:00AM CST (or 6:00 PM EST on Sunday in the US). International rates are scheduled to change on Forex without fanfare as well with sovereign rates showing concurrently on the off-sight redemption centers. Private transactions will take place first so do not be concerned with the date that applies to them.

The plan is to keep everything appearing “status quo” without bringing attention to the change-over in government, currency, banking, and, ultimately, control of the Republic. Let the history books say that WWII ended on April 30, 2016. Though this was an invisible war to the world’s public, couldn’t you smell it coming!

US 800# bank notifications are now expected sometime May 1, 2016 Sunday after darkness falls on the East Coast. Internet private group redemptions are considered T4 and are to begin after midnight on Monday morning with liquidity beginning after 8:45AM EST.

It must be remembered that this is a one-time historical event that has no precedence in protocols and procedures, even though many procedures have been prematurely presented.

The final official procedures are being put into place now that all of the international matters and accounting between nations are coming to resolution. I anticipate that I will be informed of how things will proceed by Monday, May 2, 2016.

“Aspiring flippers, brokers, government and private alike, are desperately trying to lure any bringer of Historical Bonds into a submission commitment, and are offering money that the Seller/Holder cannot spend or withdraw from his bank account, not one cent!

The reason is that these parties cannot be saucers that the bonds they accumulate will be accepted by redemption, and, therefore, most of these offers will include a disclaimer and the right to return the bonds to the current holder.”

China has now officially announced that the historical bonds will be redeemed. This has already been released to the Chinese media. These announcements made in the

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Chinese open media today and late yesterday confirm publicly that this operation is moving forward!

There are also other sources who are optimistically informing us that international agreements are nearly completed and official ceremonies are expected to take place over the next several days.

The fact is the funds are free now! About 25,000 transactions are approved and registered also with the other end buyer of the US Treasury. If an applicant doesn't have patience in this business field, then he is lost.

Every applicant should be grateful if his boxes or bonds for these repatriations were registered. The lines are not opened completely yet, as the private exchanges are going through first and then, the public ones.

For the RV the Dinar went gold-backed last night. Madame Wu just exchanged signatures with representatives of the Fed in Atlanta and has kicked off Tier 5. Also, the Zim has gone gold-backed with a value of 1 Zim @ .118 to the dollar, announced in Europe.

For those interested there were 4 fake Madame Wu's a few years ago, as there were 5 Spiritual White Boys (all appointed by the CIA) ... One of the fake Madame Wu's almost met her demise by playing the imposter at the hands of the Chinese government. The Chinese and Asians will call their own shots and are not concerned about any of the "peanut gallery" making public comments. They can all sit in a corner and sulk if they wish... As if saving such people is not enough in itself!

To the "Johnny-Come Latelys" – for your knowledge – Neil gets his information from military sources, various agencies, from people on the street, from heads of families, and from the families themselves, meaning Italian families and so on; they're all good people.

Ask the Keenan Team, as they've heard many a conversation between Neil and heads of state that most only read about. So next time that you may doubt Neil, first of all, understand he says he knows very little about Dinars and Zimbabwe notes.

Your questioning of the remarks made by those who entered into an agreement with Obama, Citigroup, and others shows your ignorance! While they are out there completing what needs to be done in order to protect our safety, you on the other hand, do not have given facts or credible people to come forward. You must have enough on your own that still needs to be finished which relates to many of your own people. Get to work on your own business and don't worry about what Neil and Group K are doing. God bless the many good people with their patience and support; they are everywhere!

Again, the historical RV is happening, because the AIB / WF / HSBC put a 10:00PM deadline on Citibank to get Basil III compliant or default. This was signed in that backroom deal at 8:59:59 PM on May 1, 2016, which brought it all back into compliance."

Neil Keenan's Message to The Dragon Family:

The last time I thanked you really well I believe it was with the 250,000 tons of Gold in South Korea. Am I right?

Well, there's a lot more of that right now in South Korea that President Park is putting on the table. I believe you'd better check on that gold, because they're talking about completing this deal any day now. The original contract of this of the gold's origin is Chinese and it belongs to the Family.

What they're recently trying to do is reset the gold that was stolen from China by smelting the gold and changing its appearance as well as fraudulently changing all of the security papers (changing SKR's from old ones to new ones while not mentioning the original owners).

What they didn't count on is DNA which is how they will be caught! We're talking many, many tons! Everyone thinks they know about how much gold there is in the world, but they have no clue! They don't know! I've seen 2 football fields of gold, more than they could ever dream of! But you hear the naysayers mumbling to themselves, "This does not exist!"

Many of these commenters have most likely never left their home state to know anything at all, but they spread malicious lies and rumors throughout the Internet as though they are experts in these matters.

South Korea is the melting pot for holding WWII gold. We are talking more than 3,000,000 mt of gold! There is more than this, but this is what is being planned via transaction between President Park and numerous International Organizations from throughout the world. Her plans are to buttress said Global Organizations in order to save whatever can be saved of the remains of the Globalist Movement. Remember South Korea is a Global Nation.

It's in the interest of China and also the Dragon Family to deal with this immediately and straighten this out with President Park who last time was caught red-handed and is once again repeating the same serious situation. It's very wise to pick up the telephone and promptly call her, give her fair warning, put your satellites in place, put your boats in the water, and don't allow either the UN, the World Bank, the IMF, or any of the others, including the Federal Reserve, from coming in and taking what belongs to you.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

If you need assistance, why don't you call M2 and, for sure, it will be taken care of! At this moment M2 is recovering from the recent accident and actually wants to go scuba diving for some pirate treasure. You just can't keep M2 down!

It's very likely that M2 would gladly give you a hand and is expected to return any day now. What an amazing person to stand beside and assist Neil at this crucial time! The information just keeps on coming in, and my Group K loves it! It keeps us going having such Intel from someone so close to the top seat. As stated before, "M2 is a powerhouse!"

I might stay over in China next to your buildings or in Jakarta seeing they are right in this as well along with Singapore, Borneo, Malaysia, and South Korea. I will decide shortly where I stay over there with my team, but it will be where the action is... Count on it!

Thank You and Take Care Everyone...

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

For the past four years Neil Keenan and Group K have worked hand in hand with Drake Bailey and the Cosmic Voice group, but recently seem to have disagreed over the content of a post that has, to many (who actually have access to such information) proven to be correct.

Check www.neilkeen.com and you will see that some have already actually been inside the redeeming stage.

Neil knows all this and is happy that they can move on once they redeem their SKR's issued by the Banks, if they can. It seems as though the CV team cannot get a handle on this and the reason is, they advocate the RV's as a scam, a con.

Neil used to think this way as well. He never trusted it and still doesn't but it is what it is, and the RV's did open temporarily only to be closed over infighting at the Tier 1 level. Seems that there are those that do not want the Middle Class to make a comeback and to prevent this they want little or no funds to trickle down to Tier 2 (Middle Class).

The Chinese have ordered them to fly to China in order to get this worked out.

The 'Elite' will not get all those funds!!

Obama is actually just sitting in now. If you cannot see it you must be blind. He wants to do so much, but has his hands tied.

Secretary of State John Kerry is now pushing the same old agendas (e.g. second amendment rights in terms of gun ownership – with the UN – as Obama was; after all it was Obama's baby).

Why General Dunford does not just step in, make a release and rid us all of this ridiculous agenda promoted by the Cabal is something planned.

But still not good enough for We the People.

Things are not going to change overnight. For those who think this it shows how little they know... Those that act like they are in control must wonder – in control of what? Okay, Neil Keenan and Group K are evolving. There is so much that has been offered, so much to do, and it all begins with the Collateral Accounts. And we have to get it done.

We cannot continue to do the work we do, with the sources that we have, only to find confrontations waiting for us at every turn with people who are supposed to be working with us yet who have no reliable sources whatsoever – getting in the way.

We have to move on and that's the plan.

Therefore, we have to say goodbye to so many wonderful people at Cosmic Voice. They have been great and damned if Neil didn't have a good time with everyone. This is not our end by any means but you will see that we are getting stronger and better and this is where we have to be.

We do not need any further obstructions and this is why we are moving on in terms of involvement with the Cosmic Voice group. There are no hard feelings, hell – you gave us four years of your lives and what great years they were.

Drake was wonderful and a close friend, but sometimes good things come to an end and such is the case. On the other hand, Neil and team are not going anywhere and soon enough will have their own forum or some place for you to hang your hats and call home. For now, though it is all work.

We reiterate and maintain our stand that our post was right on the money and that's it. We don't step back. Our sources are real.

Everyone wishes to speak with M2. If M2 wanted to be recognized, M2 would have come forward from the beginning. M2 is already on the world stage and indeed a public figure yet their status as M2 is unrevealed. This is how they wish it to remain.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Nothing more needs to be said. When one rebuts something, they do not rebut with "I think" (and no sources) such as what happened, but once again that was Drake's site and it was time to go even before this. And when we mention sources we are not talking about Tabasco and Soy.

The Keenan Group is happy to be moving on, exploring many new opportunities presented to them – and this will allow them to walk away from the many unnecessary fights (more coming as I write).

And so, in terms of Cosmic Voice, we thank you all for what you have done for us. For what you mean to us. Mostly for being there for us.

Again, we are not gone, we will still be working at getting things opened it is just for the time being. Take care and expect to find bigger and better things happening in the very near future.

It won't be long. We promise....

This is not over with; it is just beginning. To bigger and greater things!

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | The Asian Insider Returns And Says The Time Has Come Today: Go! Go! Go!

MAY 19, 2016

It has been a rather arduous week for Group K. In the past it had to do with stolen accounts, which we became used to, seeing it all came from the same source or place.

This time we had a new challenge and it came from what we considered to be within. As always, we stand tall, we moved on and left the challenger still nothing more than someone who wished for more than he was.

It was a sorry week but it brought us to new beginnings.

Group K now has “It’s a Keenan Thing” as their facebook page. It will be first place to publish new information after this website. Our new Facebook page is private but if you know us then it is not so private now is it? Subsequently, new information releases will spread to other social media groups such as Cosmic Voice etc.

Let’s get to the meat of things; to new beginnings:

Yesterday I held a long conversation with the Asian Insider. He confirmed many things I knew and then some.

Also, it’s time to get moving. M2 is very special and fits perfectly into my plans (not yours so don’t ask who M2 is).

My ailments no longer count, what matters is our survival. It all begins NOW. This is the message I received.

The following is the written release that the Asian Insider provided us with to share.

Neil Keenan

The Asian Insider Returns:

Neil, once again I find it necessary to applaud your actions (Clap-Clap!). You have taken the final steps toward alleviating yourself from other peoples' preferences over your own.

I like (what I think) you are doing with your new Facebook page where you are bringing good, solid, wise people into a forum.

Now you have a place to speak among like-minded individuals Bravo Group K! It is now time to learn how to spread your wings. The world is waiting on you to fly, and once you do, you will discover just how well received you are.

Both yourself and the members of Group K are some of the chosen ones, here to help mend this world, Neil. You have chosen wisely and carefully from top to bottom.

I observed the insulting exhibitions of others, especially those not respectfully elevated to where you are; and how they attempted to challenge that which you know to be factual.

These uninformed detractors went on an offensive, blaming you and your team for many things when in truth these people are not in the position you are in, understanding what you understand.

This prevents them from understanding at all. How could they blame you for presenting outright truth to the world – other than because of pure jealousy?

I was pleased to hear they are no longer associated with you. But I know you, Mr. Keenan, and it is too late to deal with or resolve any further attempts by others to besmirch or question yourself and Group K. Now more than ever, time is of the essence in moving forward.

In this ongoing battle in which we find ourselves, we cannot spend valuable time looking over our shoulders wondering if those who are purporting to be supporting us are in actuality, stabbing us in the back.

The situation you have just weathered brings to mind the experiences of Brutus and Judas.

You had given the uninformed characters your all, and had assisted in bringing them attention – to their online roost; and in the end one in particular felt empowered to take you on.

Little did he know you only provided a sampling of information, not everything. As you say "I never show all my cards". Now they suffer and scream out about Neil Keenan, "The bad guy", when in fact they attempted a Coup D'état and failed.

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Group K has followers in virtually every country around the globe. And indeed, your efforts are observed by those that control countries and armies, and they too depend upon your information – and how well you deliver.

It is evident that when you are confronted, at times you are not diplomatic. However, you do get your point across and the foes never come back the same way twice.

Talkers fail to get anywhere in such scenarios, although they may prefer simply talking without any direct evidence. In these crucial dilemmas that we now face – talk will only prolong the inevitable.

Neil, you are currently at the top of the hill looking down, and what you see beneath you are many trying to catch up to Group K and yourself.

Without the Dragon Family's assistance, they have nothing.

For we own the United States. It was sold to us many times over the years. They know this, we know this, and the people will soon know this.

Consequently, there will be little alternative but to come to you, considering you are our choice to push forward on our behalf.

In the interim, make your way back over here and sign the M1 paperwork. And put an end to the lunatic claims others are making in claiming to being M1.

Collect your team together and continue your work (in such a formidable effort) to make this world a better place for all.

In time, everything will be placed in your laps without a fight. Everyone will want Group K to represent them, and you will have the strength you require.

It is regretful that you have had so many obstructions heaved in your way, but this is your quest, and do not think for one second that we did not have something to do with M2 getting involved to assist you.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Yes, M2 is brilliant, and the decision-making and advice you have received to date is spot on. We could have desired for no better than those whom you have brought into your fold. He is a real warrior near equal to yourself.

It does not matter which way others twist things; you are soon to have your own arsenal.

People will sit back and watch how you serve to assist the nations of this planet. (Little do they know you and your team have already been doing so.)

We can only wonder what is going to transpire once your team is complete.

And likewise; when your team crosses the dimensions via portals and returns with the wisdom of the worlds. We know you are not particularly interested in such matters, but they will soon be very valuable to your team and to mankind's existence. It will be your team receiving the honor to do so.

You have earned this over the years by becoming the trusted, chosen person to protect our Global Collateral Assets from the jackals; the bloodsuckers that insist on calling themselves M1 without any substantiated authority backing them.

They are "talkers" and "wannabes" – little else. So, refrain from wasting your precious time and energy toying with them anymore. You need to move ahead vigorously to prepare for what should be your final endeavor to the very top.

You possess enough wisdom to determine exactly who and what you require and so no more advice for now from this wise sage.

Good Luck, Neil Keenan, this is your quest and you have come a phenomenal distance.

It is time to build your strength, with your coffers replenished, (Did you hear that a wise woman said you would need Trillions of dollars to do what you have achieved? Little did she know you have been on a budget), and ensure your team are focused and ready to take on the battle of the ages.

For you no longer have the luxury of ailing. I can sense it Neil, and this means that 'that' time draws near. The world needs you to be victorious in this undertaking. Godspeed, my friend.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Say It Ain't So, Thomas Williams

In the midst of a dark night a group of people sat together trying to figure out the best way to go.

The poker player said, "Don't show our hands, but we have to get Keenan and his group out of the way."

Another one said, "Well, how do we do it? Keenan has enough on most of us and will not hesitate to use it."

Finally, the third one said, "Do your best, Thomas. Just don't let him get those crucial statements out there without question."

This took place just minutes after Neil and Group K released the post revealing that Obama resigned the Presidency, the RV's were opened, and the Cabal surrendered. Soon thereafter Thomas Williams made his first appearance giving his personal opinion filled with past unproven erroneous facts, and thereby creating the ensuing chaos that led to his recent demise as the MC of Cosmic Voice.

Little did Thomas Williams know that 5 skilled professional people, including M2, put that post together. Each person contributing was grades above average intelligence! As Dean Chambers can tell you, "Boy oh boy, did Thomas get it wrong this time!"

Yes, it took work by each person to make it acceptable and promptly get it out to you, and only seconds for Thomas Williams to come out and attempt to tear it down. Apparently, he had an agenda, one we guessed and felt but never brought forth sooner, as it would be the condemnation of a person whom we trusted and cared for over a long period of time!

Most sat back and watched Thomas' "lullaby show" once a week after experiencing Drake's "take the world by fire" exhibit that would lift and motivate one's soul to take action.

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Allegedly, it was this “sleepy time talk” that may have enticed the very entities that we’ve been fighting for years.

They like the soft, passive talk which doesn’t alert and wind people up. Drake was full of fire and wanted them out of the way, as did Neil and Group K. The people were up in arms and ready to storm the Bastille, but Thomas would take the people and put them right back into their chairs, eyes closed thinking about how wonderful everything would be.

Obviously, this was just what the big boys wanted! What a great world it was going to be once the people drank the Kool Aid being sold to them.

Perhaps it could be another unfortunate “Jim Jones scenario”. The World belonged to them, or as in this case, the show did. Thomas proceeded to spill his spiel and separate the groups. The opposing sides split between those that believed in Thomas and those that did not, a clear cabal tactic of “divide and conquer”.

So, what had been an interesting ride for Neil and K Group ended when Neil said, “To hell with this nutcase who never supports his statements with a source (i.e., “sorry cannot divulge this”)”, and he started his own Facebook Page “It’s A Keenan Thing”.

Of course, this would not exclude Neil’s friend Drake, because from the very beginning Drake had a vested interest in Neil’s venture, and it continues to this day. Drake is one who believed in you the people and took a shot on you the people.

Now let’s get to the end of this brief post and include the Thomas Williams, Kim Goguen (aka Kim Possible-Kristie Adams) and Chloe “characters of the (Trio) Triumvirate.”

The Agent who, said she never was, but had clearly Skyped Neil, “she was G5 and 10 times more powerful than the President of the Country”.

Who could she be? After a few of the girls got a hold of her on the site, she became chopped liver, and the same for “Madame” Chloe, Thomas’ handler.

They took a fall and fell hard. No way they could be fired, was there? Their story will be revealed in a follow up most likely in a day or two and, oh yeah, what did we learn about Thomas and the girls?

As for Thomas Williams we learned and we quote this:

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

[4:36:14 AM] Drake Bailey: The illuminati foundation, Donavan FDN, has convinced Tommy and company, to go their way. That I was not welcome, Tommy was the man, and were going to send large amount of funds.

Get this, Thomas Williams and the funds he is waiting for are Illuminati!!

Thomas has jumped boats, people. He is with the bad guys. They did not want Drake and we all heard the story how Thomas had stabbed Drake in the back and then brought him back in when he learned he needed Cosmic Voice to fund his Foundation. And the Donovan Foundation is Kristi Adams who was brought in by Thomas and Chloe to oversee the operation and where it was heading.

Now, we must be careful of anyone following Thomas Williams, as they are now all suspect now as being agents. Drake wonders how many more agents are trolling his site, and it is of great concern.

One has to study Thomas' followers closely and get a read on this to make Cosmic Voice safe once again, the show that everyone has expected for years. Thomas said that Drake and team never even said goodbye; now would you say goodbye to Judas yourself?

...the third one said, "Do your best, Thomas. Just don't let him get those crucial statements out there without question."

This took place just minutes after Neil and Group K released the post revealing that Obama resigned the Presidency, the RV's were opened, and the Cabal surrendered. Soon thereafter Thomas Williams made his first appearance giving his personal opinion filled with past unproven erroneous facts, and thereby creating the ensuing chaos that led to his recent demise as the MC of Cosmic Voice.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Little did Thomas Williams know that 5 skilled professional people, including M2, put that post together. Each person contributing was grades above average intelligence! As Dean Chambers can tell you, "Boy oh boy, did Thomas get it wrong this time!"
... Acore has a little secret from NK and his followers.

This caused quite an uproar in the Cosmic Voice community of over 5,000 members and Thomas who is the MC of Blog Talk Radio for the Drake Bailey show, or rather was, came out immediately and said his sources say this is untrue. Thomas has aligned with another group who is saving humanity. He has already gotten over $7,000.00 in funds by donations for a fund that will go only for helping humanity. Sounds to me like the Ambassador or someone like him has jumped on the Ambassador wagon and is using the Red Dragon tactics to milk money out of people who have a large following, like RVD once had. You will have to open the links to decipher better.

Since this is very hush -hush information Thomas was warned to not tell his partner of many years Drake Bailey anything. At one time Drake supported Thomas when he said what Neil Keenan just announced was more horse-pucky, but since has fired Thomas and Drake stands alone 'waiting' to see which one is which with the words of "the wrong one will fall". Thomas has started his own saving humanity group apart from Keenan and Drake and loyal followers are following him.

Drake is trying to find a new MC for his show and Neil Keenan is still proclaiming the time is now:

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Old Republic Versus New Republic: THE JIGS UP

Preface

For too many years, we have been played with by what we called government when in fact it was always nothing more than a Corporation.

Well, it's time for them to come forward and face the fact that they have finally been cornered and there is no out.

Yes, we have heard about the New Republic but when you put together the pieces of the puzzle you realize that they are both one and the same – just flying a new flag with new colors or what have you. “They” have the wherewithal to do just about anything they wish with us, so long as we don't catch on but guess what?

We have caught on!!

Neil Keenan and Group K have finally acquired the necessary pieces of the puzzle to put an end to their existence should things be handled properly.

If not then it will be the same old same old...In this case we will all be in dire straits. I have personally financed most of this endeavor myself with bits of funding coming in from others who wished to assist mankind.

Well, we are now at the point in time where mankind comes first otherwise kiss mankind goodbye and welcome in the advent of worldwide slavery – and this is where they are attempting to lead us – and this and now is where we need to draw the line.

It is happening and we do know; and you all need to get your acts together and understand we just might not make it to the next elections.

This will be dealt with before then. So, we address it now or we put down our books and pick up a gun because there is going to be a whole lot of fun.

YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED which is what we have always been about.

There is a trembling in the halls of governments around the world, as mankind awakens to their enslavement and the blatant fraud and trickery that have been perpetrated upon them by “corporate” governments.

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

This arose as a result of the division between Corporate Law (Admiralty, Commercial Law, Law of the Sea) and Common Law (Law of the Land). Common Law is generally based on Universal Truths such as the Ten Commandments and other basic, common religious beliefs or standards that are set within a society and that act upon “real” persons.

Corporate or Commercial Law works with “fictions” (false entities created in the mind), and as such requires real flesh and blood humans to be hoodwinked into believing that corporations are “real” entities, on the one hand, and that “straw men beings” created in your name are “YOU”!

If you are awake now, you will be aware that these fictitious entities were created at your birth by way of your Live Birth Certificate and a Trust was created in your name ALL IN CAPITAL LETTERS – so that the corporate government (a fiction) can deal with another fiction (YOU in caps).

As a result, the establishment creates all kinds of laws, statutes, taxes, and many other ways to enslave YOU and steals all of your personal wealth. Your house, your car, your land, and your children are all owned by the corporate government as your name is ALWAYS in CAPITAL LETTERS (WHICH IS NOT you).

And so, we find ourselves presented with the current dilemma: The united States of America and the United States of America, Incorporated – which one is WE THE PEOPLE?

Judge Anna has recently made it very clear that the de Jure Republic of the united States still exists, but the offices and officer positions have not been filled, nor can they be filled, with the existing Congressmen (or women), Senators, Judges, President or other Corporate government officials duly elected or appointed; as all existing usurpers have committed fraud and a host of other unconstitutional acts.

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Every elected Congressional person has sworn an oath to defend the Constitution and has committed TREASON when operating under any incorporated government or by being a member of the BAR or by holding dual citizenship.

Similarly, these usurpers cannot change their position (as Judge Anna stated, "cannot change their spots") by stating or passing legislation that allows them to convert the existing Corporate (Admiralty) Government into a Common Law Government.

And so, it would appear that the current convoluted, underhanded maneuver by the bad guys is to create a New Republic as a facade for the bankrupted USA Inc. and United States of America Inc.

Apparently, this New Republic has been chartered in France (again) with the Treasury domiciled on a sovereign Indian Nation Reservation outside Reno, Nevada, and with funding (gold backing) by the Chinese, although which ones remains to be seen.

This New Republic Group is obviously a whitewash with General "Dumbford" (Dunford) and Speaker Ryan being positioned to "transition" the united States into an new era of Admiralty enslavement.

Then there is a Third Group headed by persons unknown who have filed with the Hague that the De Jure united States of America under Common Law still exists and is alive and well with a duly appointed Congress, Senate and President, and presumably Common Law Judges like Judge Anna, BUT still with no Continental Congress meeting of All States; thus lacking in some legitimacy.

Common Law State governments, however, are being formed, and many States (30 to date) are now rallying against Federal (corporate) overreach. This might lead to a call for a Continental Congress which can then revive States Rights and Common Law on the Land.

And so, the question now is, "Can WE THE PEOPLE beat down the New Republic publicly?" This is where the real battle is playing out right now. And if it is true that the Asian Elders have financed the New Republic, then are WE compromised?!

The Asian Elders hold the keys, and it is their intention to transition the World more equitably. They have no interest in which side wins or loses, as they finance both. It is just business to them.

Financing the “New Republic” is just a means to hopefully, a better outcome. What they don't seem to realize is that what they are propping up is the same old hideous monster morphed with red, white and blue stripes with starry-eyed greedy Banksters just gagging to carry on – business as usual.

Similarly, the Foreign Registry of the New Republic and its Treasury domiciled in another foreign sovereign nation is in clear violation of the De Jure Constitution which is still legally alive.

This creates a condition of TREASON by General Dunford and Speaker Ryan and legally nullifies the collateral borrowings of gold and any other confiscation and distribution of funds retrieved from the fraudulent activities of the Fed and other international financial institutions.

General Dunford only has the authority to arrest those in violation of their Oath of Office and try them in a Military Court for treason. He has no authority to make himself an interim President or Vice President of the Republic. Speaker Ryan is completely ineligible, as he should be among the first arrested.

The American people need to wake up to this new con job!
And the situation is no different for the Asian Elders!

How can a foreign chartered New Republic be American? How can a foreign domiciled US Treasury legally issue new US Dollars (TRN's, currency and Bonds)?

This is corporate enslavement all over again! Just change the paper and revalue. Anyone for hide-and-seek?

Again, consider what happens to all those hard-earned overseas Dollars acquired in exchange for real goods? The Petrodollars are more slippery than ever! And a few hundred trillion in gold backing for these worthless numbers does not seem to be on the Chinese plate of noodles.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

We have done our part in exposing the banksters and the formation of the BRICS financial system. It is time now to swing our search light around onto the so-called New Republic fiasco being perpetrated on the American people.

We HAVE OUR OWN REAL REPUBLIC! Let's breathe life into it again!
Read what Judge Anna has written and spread the word. Revitalize our REPUBLIC on the LAND!

Judge Anna has cleared a path in front of us, but she doesn't have the position to confront these bastards head on. However, the key that Anna needs to be as potent as possible is Neil Keenan signing the M1 papers quickly. M1 status gives Neil Keenan and Group K the absolute authority to empower Anna with the right to confront and deal with the corporate US government – and woe to whoever gets in Annas way at that time.

Furthermore, with Neil Keenan's status as M1 confirmed financing will never be a problem again. Group K will have access to as much funding as required for any project imaginable.

Statements have been made that clarify the Elders' position on Common Law and Admiralty Law and how the two can co-exist in commerce, but not ON THE LAND of the united States of America in the form of a Federal Government under the Constitution.

Such clarification is necessary at this time to circumvent this nefarious attempt to implement a New Republic – when the Old one still exists and is the legal one.

Such a clarification also exposes the disinformation efforts of Karen "Hades" and all the drivel that she espouses in her claims as an "authority". This also means that all of the following entities have already been paid in full: The FED, World Bank, IMF, UN and all the incorporated governments around the globe.

You would do well to understand the importance of such a declaration and the need for the Elders to confirm their support of the De Jure Republic, even if it takes a bit longer – and working with Neil Keenan to clean up this mess.

It remains to be seen if the perpetrators pushing the New Republic are using this as an underhanded strategy to transition back to the Old Republic, but the RV and GCR are just “business as usual” moves that don’t solve the problem.

The RVs and GCR merely move money around and give commerce a bit of a reprieve – by hopefully distributing funds to infrastructures and areas of need, but they still include the enslavement of world economies and all of mankind.

And so, what then does the surrender of the Cabal actually mean? Likewise, what does the collapse of the US Government as a public service provider (which it has not been) mean?

There is no surrender – not without arrests. Unfortunately, “Dumbford” is too afraid to make any arrests.

We concede that some readers might be of the opinion that this post comes across a bit too heavy – but this is no game. The Keenan team has spent many hours receiving and analyzing information; putting together this massive jigsaw puzzle which ultimately shows us that another attempt is being made to just put up a new facade – and our information sources are second to none!

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | The Challenge To Uncover Your Corporate Identity

June 9, 2016

Let's take the proceedings up a few notches for the Group K website community and the 'It's A Keenan Thing' Facebook group, along with other concerned citizen SLAVES around the world – and look toward uncovering our 'corporate identities'.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

We have some members with smarts, but if we can move them on up to becoming private investigators [Magnum-sized P.I.'s – even] it will provide us with more eyes and ears on the ground globally; to shake the whole rickety crooked corporate structure.

Just as you can read between the lines in newspapers on any given day, you can discover clues and truths slipped in by the 'Powers That Be' – if you look hard enough in terms of what is actually going on. Additionally, you will find that pertinent disclosure information can also be found in movies.

One exceptional example in terms of a movie revealing the hidden side of financial world is the classic film; The Wizard of Oz.

Follow The Yellow Brick Road

The following extracts are from a commentary of The Wizard of Oz, which is the real meaning of the film:

As such, The Wizard of Oz, was an allegory for the new state of affairs in America in the 1930's following the stock market crash (and manipulated withdrawal of the money supply) that led to the factual bankruptcy of the United States Government following immediately thereafter.

After the bankruptcy, Kansas was no longer just plain old "Kansas," it was now "KS", an artificial corporate venue of the bankrupt United States, newly established "federal territory," part of the "Federal Zone," and Dorothy and Toto were in "this state" now.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

On her journey in this unfamiliar land, Dorothy meets up with three unusual “characters,” each having a different problem or challenge as portrayed on the silver screen; but their true identity has been decoded and it follows:

The first was the Scarecrow (a man of straw – a front) and “he” identified his straw-man persona for Dorothy; “Some people without brains do an awful lot of talking. Of course, I am not bright about doing things.”

And in his classic song, “If I only had a Brain,” the Scarecrow / Straw Man succinctly augured; “I’d unravel every riddle for every ‘individuadle’ (individual) in trouble or in pain.”

Today, in light of Redemption, we would translate it as; “Once one discovers that his straw-man exists, all political and legal mysteries, complexities and conditions are resolved or understood. And if one takes legal title (control) of his ‘Straw-man’, he becomes the ‘authorized representative’ of the ‘straw-man’; able to accept and discharge (settle) all commercial affairs as in Oz (the new commercial world – aka the MATRIX). This is because the ‘straw-man’ has no BRAINS, and no hands nor fingers by which to grasp a pen in order to write a check, so to speak; to pay a fine, fee, tax or debt!”

The second character was the Tin Man, or T.I.N. man (also identified as; Tax payer Identification Number). The Tin Man was a hollow man of metal, a “vessel,” a “vehicle” – these were at the time, newly created commercial code words for the straw-man. Just like the Scarecrow, the Tin Man had no brain and no heart. Both were “artificial persons.”

One of the definitions of “tin” in Webster’s dictionary is “counterfeit.” The Tin Man also represented the mechanical and heartless aspect of commerce and commercial law. Just like they say in the Mafia; “It’s nothing personal, it’s just business.” And in another line of work not dissimilar similar to the Mafia, the business of lawyering; they have the attitude that it’s nothing personal, “bidness is bidness.”

The heartless Tin Man also carried an axe, the traditional symbol for God, i.e., modern commercial law in earlier dominant civilizations, including fascist states. In the words of the Tin Man, expressing relief after Dorothy had oiled his rusty points and parts said; “I’ve held that axe up for ages.”

The word “ace” is etymologically related to the word “axe,” and in a deck of cards the only one above the King is the Ace. i.e. God. One of the “Axis” Powers of World War II, Italy, was a fascist state. The symbol for fascism is the “fasces,” a bundle of rods with an ax bound up in the middle and its blade projecting. The fasces may be found on the reverse side of the American Mercury-head Dime (in Roman deity ‘Mercury’ was the God of Commerce).

It can also be found on the wall behind, and on each side of, the speaker’s podium in the US Senate (each gilded fasces are approximately six feet in height), and at the base of the US Senate are two crossed fasces.

The third character that Dorothy met was the Cowardly Lion, or “King of Beasts,” and as the most feared of all animals in the jungle, was lacking in ‘courage.’ The Lion is symbolic of the once fearless American people, who have since lost their courage. Yes, there are a lot of “hot talkers” out there, just listen to your local radio talk shows.

American men love to talk, but not many have the courage to “DO” a damn thing! Americans are scared of the corporate Federal System and local revenue collectors, i.e., cops and judges, in their so-called courtrooms (tribunals) of justice (commerce).

After your first few encounters with the “Just-Us” system, believing there was ‘justice’ in the courts, causing some lost courage too. And you may have not known it, but the IRS [or country’s tax department] has been dealing with only your ‘Straw-man’ (debtor) strictly under the laws of commerce, and they’re just like the Tin Man; heartless.

After Dorothy and her three companions made their way to Oz, they had learned that they had to go see the ‘Wizard.’ In order to find the Wizard, they had to just “follow the yellow brick road,” (gold is known as ‘yellow bricks’ and are melted into ‘ingots!’) All one has to do is follow the trail of America’s stolen gold, and you’ll find the thief who stole it.

Between 1916 and 1933, most of America’s gold was rounded up by the ‘privately owned’ Federal Reserve Banks and shipped off to the Fed owners in England and Germany. The reason for this was that Federal Reserve Notes could be redeemed in gold, and the use of Federal Reserve Notes carried an interest penalty that could only be paid in gold.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

The American people were defrauded into trading their gold for (worthless) paper with green ink on it, and our previous currency, the United States Notes, carried no such interest requirement, but such was the bargain that came with the Federal Reserve Notes. The reason why JFK was murdered was because he was re-issuing United States Notes – interest free!

Notice a 1963 “UNITED STATES NOTE” not “FEDERAL RESERVE NOTE”:

When the bankruptcy was declared in 1933, Americans were required (misdirected) to turn in all gold coinage, gold bullion, and gold certificates by May 1st, May Day, (the birthday of Communism in Bavaria in 1776, the birthday of the IRS, and celebrated worldwide as the International Workers Holiday.”

You can read more about the Wizard of Oz analogy here

What About Other Countries?

Most of our attention has been focused on what is happening in the united States and the United States Inc. and not on the rest of the countries of the world. So, let's take a few moments and look around at where each of us lives.

Start by looking at your driver's license, national identity card, passport, car registration, house and land titles and generally anything that YOUR government has issued to you. In all incorporated countries YOUR NAME will be in capital letters. That tells you that YOUR government has created a “straw man” / “straw woman” in your given name and that it now considers you to be a SLAVE “an ENEMY OF THE CORPORATE STATE”.

Now this is a rude awakening for most people, so now go out and tell all your friends and people you meet to look at their documents to see their NAMES in capital letters, too, and tell them what that means is they too are SLAVES to the corporate government

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

(New World Order). Remember that as SLAVES, you own NOTHING! Look closely at all deeds and title documents, and you will probably find that you are only a “tenant” not the “owner.” SLAVES CANNOT OWN ANYTHING! You have been scammed!

Here's the “fun part”: Now that you know that your country is run by a “Corporation” and CEO (not Presidents or Prime Ministers) under Admiralty (UCC Commercial) Law, you need to find out “WHO OWNS THE CORPORATION.”

This may take some digging. Many Catholic countries are owned by the Vatican which owns the Crown in London (City of London – a Corporation), and thus many Commonwealth countries are domiciled there. Some are registered in island tax havens, while others may have been incorporated locally.

The UN was set up by the French Government, and the UN owns the IMF, which owns the United States of America Inc. which is bankrupt, as are many other incorporated countries. Now all corporations have SHAREHOLDERS, so WHO ARE THEY? They also must have a Board of Directors, so WHO ARE THEY? Now if you can find out this, things will get very interesting indeed!

How about the Corporation's Annual Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Statements? All Corporations have to file these statements somewhere. Perhaps the UN? If there is a debit, there must be a credit. This is what the Collateral Accounts are all about!

The Bank of International Settlements (BIS) is supposed to facilitate balances between countries. Can you find this information?

You may also have fun digging into WHO OWNS YOUR CENTRAL BANK? Dig deep and you will probably find that it is a banking cartel controlled by the Rothschild's or their local stooges, Knights Templar of Freemasons or BAR members, but not by your country's citizens. Do your research. Find out the truth. It will shatter any complacency! This example details an investigation into the corporate government of New Zealand:

The New Zealand Government: A United States SEC Registered Corporation
Now comes an even more fun part! Let's create a database of these crooks and slavers!

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

It is time to expose them. You and the rest of the world have a right to know!
Let's broadcast it! Shame on them – let's add them to the Group K No Fly List!
We need the assistance of all of you in exposing this global scam, so start asking questions of your so-called government. It all has to be on record somewhere. And if not or if they cannot prove the legitimacy, then they are illegal / unlawful and should be brought to a corporate court (international court of justice) to be charged with fraud along with many other legal infringements.

So please join in the fun and share your findings for YOUR country, state, county, city or whatever they claim to have incorporated. Name the culprits. Shine the spotlight on them. Tell them "THE JIG IS UP!" Then read Judge Anna's postings on how to reclaim YOUR CORPORATE NAME into "your name" with a step-by-step process.

There are also other ways of tracing back the "Trust" that YOUR Government set up in YOUR NAME and the CREDIT balance that is there. In the U.S. this is done using your Social Security Number that can be traced back to your "Trust" Number and Account that is listed on the NY Stock Exchange!

On the front side of your Social Security Card is your public-side Account Identity and on the reverse side of this card is a red serial number, signifying your private-side (hiding your "Security Trust Account") which creates the Money Bonds that the bank gets and then turns into their Money Credit, which they loan to You-a-Corporation franchise, or to their fortune 500 Corporations.

I bet you didn't know that, huh? DIG! DIG! DIG! Other countries may use your I.D Number and list your "Trust" overseas somewhere. FIND IT! Just keep asking the right questions. PUT THE PRESSURE ON THEM! ...and you may just find that there is a pot of gold at the end of this rainbow!

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Good luck to all of you – you Magnum-sized P.I.'s.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Response From ANONYMOUS

"TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:"

Numerous concerned people have contacted us at Anonymous and requested that we immediately investigate Neil Keenan and Group K. They especially asked that we pay attention to what transpired just before the recent White House Correspondents' Dinner. We have done that and more by probing into many computers and other resources, thus, ensuring a high level of transparency to the best of our ability.

Here are the results of our recent thorough investigation of Neil Keenan and Group K:

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

On Monday, May 2, 2016, Neil Keenan received an email from the Dragon Family advising him that President Obama had resigned, the RV's would open, and the Cabal had surrendered.

From our extensive and thorough inquiry there is no question that this happened, since we have seen the direct communications in that Mr. Keenan received such a letter. Upon checking deeper, we learned that "President" Obama did resign with reservations, although he retains his public position as a front man.

It has also been verified that General Dunford was brought in as "President" of the New Republic, as far-reaching as this may seem to many. We at Anonymous know only too well that often "truth is stranger than fiction"!

We also learned that if Obama had not resigned at that given time, the General would have gone public with the international press to advise them that he is now officially "President" of the New Republic of the U.S.

We also checked as thoroughly as possible regarding the RV issue. The RV's did open as the Dragon Family stated in their communication to Neil Keenan.

However, problems occurred immediately upon opening them with the "Tier One Group" attempting to take over, led by the Bush/Clinton families who have no respect for any other group. Should it have continued in the direction it was going, there would not have been any funding left for any other Tier, so they closed it down quickly after issuing SKR's.

As for the Cabal and its surrender, be assured that there are many different factions of Cabal out there! Today you can clearly see how many are rapidly leaving their flocks, as we continue to research their whereabouts and actions.

We have been inside their computers, and, day by day, they leave hoping for some kind of lenient judgment. To listen to them whimper about what is to become of them is hysterical when one considers the damage they have done to humanity and the Earth! After gathering a huge amount of resource data/intel, we directly contacted Neil Keenan.

We found him to be very cooperative, since he knew about our intentions to inform and protect the people. Neil gave us the liberty to probe his computer for information relating to issues we found to be very important and timely on freeing the people from so much corruption as well as clearing the lies and disinformation fed to them on a daily basis.

We appreciated this and did our best to cross-check his information. This gave us the wherewithal to also determine Neil's integrity or lack thereof. It is our "modus operandi" to be extra cautious when doing research on such a crucial matter.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Thus far, we have concluded that Mr. Keenan's statements which are referred to above are indeed accurate. We are also aware that in order for Neil Keenan to verify and expose the above, he chose to let go of billions in profit in a deal with the US Treasury regarding the purchase of 300,000 MT of AU.

This was to be a deal with the New Republic, not the old Zionist Cabal one, which is the only way, according to the documents we have seen, that Mr. Keenan would deal with them. The Cabal and the Bush/Clinton families had to be gone in order for this business transaction to be completed.

According to Neil Keenan, with his huge profits from this deal, he was going to use these profits to secure and open the Global Accounts. It is known that Mr. Keenan is once again in the midst of many financial transactions, to generate an influx of funds to complete his task.

Throughout our extensive research we are very much aware of Mr. Keenan using $US9.5 million (not including frozen/stolen accounts totaling more than $US185 million) of his own money to finance his many global efforts.

We have been through many computers during the past 16 days gleaning records of the aforementioned as well as gathering information about the many others who attempted to slander him publicly in order to block and prevent his success in opening and securing the Collateral Accounts.

With the many statements and documents now in our hands, we proposed to Mr. Keenan that we send all documentation to the US Attorney General's Office to proceed with prosecution in these legal matters.

Again, it is apparent to us that Neil Keenan lost a mother lode of money in saving the people by exposing the Old Republic and New Republic as being one and the same, another con game of the Cabal. Everything Mr. Keenan said was substantiated to us by documentation in his possession.

We are now fully aware that Neil and Group K are not your average group. We are pleased to know that we share some of the same goals in freeing humanity, especially now when the Cabal members are becoming more than desperate with their being increasingly exposed.

We have come to respect Mr. Keenan and his Group K and wish him better health so he can finish the good fight that he courageously started and risked his life and personal fortune to pursue. When we started looking into this, we weren't sure if this was going to come out with Mr. Keenan being shown in a positive light or not. After completing our investigations, we can just say that the world needs more people like him and his team.

After perusing his documents, we also learned that Group K doesn't stand alone. Others who have stepped forward include M2, an ex-World Bank Vice president, Military

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Generals, along with many others of high esteem. The Keenan Group is looking stronger than ever for the future.

We need more like him and his team who persist no matter the obstacles thrown at them. We wish them good luck, as we back and support them. The people cannot afford to lose you (nor ourselves) after finding out the extent of your unswerving commitment in caring about humanity.

One final note, we also saw the invitation from the Rothschilds requesting Mr. Keenan attend a sit-down meeting with them within the next ten days. They are looking for Mr. Keenan to put together a team by which to facilitate a soft-landing for the Rothschild family.

Anonymous”*

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

As soon as Neil Keenan was released from the clinic (yesterday) he returned home and despite being told to rest after a day of probing his ear, he was right back at his computer putting together another piece to save the planet...

Yes, the planet... He had received communications throughout the night whilst in the clinic (or what he called jail) and could not wait to return home to expose the bastards that are trying to keep the planet as it has been for the past 100 plus years.

Little did they know that Neil is back in rare form and ready for war. He is not yet totally clear on the nature of his medical problems as instituted by the globalists (somehow, some way) but this is not the first time they have gone after him either...

Now, as you can see in the video, his energy is flowing. He is comedy central when normal – but then by the same token, and most importantly of all: He is “as serious as a heart attack.”

I'm serious as a heart attack. I'll wake up, I may have stab marks in my back from the edges, but I'm sleeping with it tonight. I'm scared somebody will get in my room and get it. That's how serious I am about it. I mean, it means that much to me.

QUORIDEX.COM
Tony Stewart

It is plain to see there are not many more tomorrows of hope – but there would be many more of despair were he not to get his global work completed.

He has given it his all and has lost millions of dollars in doing so but he does not give a hoot about this. What he cares about is winning, for not one of us but for all of us. With Group K and special advisors such as M2 and many more; Group K is ready to roll.

Enjoy the video – it is rare, but notice how Neil's energy has picked up...

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Asian Insiders #1 & #2 Speak Out

Preface: The End / Beginning is Near

The end seems to be coming quickly after so many years of battles won in the ditches, on paper and in jungles. It is finally on its way so it appears.

The latest by the Asian Insiders 1&2 in a collaborative effort, makes it perfectly clear they are ready for Neil Keenan and Group K's return to action.

This should be the final curtain call before a new beginning with opened Global Accounts.

The preparations by the insiders, lawyers etc. have been extensive and time consuming but have brought this to a point where Neil and team can slide relatively easily into the seat and position of M1 (should he decide to take it – with the required changes made within the documentation).

Yes, Neil expects to have M2 continually making wise suggestions being that M2 just might be one of the worlds' great minds. And as Neil says "if we can get M2 to stop jumping off roof tops we can stop worrying and start working."

From what was sent (below) Neil has nothing to worry about, everything is being prepared for him throughout Asia and he is considering every little move as a major move.

Now all we need is to keep him healthy and acquire the financing and he is off for what appears to be the final step before the real journey begins.

Group K received the following at approximately 12am on Friday 17 June (NZT):

Asian Insiders #1 & #2 Speak Out

Neil, our group of elders has been patiently (and admittedly eagerly) awaiting your return. We are fully aware of any and all physical ailments that have been accosting you and have expedited specialist spiritual healing powers to you. Should you still feel weak, do please realize that it is the power of the aforementioned spiritual elements which are permeating throughout your body as this is being written.

You have done a masterful job in representing the Family and should sign the M1 papers as soon as practicable upon your arrival. This is a call from the Prince, through the Elders, to you. Your postponement should not be much longer.

It certainly is becoming apparent to us that the momentum of support from around the world continues to build for you; while the detractors are akin to the gnats that snap and snivel in the United States; they are annoying.

In order to address such vexatious efforts, we have solicited two major Indonesian law firms to represent you (should you choose to take up the offer) upon your return for the signing of the awaiting documentation.

Previously, you have mentioned that you already have the best of all Indonesian lawyers and we have spoken to those who know Mr. Stanley Hoop who have advised us that he is best for you, potentially with our support. We understand now who Mr.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Hoop is and do agree that he is one person who should assist you while utilizing our political and judicial involvement.

As a proactive move we have also prepared expedient transit stations throughout Indonesia, should you choose to work with those we have begun to coordinate efforts with. The banks and transit stations are suitably positioned in relation to each other, as they are also in relation to the assets themselves.

We appreciate that you may choose to pivot in another direction via associates in Singapore, Borneo, Hong Kong or Malaysia. However, we do not see how what we are doing could put you at any disadvantage, considering that groundwork is being prepared for you by dedicated professionals who wish to facilitate your endeavors in any way they can.

As for Anonymous, they did you a service and a disservice; concurrently. You were applauded which is what everyone is pleased to hear, but they also over-did it in some respects. We have knowledge that 'they' investigated some 22-25 computers and found all kinds of goodies therein. Indeed, that matter has concluded now so "love it or leave it" as the Europeans say.

Collectively, we encourage your continued relationship with M2. It seems that you are much more relaxed having such a capable professional working at close quarters, who is able to access that which is required with a snap of the fingers. We believe M2 will become an integral part of your team and the Shaman concurs on this point. You almost seem to settle to a degree with this person working beside you.

As for the Group K team which extends to here in Indonesia, you have chosen well. While it is invariably tricky to ascertain exactly what is being done, this is beneficial to those tasks at hand. In doing such an admirable job of selecting those with whom you work, it is apparent that they fit the requisite mold perfectly. Young perhaps, not quite adorned but ready for adornment. Remember one thing, our Indonesians will tell your Westerners stories trying to confuse them, until they really get to know them.

We suggest you allow Anonymous to turn the discovered documents detailing conspiracies, deceit, slander and fraud – amongst other things, over to the authorities. Let those who would prevent you from finishing your quest sit in a lockup while you proceed with your work toward the necessary outcomes. If Anonymous do not do as they claim, we can file actions for you in Western Europe or Indonesia against the perpetrating parties. There are many ways to take action.

The finish line beckons you, Neil Keenan and Group K (and indeed to all who have supported your efforts along the way); what an outstanding job. What a long, tedious endeavor and it is little wonder why no one has ever attempted it before, at least not like the Keenan Group.

Soon you will be blazing your own pathways and while others attempt to maneuver you in the direction of their choosing, no matter where it might be: remember you will be always, absolutely in the driver's seat. Continue to discern wisely and remember to include your M2 for proper advice and counsel.

Awaiting your arrival,

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Hot Spot: Money, RV's, Transparency And The Gold Game

Judge Anna most recently defined the true meaning of money to be (1) your labor, (2) natural resources and (3) what your labor does to natural resources.

Everything else is fiat or fake. And as soon as governments allow banks or treasuries to print paper backed by your labor or natural resources they go crazy, printing more and more till the value of labor and natural resources reach higher and higher levels called "inflation" and the value of the paper diminishes to the point that it collapses and has to be revalued (RV's and GCR's).

This "inflation" is promoted by the financial institutions as a necessary evil that provides financial fuel to make economies "grow" by supplying extra "liquidity".

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

The truth of the matter is that if you divide any economic growth rate (real or projected) into the number "70" (a logarithmic scaling) you will find out just how many years it will take for everything to DOUBLE in price.

That is not real growth.

It is also not real growth if central banks bail out the big banks as this just adds more money to both of these Banksters who then use this play money to gamble on commodity and stock markets or make hedge bets using derivatives.

Very little of this bailout money actually ever gets to the real economy and labor and natural resources suffer in real value due to increased inflation.

Bank Notes

Michael Tellingier has been fighting the South African banking system for years. Clearly banking under corporate law is a fraudulent activity.

What Mr. Tellingier discovered was that the entire banking system operates on paper, more specifically on promissory notes (I.O.U.'s). So, in order to pay off his legal debts he issued his OWN Promissory Notes under HIS TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

Specifically, he stated in HIS NOTE that he promised to pay a sum of money to whoever presented his note to him at a specific time, place and date and submitted this to his debtors.

NO ONE SHOWED UP TO COLLECT so the note lapsed... and he didn't have to pay anymore.

Bank loans work in much the same way but the fraud comes in when the bank draws up YOUR LOAN AGREEMENT (promissory note/IOU) under their terms and conditions (not YOURS) and as soon as you sign this NOTE the bank cashes it with other financial institutions- and then gives you money that they didn't have to begin with and makes you pay back the IOU with interest.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Now when this is done on a larger scale it is noted that the interest rate on YOUR IOU is higher than the inflationary rate that the central banks artificially create by printing more money.

This means that it will eventually be impossible for any economy to pay off the interest to the Banksters because there never is enough to cover the loan and interest. So, economies collapse and revalue and re-set.

Such an economic model creates perpetual DEBT SLAVERY which the banksters and their controlled governments with their military and police enforce under admiralty law.

The Gold Game

Now let's jump to the top of the financial pyramid to see how things work.

Firsts a bit about pyramids. Notice how the "All Seeing Eye" is detached from the top of the pyramid on the back of a US $1 note.

Pyramids are actually frequency generators and the peak cap stone of a pyramid is where one can connect to ones "Third Eye" or pineal gland in order to receive enlightenment.

Cutting the top off of a pyramid breaks this frequency connection which is what the 'elite' wish to do, thus preventing the mass of humanity from accessing enlightened knowledge.

So, if you want to be pyramid enlightened simply find one or make one with the point still attached and focus your attention there. There is one in Alaska called the black pyramid which is very powerful and still intact.

The 'elite' at the top of the financial pyramid also wish to keep you in the dark and hide their names under the covers of trusts and secret societies not so much a matter of keeping people from knocking on their doors asking for donations, but more because of how the elite obtained their wealth in the first place – and how they continue to illegally screw mankind out of the value of their labor and natural resources.

At the top of the financial pyramid are the ancient sovereign families, the Vatican and their Banksters of the west and the elders of the Dragon Families of the east.

These are the persons who say that they own the wealth of the world as they own the gold, the banks and the incorporated governments plus all the major multi-national corporations which are the underlying collateral of the world.

These 'elites' through their trusts and trustee representatives, such as the Committee of 300, Bilderbergers, etc., and anyone officially elected as M1, hold the keys as to who really owns what and who doesn't.

But the waters get murky at this level as there is "no honor among thieves" as those at the top got there through conquest (theft), fraud, corruption and cheating of all kinds, so they engage in screwing each other whenever possible, or coming together to screw the rest of mankind in order to dominate their SLAVES (WORTHLESS EATERS).

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

The 'elite' have now reached a point where they are trying to squeeze blood from a stone and they will face a slave rebellion if they proceed much further.

Thus, in order to preserve their slave control and their own lives they need to make some concessions that make the slaves think that they are getting something (but nothing) by revaluing global currencies and tossing some shillings to the masses to placate them.

Here; let's do NESARA so we can kick the can further down the road.

Who benefits from a debt jubilee or a wealth distribution?

The masses say "Yippie!"

The sovereigns and elders are also jumping for joy because all that money goes back into their banks and surges their industries and profits from more consumption of natural resources and their slave labor.

Of course, if you write off debt and give every man, women and child a million dollars you will see that a Ferrari will cost a lot more as inflation will skyrocket. So, will everything else.

But will it hurt the 'elite'? Not really.

Their ancient trusts have asset values in $'s with 50-60 zeros behind them. And 7 billion people times $1.0 billion is a drop in the bucket for even one of these trusts, particularly since all the money will be deposited back in their banking system. Here, have some more free money... it will be useless shortly... and the happy slaves will be coming back to the trough soon enough AGAIN.

And now since we are going to revalue and reset global currencies, let's jack the price of gold and silver! Hey, it's only a product of "inflation" plus a bit extra so that the 'elite's' metals stockpiles now will have a much higher value that more than offsets the revaluations and resets.

And they are only talking gold at $5,000 per ounce (only several hundred percent more that it is now). Add more zeros on guys.

That's' the gold game where the 'elite' increase global liquidity and then jack the price of gold to cover their efforts. Not only do they get their money back but they increase the value of their wealth many times based on their gold reserves.

They also jack up other precious metals, diamonds, artworks and other high-end luxury items in the process, further increasing their wealth.

It is a game. It makes the sheeple temporarily happy but their enslavement continues.

Is There a Way Out?

YES. Firstly, expose the con job being perpetrated by revaluations and currency resets, particularly when the process is NOT TRANSPARENT and will only cause an inflationary surge that will only really benefit the 'elite'.

Secondly, restoring the De Jure Republic of the united States of America and calling a Continental Congress is a critical move to clarify the breaking of the enslavement of American State citizens. And no, it is not all just about America. America is pivotal, but the rest of the world is sick and tired of everything being about America.

This will be a lesson to the world and a foundation for the formation of Republic Nations globally.

The 'elites' already recognize that there is a global awakening taking place and if they are to survive, they will have to put the capstones back on top of the pyramids and use their wealth for the betterment of all mankind, and not mankind's destruction or the destruction of Mother Earth.

The Asian Elders are in full agreement to this direction and have the trusts and foundations capable of easily funding such a global transition. They, however, are facing a down-line problem of greed by trustees and government leaders wanting to use this wealth for themselves. Same old problem, huh. Crooks are crooks. Transparency is the key to unlocking these greed blockages.

This starts with the proposed revaluations and global currency resets. Who is responsible for setting the new rates? What process was used or will be used? Make it transparent so the public can make an informed decision.

The same goes for trade agreements.

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

How can a government approve a trade agreement that benefits only global multinational corporations and not local interests... without getting the approval of the public?

Transparency exposes TRUTH.

There is no place to hide, so my advice to the sovereigns and elders is simply “change” and do what is right and righteous for a change.

Enslavement is no longer an option. If you sincerely “give” you will get much more in return... and live in peace.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Crayfish And His 3 Trillion Dollars

Crayfish (David Crayford) is a bottom dweller but he does dig up a can of worms once in a while and this $3T is a nice example.

Unfortunately, he hasn't dug deep enough into an old story to find out the real purpose and use of this new issue of $100 Federal Reserve Notes.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

One clue that he did mention was the fact that China has a warehouse that is chucker block full of such notes printed in China. Taiwan has crates full too. The Philippines have crates of un-cut sheets.

And Neil has bunkers full in Indonesia of all kinds of rotting paper.

Yes, the foundation of the described transaction is fraudulent. Period.

UBS cannot use Collateral Account gold or assets as collateral backing such issuances of currency regardless of who or where the currency is printed.

But where did this money go? Crayfish has no clue. As a leading member of the IOTC he should know!

Well, not really since Neil Keenan has already exposed the OTC / IOTC as a phony wannabe with absolutely no support of the Elders / Real Depositors of 85% of the gold in the Collateral Accounts. Crayfish babbles on rather eloquently but it is mainly empty bubbles coming up from the bottom of the pond.

So, where does this kind of money come from and go to? The US Treasury together with the FED print dollars in a number of countries, sometimes to facilitate regional trade (Germany, China, Japan, Philippines and elsewhere.)

Other times they are printed as payoffs for Balance of Payments Deficits. And then there are those used to finance local wars, political appointees, regime change or as a method to steal more gold or resources in exchange for paper.

Additionally, there is the trick of declaring any OLD NOTES before a certain date to be no longer valid. This either forces an exchange for new notes – and if such is not done within a certain period the old notes are toilet paper only.

AND don't forget the use of FAKE $100 bills to pay off Ukrainian mercenaries or ISIL idiots that cannot tell the difference. Iran actually makes some very nice copies too.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Unfortunately, most $100 notes are recognized by their serial numbers that all banks and money lenders are acutely aware of and do not want to lose out by accepting funny money.

Similarly, a few years back some of the European countries were not accepting US $100 notes printed in the US! This was / is because US dollars printed in the US are inflated more than international dollars used in trade, creating an imbalance in values. In some countries you could only make an exchange at a government postal office. So much for the All Mighty Dollar.

So back to Crayfish... digging dirt without following the muddy trail just stirs up the water so no one can see.

Blaming it on the AMERICANS as a catch-all phrase is also stupid as we all know that this type of act was clearly initiated by a small group of crooks inside the US Government, Treasury and the FED – especially since as part of the International Office of Treasury Control (IOTC), he should have been informed of such an act as soon as it was authorized... right?

As well as knowing all the who, what, when, where, why, and how. He has no clue – other than that the AMERICANS DID IT!

Shame on your stupidity. Know that Neil and gang eat Crayfish with relish and hot sauce!

DONE!

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | UN Secretary General Ban Ki-moon Attempts To Pull The Wool Over Chinese / Korean Eyes – Only To Find There's No Wool

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

A secret meeting was taking place within the walls of this famous restaurant in a section placed together with high level security just for them.

Within sat some of the more prominent politicians and Globalists on the planet. One had it all and the other used to have.

The shoes have changed feet now and you could see the feeble old man known as Secretary General of the UN, squirming in his chair hoping to con the President of the great nation of China after previously having visited South Korean President Park.

The purpose of Ban Ki moon's being there was an attempt to keep the NWO or Globalist Agenda alive. President Xi Jinping sat amused by the offerings.

After all, for nearly 75 years China and Asia have had to take a back seat to this totally corrupt organization entitled the United Nations.

For nearly 75 years the Rape of Nanking still smells fresh not only in the room but throughout Asia.

"Please forgive us for we have sinned" were the words that never escaped Ban Ki moon's mouth. He never attempted those words! But perhaps those were the words China was waiting to hear. Or maybe this was just another planned rape by the West. President Xi Jinping did all he could to sit still and not strangle him for his insolence.

The Dragon Family was not second in line on this as they fought for the front row. The nerve of this Moonie [ See: Moon Moving In On United Nations? ] dressed up as something special (yet just a killer preparing to decide who will eat and who will not eat in the United States in the near future, as the UN plan to be issuing out Monsanto food). Yes, right little man you look like God? Not! You look like a desperate wannabee from long ago, while your own people will bring you down after all the wrong you have done them.

You had the power in your small pockets to assist but stood fast and in defiance of those that raised you. Yes, it can be easily seen how you hid within the mountains during WW2. Your size makes hiding a strength; under beds, carpets, in holes in walls etc.

The four-thousand-dollar suit worn by Ban Ki moon did not dress up the man in this case. His trembling was noticeable and the Chinese / Dragon Family found it very amusing that this 120-pound man soaking wet dared to come into their parlor but happy he did "come into my parlor said the spider to the fly!"
Ban Ki-moon could barely move his legs. Were they still there?

He looked old and tired. One could see him twitching uncomfortably wondering if he would be able to pull the wool over the Chinese eyes?

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Whereas the Chinese sat there smiling saying to themselves “what do you want this time, you old thief?”

The fact that Neil Keenan was screaming for the Chinese / Dragon Family not so long ago to set up their own financial system and banks (AIIB) had really paid off.

They listened and now they needed not a thing from the West. Yes, the shoes had changed and the Western Representative / Globalist representative was like sending someone a gift they did not want.

While in South Korea, Ban Ki moon did not fool anyone either. Sure, the Secretary General from this notorious organization (nothing more than a corporation) flew in and they were ready for his bullshit one more time (it has happened many times in the past) – remember he was a Moonie – another corrupt so-called religious organization.

After spending time in South Korea, he did reveal his goal to President Park – this being that he was preparing his quest to run for the Presidency of South Korea.

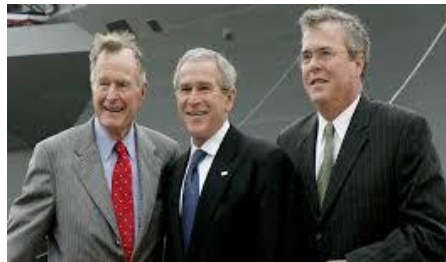

Why President Park ‘had to go’ had to do with her not delivering the Gold to Jeb Bush and the US Treasury—again Neil Keenan and team had stopped it.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

She could not and did not relent after many times being requested to do so. She stood strong as a Korean should supporting her people.

She wanted Korea's national and international debt paid and more than anything she wished for and wanted the reunification of Korea. As they all do.

She has united and joined forces with many known and unknown for this very reason unbeknownst to the Western World (Globalists).

Now they want to replace her. Stand your ground President Park the Globalists will crumble around you and Korea will remain standing.

You see, the Globalists cannot control the world unless they conquer Asia; and they figured that Ban Ki moon, with their nefarious assistance, would take South Korea simply enough. Or is it?

But they need money to get him into position. Heaven forbid they ever use any of the multitudinous funds they have stolen from the planet to assist their further attempts at hijacking it. These weasels will be served up to the people on a cold platter in the very near future and you can hear them crying out for mercy.

Yes, mercy it is. FEMA Camps and Monsanto food for you and your families. We also wish to rid the world of your bloodlines (as ridiculous as they may be) as you do ours. They had, in the recent past attempted, to steal the Korean bunkers' gold bullion contents by using Jeb Bush in the background and Scott Nelson of the US Treasury to purchase them.

They were mostly after the Gaddafi assets (the former Libyan President), Mei Hua assets and attempted to do an end around when no one was looking, but unfortunately for them we played the same game (only better) for many years and stopped them in their tracks – even though they went through their agent Katsumi Kamiya of the Immuganda Trading Limited Corporation in Hong Kong.

GOTCHA! And a few days later we heard they would be coming in another way. Jeb Bush had been refused.

You must remember when you connect the dots that these operators are all one and the same; all parts of a giant Corporation that takes care of its constituent parts with bail-ins and bail-outs with all the stealth and theft they can swing at the same time.

All the while you are paying taxes that are unlawful and not mandated by any government as there are only three sovereign nations on the planet. You are paying taxes to a corporation.

Yet you take care of foreign Corporations, Banks, Royal Families, International Organizations and every other aspect of business that they (the Globalists) can dream up while they find further ways to steal from you.

Ban Ki moon has been part of this ongoing saga since the beginning: The theft of the Federal Reserve Notes that were stolen from Neil by Daniel Dal Bosco.

While researching this and other matters Neil's best friend and associate Joseph Bendana made certified copies of the lawsuit and submitted a copy to Ban Ki moon at the UN Building in New York City in hope of furthering things. Joseph followed his submission with a phone call to Ban Ki moon at the UN Building in New York.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Of course, Joe did not get through to him, but what no one expected including his brother-in-law – was a return call from Ban Ki moon; one that lasted 45 minutes that was filled with explosive details and information.

Joe contacted Neil Keenan and said “Holy shit! Wait until you hear what I was told. I will see you in two days, cannot talk over the phone.”

What Joe did not realize was that Ban Ki moon was being recorded and two days later Joseph Bendana was found dead in his home, right after clearing a bill of health to travel.

We are still waiting for the truth to come out on this matter and we are certain that it will. It is still being ruled as a Homicide and we will ensure just results in the end. Count on it, Joe!

Connecting the dots also leads us to the would-be hideaways of the Bush and Moon families – and believe it or not they are next-door neighbors in Paraguay which just happens to be within the drug triangle with the Mariscal Estigarribia US Air Force Base as their support and protectorate.

To add further fodder to this the Bush family actually bought the Hitler Estate (where Hitler lived until his death).

This is where they intended to hide from you once they no longer had any place to run. And now they are attempting to steal from the Global Accounts again; at a time, many consider close to their soon-to-be demise (Neil doesn't believe this).

Yes, maybe this is their last attempt at stealing from Asia. Maybe not! People like these never quit. Greed is everything.

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

The Chinese have many smart and clever people and they do not talk much. They believe in the old saying “you cannot even catch a fish if he keeps his mouth closed”, so they smile letting you spill your beans and Ban Ki moon has only two ways to go. He needs the money or the bunkers so he can keep the UN and many Nations alive otherwise the Chinese could lose their interest.

Firstly, Neil doesn't believe the Chinese would worry about this and secondly, Ban Ki moon might just state that he needs money to make a run at the Presidency of South Korea – which again Neil does not believe the Chinese will care for nor promote.

You see the Chinese / Dragon Family have their fingers on the pulse of what is happening and they know of the Globalists desperation, while also realizing that the Globalists in fact own nothing, and are giving them phony notes and papers – whether it be dollars or property deeds.

The Chinese realize they need to get to dealing with those who can make a difference and the Globalists / Zionists are no longer in the running and have little value themselves at this point.

The walls are crumbling around them.

Thirdly, the Chinese / Dragon Family are aware of the many attempts to steal the Collateral Assets, which Neil Keenan and Group K have stopped. They are very appreciative and realize that Ban Ki moon's visit is little more than an attempt to fill his coffers once again before fleeing to Paraguay.

There are rumors out there that Neil Keenan is making a big move and if so; that would eliminate the need for Oligarchic / Globalist disorder any longer.

The Chinese know what Neil is planning and most likely Ban Ki moon himself also heard and, in an attempt, to save his fake UN Organization, flew in (in desperation) to assure his future safety while attempting to shut Neil Keenan down.

This is not, and will not happen.

Right now, we believe Ban Ki moon is on the blocks, crapping himself, with Obama in the next booth passing notes between one another under the partitions.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Ban Ki moon could be returning home empty handed. If so, look for things to accelerate before these vermin begin to flee, leaving many others behind to take the fall. Get your fishing nets out boys we are all going fishing and their mouths do not stop flapping. One final disgusting note: What happens should Ban Ki-moon become President of South Korea?

Well another chip falls into place for the Globalization of the planet should it still be alive.

You see then Ban Ki moon would rape the Korean Peninsula of any and all bunkers and assets which would buttress the Globalists once again.

Additionally, some very disturbed people most likely named Obama or Clinton would then take over the UN and I do not even want to go there. That's sick.

Enough!

And Asia, protect yourselves from the Hyenas. You are not alone.

By the way Ban Ki, don't forget your shoes.

Secretary General of the United Nations Ban Ki-moon has hit a rough spot in his official / unofficial visit to Asia.

His intention was first and foremost to prevent Neil Keenan from pursuing and completing a project that would have destroyed the Khazarian / Zionist banking system. Subsequently, Keenan is working toward implementing a new financial system. You will discover more with regard to this in Neil Keenan's next post.

In the event that Ban Ki-moon had achieved his goal as above, the other important task at hand was to acquire (illegal) financing from the Global Account bunkers for the upcoming warring as the NWO continues on with its worldwide assault on the Planet. To complete his quest, Ban Ki-moon needs financial backing from one of two sources: Korea and / or China.

His initial visit was with South Korean President Park and it went so well that Ban Ki-moon was run out of the country – but not before promising President Park he would be running in the next South Korean Presidential election; and also not before President Park told him that no one, including the United Nations, the New World Order, nor Ban Ki-moon himself, would touch the assets which belong mostly to Asian depositors. Wow, what a way to begin a desperate quest.

He could run for the Presidency of South Korea but the question is “who will vote for him by the time the people on the planet are done with him?”

Following his ejection from South Korea, Ban Ki-moon flew quickly to China for an unofficial visit.

He arrived in China unannounced, desperately seeking a way to keep the NWO's agenda alive. He needed money / bunkers / warehouses of assets – and the only place he could turn was to China, with open hands.

The first clue as to how the Chinese felt about this unofficial visit (that the media also had no knowledge of) was when there was no Chinese delegation at the airport to receive him upon his arrival.

The Korean Embassy picked him up and took him to his Hotel. He spent most of the day at his Hotel wondering what was wrong!

Why was this taking so long? Were they on to him? The day played on and Ban Ki began to make phone calls in a panic, later to receive notice that Xi Jinping would see him.

He prepared himself for this pivotal private meeting. No one would know (it is not even on his UN events calendar).

Now he could finish the assignment, get access to the bunkers with or without President Park and move forward with Agenda 30 for the New World Order. Perfect, and with a quick getaway. He must have been excited.

Upon turning up at the meeting place he found that Xi Jinping had not yet arrived to formally meet him. He had to wait. He began to sweat again. It was hotter than usual. Finally, Xi Jinping stepped into the room without notice, greeted him, sat down and asked him what the need was for this unplanned non-official meeting?

Ban Ki-moon described the urgency of the situation and how there was a desperate need for money to keep the Agenda afloat.

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Now here is where everything becomes clear. China and the Golden Dragon Family are pretty much ONE...That's right ONE.

They already have their plan for a better world, and it is not one of slaughtering people leaving only 500 Million of us on the planet.

So, Xi Jinping gave five minutes or thereabouts of his time to listen again to how the Globalist Oligarchs wanted to slaughter 80% of the human population and how they couldn't do it without help. With China being that help.

Xi Jinping said nothing before getting up and leaving the room. Ban Ki-moon was stunned. The plan was falling apart right in front of him. Still, he remains hopeful in terms of a response from Xi Jinping.

A response will not be forthcoming. He was rebuked.

Soon after leaving the meeting Ban Ki-moon made desperate calls to Japan advising them that he is being rebuked throughout Asia and needs large amounts of money. Little did he know that Japan would be doing the same. He then asked them for money. Others also called the Japanese Emperor (Rockefeller) and Japanese Prime Minister demanding cooperation 'or else'.

Tremendous pressure was applied to the Japanese, so much so that the Emperor stated on July 13, 2016 that he is going to retire:

Kathmandu Post: Japanese Emperor Akihito 'plans to abdicate'

Neil Keenan's' business continues on even after prior interference by the US Treasury / Bush Family failed, and now still after the UN / NWO interceding also failed. It seems that, as the saying goes: The Jig is Up – and no one is going near the bad smelling, abhorrent odor of the Globalist Oligarchs any longer.

Meanwhile Mr. Keenan gets ready to return to Asia after 6 months of illness and injuries, most of which were visited upon him by New World Order flunkies. Neil will finish up that which by rights, should have been completed long ago...

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Men Of Action Are Favored By The Lady Of Luck

July 20, 2016

Per Message from Neil Keenan: Neil is flying out shortly and he's not entirely sure when he will be returning.

A private jet is about to collect him, it is not too late to get everything completed but it is too late to accommodate the continued efforts that have contributed towards delays.

After many hours of conversation involving delegations from foreign nations and a key member of the Rothschild family, as well as continuous delays in terms of what Neil Keenan thought would be a major blow towards usurping the Western Globalist Financial System; he finally decided to pull the plug on any further delay and bring in those that would be able to assist him "in the NOW" to get things rolling.

This is what this trip is about.

His message to those that were assisting him in constructing the new financial system is to keep working and get what is needed to him – as soon as possible – in order that things can move forward. And that he would be seeing you soon in Asia.

A private jet will be arriving to pick Neil up in approximately 2 hours. Things are moving forward, and Neil is pushing the envelope.

NFK Update: System To Save The World From The Globalist / Obama Doomsday Plan

Another Piece of the Pie

- ▶ The New Financial System
- ▶ Depopulation Agenda Continues – EMP Attack Planned for North America
- ▶ UN Would Decide Who Eats and Who Starves (Obama signed the orders if that means anything)

▶ A Call to Action

For seven long years plus Neil Keenan has chased the Cabal / Globalist thieves around the world in his attempt to bury them. With one swift stroke of a pen Kathy M., who is Ray C. Dam's right hand, corrected many wrongs.

Neil now has the information he needed to move forward in many respects.

The re-filing of the Financial Tyranny Lawsuit was never so far away, and this action pretty much puts what happened and how in its proper perspective. The re-filing of this lawsuit is the much-needed action that will take down Western Tyranny.

▶ The Exclusive Meeting of Three

As most of us are now aware, Neil recently took a business trip when invited to attend an important meeting. The requirement was so urgent that the initiators of the meeting sent their own private jet. Under heavy security Neil and M2 met with one of the leading figures at the very top of the Globalist / NWO movement.

For those who would like additional detail, Neil thought that this trip was going to take him to Switzerland but it actually took him to a much closer destination. Security was 60+ strong and the meeting took place in a very secure Hotel where no more than four people ever sat together at any one time.

One of the key items on the agenda at this meeting was to discuss the establishment of a New Financial System such as Neil has been moving toward with the assistance of his associates and friends.

The basis for this meeting was the well-established understanding that Neil will have access to (not ownership of) between 400,000 and 600,000 metric tons of Gold to create the foundations for a solid world financial system that will keep us all alive and well, and it will replace the former NWO / Globalist / Cabal system. (Meanwhile there are others who wish Neil would use the access he has to prop up the old system. He has far easier options than helping the World which would not cost him a cent).

According to Neil, this would mean no more FIATs and goodbye to the Western Bankers; there will be no World Bank, IMF or BIS.

Also, there would be two home bases: One in Asia which will hold the Assets, and the other will be in Europe which will represent the West.

Another matter that emerged during this meeting detailed something far more diabolical, as Neil and M2 were given warning about a plot that involves the UN and the Obama Administration's plans for the United States.

Neil was advised that the window of opportunity to assist the US is unfortunately closing a little more every day. Apparently, it is Obama's plan to create another false flag; but this time on a massive, unprecedented scale. Neil and M2 were advised that we are looking at a two-month window for this situation, although Neil believes this scenario can be averted.

The plan would see the blame laid upon "foreign terrorists" for an EMP (Electronic Magnetic Pulse) attack on the electricity grid of North America.

The attack would cover a wide berth of land ranging from the East coast to the West coast of the US, and from the North to South coasts, also extending into Canada and even Central America.

Neil and M2 were told that everything is in place in the US to destroy the 'Grid' and set off a depopulation program that would eliminate 80% of the American population by way of starvation and civil unrest.

Waiting to deliver emergency foods, the UN will decide who eats and who does not. This executive order has already been signed by the unlawful and utter fraud that is referred to as Obama.

Whereas we might have thought this was going to take a much longer time to implement (Agenda 30), one can see Obama and the UN are rushing things – in a possible attempt for him to implement martial law and serve a perpetual term.

If this happened, it would be the death of the great nation known as the US and by design, Europe and the rest of the Western world would fall like dominoes, to their demise.

The Globalists have their plans, and if they can they would initiate them at any cost. On a more positive note, many of us are well aware that technologies exist that should have been implemented for the betterment of humanity a long time ago.

In the following video Neil shows us just one such example; a medical device that utilizes frequencies to cure many of the health problems that we fight on a daily basis. Group K also has access to a range of other advanced technologies, including free energy – which it is clear to see would hurt the fossil fuel industries.

The more pressing matter however, is that with the right assistance Neil will be able to implement the New Financial System and the planet will be able to beat the Globalists back.

No one can do this alone, but it can be done. Where is the crucial interim financial help coming from at this critical juncture?

Surprisingly, few people seem willing to contribute towards these every increasingly urgent efforts – those that are being made by Neil and Group K – to save them and their loved ones.

It seems that so many are waiting for a precious few to deal with matters relating to the life or death of all of us. This is the current situation.

Our choices in the very near future are now up to the people; Neil and Group K will do whatever they can with whatever they have.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Neil is working on this and many other things, but his honest answer is, “With what?” He has already spent millions of dollars of his own money and has had his remaining accounts stolen and frozen more than once; transfers have been blocked or reversed on many occasions. Obviously, the Cabal has been behind all of this.

Consequently, sufficient interim funding is desperately needed to take immediate action and cross the bridge to the finish line.

Despite waiting a considerable period of time for financial assistance, Neil has not left the people stranded. He has come to love many who are waiting for release from debt slavery and better lives. However, now is the time for those who have the means to contribute to this most important cause for We the People.

The waiting game most urgently must be over!

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Asian Insider: Congratulations It's Finally Happening

August 4, 2016

The following message was sent to us for publication by the person known as Asian Insider #1:

"Two years ago, I was appointed by The Dragon Family to overlook the actions being taken by Neil Keenan. Finally, the die is cast!"

How we came to this point is in some respects utterly confusing, – no one could have foreseen the way in which specific events would play out except for perhaps Neil himself.

As some of you are aware, "It's A Keenan Thing". You might get that, you might not; How has this man metamorphosized the entire Off-ledger Global Collateral Accounts into a humanitarian piggy bank?

How did he come to the conclusion that such assets may be used by a select and trusted group of people to prevent the entire world from falling under the irretrievable control of the "Globalist Cabal" – and to remedy an entire financial system?

This is a bold move, although from my vantage point and with the particulars that I am privy to, the above summary is fairly close to, if not directly on the mark. Certainly, there is much detail pertaining to this that has not yet been made public. This has been a prudent position to take, to say the very least.

What I am able to say is that this mandate was actually only ever originally intended to encompass the Global Collateral Accounts, and thereby the distribution of humanitarian funding packages. This in itself in terms of an undertaking is bigger than anything in financial terms than this world has ever seen.

Oddly enough, in his ever curious and idiosyncratic way Mr. Keenan has devised a method by which to tie a plethora of concerns (including "the gold") into a monolithic framework that just might be able to govern all worldwide financial concerns in a fair and equitable manner moving forward. Finally!

This eventuality is due in part to a snowball effect whereby other asset holders and administrators have approached Neil. Now that the word has spread, an ever-growing number of key people have the clarity to see what Neil is putting together.

Of course, this all began with the Collateral Accounts and “the gold.” Indeed ‘the buck’ does stop with the gold! So now the ‘buck’ is with Neil Keenan and his accumulated team of commensurate specialists.

In his peculiar fashion, Neil quipped, “We have put up with the Globalists while still in the womb; however, we are not there any longer, and now it is our turn to kick them to the curb as they’ve attempted to kick us”.

In part, what makes Neil such a perplexing character is how his mind can function on multiple tasks simultaneously which seems to be highly advantageous, if not a fundamental requirement in addressing the challenges at hand.

Many operators are a trick or two away from extinction and so it would follow that we never hear from them again.

Neil has one too many tricks up his proverbial sleeve, so one can never predict just what he might do next. He is, as he says, ‘12 steps ahead of the ‘Oligarchs’ and if not, then he brings in Matthew and Michael to toss them out.’

I happen to agree that Neil Keenan and his Group K have been doing a phenomenal job while encountering all-comers in terms of distractions and diversions, and tacking all along the way to get to where they are now.

I have observed Neil in action with many of the Elders over the span of a few years now, and it has become as clear to them as it has to me that he fully intends to bring this effort to its rightful conclusion.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Within them I could feel a sense of relief. I think many of them had given up hope that this situation could ever be resolved, until this tenacious person came upon the scene. Some of the more astute among them had however sensed long ago that a solution would present itself one day.

While it is easy for armchair critics to bang on about this that and the other thing – one should not forget that Neil has financed nearly every facet of this mammoth effort with his own money – millions of dollars! And this is completely aside from that which has been stolen, frozen and diverted. Yes, I am looking at you, Vanguard Group in New York.

The whole family knows who you are! We threw you out of HSBC in Hong Kong. And we will throw you out of HSBC Stateside too. The Bush family be damned!

The litany of attempts to get in Neil's way have been well documented and that whole matter has become quite a bore. But this is what happens when one draws near to such a phenomenal objective.

Most who would venture simply could not have overcome such encumbrances, but now with a little help from somewhere else, our planet might be looking at shaping into something much more positive indeed.

Neil is steadfast in his belief that there are many who can step forward to lend a hand one way or another, and we will see them emerge in due course. Perhaps these days will shortly be upon us.

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Congratulations to you once again Mr. Neil Keenan and Group K – and I for one cannot wait to see you here in Jakarta. Your impact continues to grow. Thank you for your determined drive towards success, with never a call for applause. I would very much like to join you on your journey with Group K and M2 during your push to reshape our planet for the better.

You have demonstrated that with sincere desire, a preeminent multi-tasking mind, and a small team of dedicated professionals, that the most remarkable feats may be achieved. Respectfully though, you have yet to reach the finish line so there is no room to be lax. With the observation point that I have I am able to say with conviction that you and Group K are the talk of the financial world.

We are watching with great interest to see if the West has the wherewithal to awaken to the understanding that “the assets” are owned by the East, and that the East is prepared to allow you to utilize their assets for humanitarian purposes.

Other new and positive leaders in the West must now rise and do something more than continually asking you to do more. It is time for the would-be recipients to contribute as well. Otherwise, I have been instructed to advise you that you will be elected to an advisory post, albeit second to none.

Such a position would not be mandated to assist the West. And so, therefore, it is time for the West to stand up and help by taking a pro-active role in completing the task at hand.

Times have never been more serious and trivial pursuits must end or be dismissed outright. Neil is not to be distracted; he must direct his attention to only that which must be done. Neil you must pay attention. You and Group K dare to dance with greatness, so take it by the horns and do not let it go, it is yours to lose.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Neil's Response To The Asian Insider

August 6, 2016

My friend, I just want to say thank you for all the kind things you've said about me. I appreciate them, each and every one. I want you to know that no matter what was said, the final decision as to what I do with my life is mine alone.

I am not going to do a tap dance because I hear I am wonderful, as I continue to ponder what still needs to be done. As I've said over a long period, it might be time for me to delegate responsibilities and move forward. I would do so with the understanding that my name will be on the agreements; it is I who will be responsible for everything. I can live with traveling back and forth to Indonesia or any other Asian nation once a month to look things over, but I don't believe for one second I will want to stay and deal with things that others can do well. I believe my job is nearly done.

Once I acquire the financing to finish this, I will move on to another phase. It is here where I will bring the experts in to deal with the various sub-matters we will be facing. I have dealt with this intensely for approximately 4 years, so nothing is new or strange. I never thought I would continue on once I got it to where I was comfortable with it and where it could begin to run itself.

It is all about people my friend. This is where the win comes from; nowhere else. My God, it has come a long way, and I don't need to sit at the top of any mountain. I've had a wonderful ride and should it end, then so be it. I would not have done anything different.

Also, remember this is not over with yet, so entitling me with the next whatever is not the right way to do anything. When it is done, then you can call me whatever name you wish, as I am sailing my ship into the sunset. You will see me waving goodbye with a once a month stipend to make sure everything is okay. This will be my job, and everything else will be in the hands of those trusted ones that I hand pick.

You best believe that Group K, and I mean all of them, will be finding themselves in the "fires of hell" once this phase is completed! It will not be an easy task, but they are all up for it. I cannot wait to see them at work doing what they do best with the latest equipment and banging things out one after another. Boy, will it be fun to watch them finally get the recognition they have always deserved! You may not know them yet, but they will become household names in the future.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

I still have so much work to do, and you, Sir, are attempting to rope me back into the Accounts and deal with them in a capacity that someone much more qualified than I can do. That includes every department that will be created, whereby I will find the right people for the right jobs. Just think of all the Asian people who will get to work on making sure Asia is compensated for the losses they have incurred at the hands of the Western banking system.

Then again, think about how the American people are going to feel when they start rebuilding the good old US of A with no need for any political system to finance things. This is going to be a fun time for us all. Likewise, there are more than enough qualified people to deal with it.

What I am trying to say is that overseeing this operation is enough for me. Once or twice a month I'll check in on things to make sure everything is running smoothly. I am very tired of being held up for so long by relentless Cabal tactics. It would not matter if I had access to sufficient funding that I need to finish this up now. But I don't! If I do shortly, then watch how it is done! It will be as easy as taking candy from a baby – maybe even a new Obama Executive Order. Check and see.

Furthermore, I do not see your power extending this far, yet mine does, so this is most likely my plan. I want to and need to get back down to the basics. Fighting this long battle has been a hoot for me, but it should have been over long ago. The lack of serious interest in their own safety by the people on this planet has stunned me! I am one of the last guys you would have thought could have taken things this far. But it's been a tremendous competition, and how I love to compete! What could be a better stage than the battle for the Earth and its peoples!

Wow! Thanks to all for putting up with me day and night for years, especially during the times when I had no idea what I was doing. Those days are long behind me now, and they're nothing more than good memories. There are so many things for me to look back at and say, "Did I do that?" Sometimes I just shake my head.

Yes, there is so much more to do once this phase is finally in order. You will find me securely walking away from what was built from the lawsuit on up. We have not seen anything to completion yet, so don't get carried away with anything. Once it is done, this is what I expect to see: I will be around as per mandate, but let's let the others enjoy the show when they can.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Thank you, Sir, for keeping your eyes on me. I love your valiant attempt to keep me in place, but my place will no longer be in this battle once it's finally over. Unbeknownst to you, I have spoken with the family, and they understand clearly that I might want to go. They have never heard anyone say such a thing to them before, but the tough job is nearly done now. Let someone else do what he or she needs to do to venture onward.

As my job nears completion, hopefully it finishes as you seem to feel it will... with us on top. If I have disappointed you in any way, I'm sorry for this. However, there may be others who also have more vested interests in this besides me. They are the ones I will feel for. By the way, with so many rapid changes occurring daily in the world, I reserve the right to change my decision. As you know, I am very tired although still working very hard at things. Sometimes the long hard hours catch up with one's clear thinking.

Thank you again for all the well-meaning compliments, but save them for your wife. I am sure she would love to hear such nice things herself, coming from you. At that time, it will be my decision to make, and if you wish to thank me then pat me on the back and that will be plenty. But remember we are talking about a new financial system including the Global Collateral Accounts, which will be a tremendous international undertaking.

We are not talking about a large bank; we are talking about a huge financial concern. And it may just take more time than one might expect to get everything to the point where the lending of funds as well as the roll-out of humanitarian projects begins. We are talking about many quadrillions of dollars and this cannot be allowed to just sit there as it has for the past one hundred years or so, nor may it be illegally used. And so, there is still much work to do and I am not going anywhere until the work is done.

Let's forget the premature accolades and get this over with so we can move on to the battle confronting us at this time. It's not over. Neil Keenan

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Keenan to Asian Insider: Final Decision: Stay Far Away!

Dear Sir,

I wish for you to beware of whatever you touch or do regarding anything I do. Your initial approach to me was to flatter me to no end. I have had my eye on it for a long while, and despite the fact you have this marvelous Stanford University degree, you still hold no position of strength.

Actually, you were stopped in your tracks by me. The Family had no idea you were sending this post out to me and had even advised you to let me be. You and you alone decided to put your hand in my cookie jar, when the fact is you can get nowhere near my head. Therefore, you have no clue how to get things completed! The wonderful thing about my head is that it constantly changes; no one has any idea, including myself, which way I am going until the last minute.

My conversation with the Family last night really opened my eyes! They did not really appoint you to sit by my side and assist me. No Sir! You told them you thought you could fill in the holes left in the conversations. Now this kills me! You attempted to find your way in without investing one cent. I want you to know I "smelled" it but kept everything close. Even my closest allies had no idea what was going on.

I just watched until the critical mistake was made (I knew you would make it, but when?). Sure enough, you spoiled me with lavish compliments despite the fact that I'm not good at receiving them. Consequently, it did not work! Then the bullshit began, and even though I am full of blarney, I know it when I see it. So, you made your weak attempt, and it was amateurish.

I had friends fighting with me to bite the bait. However, there is a big difference between me and them, because I know this game better than mostly everyone. No one is going to get hurt with me. I will not allow it. Correction: I may get hurt, but not anyone else. I can handle it better. Just think...the pats on the back and the assigned "Hero" title.

Wow, how wonderful! While you were sitting next to me and telling me what a wonderful job you did, it seemed perhaps you might question yourself. What did you do? You sat and watched me, while it was apparent my Team should have been there, not you. They are far more efficient.

As I told the family last night, not one person picked up his bank book and wrote me a check from Asia! Not one, although I understood why and accepted it. Then I did everything myself. However, in truth, who in this world could actually finance it other than the Family and the Accounts? They did the job they wished to do so many years ago until the Bretton Woods Agreement was signed which literally tore up most of the world allowing the West to literally steal countries blind! What did any of you do about this? NOTHING! Now, I want you to know how I see it, as I am putting it right out in the open for everyone to see your thinking. It appeared on the surface that you did a fantastic thing writing so nicely about me, when in fact, you were attempting to sneak into the hen house. Now let me answer your questions:

- 1). You never assisted me. Jo and Nelu and the rest of the team did.*
- 2). You are always in the way. I knew from the beginning that you were waiting for the opportunity, and I played along. I have seen this game many times in my lifetime and have never fallen for it. There is an old saying... "First time shame on you; second time shame on me".*

Therefore, after going through a needless operation that was going to come my way sooner rather than later, I've come to my conclusion...which is the only one that matters, according to the Family. It is as follows:

- 1). You are totally inadequate to assist me, especially now.*
- 2). There is not a blessed thing you can do to make anything better for me.*

Your attempt at tossing a wrench into all my vested capital and work shows me that you are just another "wannabe", and that is never acceptable to me. Fox gets caught before he begins. No damage done. Time to celebrate!

After reviewing the above following last night's conversation in my mind, I hereby strongly advise you not to come near our operations ever again! I will forward a copy of this to the Family. I have my trusted advisor, and that is M2 who is so much better and tougher than you can possibly imagine, and that's just the "feminine side"!

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Asian Insider Sends Regards From Geneva – Where He Is Part Of The UN

August 13, 2016

“There is no question that Neil was astute in his laying of the trap that caught me. I had no intention of interfering with Neil – but I was not given any real chance to. Who can speculate as to what may have eventuated had I been able to stay in play a bit longer?

I sensed he knew something was up from the beginning, whilst I was sitting in that chair in the room with Neil and the Prince. I espoused to the meeting how I was with the Dragon Family (although it was actually the UN).

My actual mandate was to observe Neil's activities and this did not have any particular intended outcome. From the instructions I was operating under there was never any mention of derailing the cause. It was for the best that Neil let me go as he did, to remove any doubt about who and what I am.

It should be relayed to you all that Neil and The Keenan Group work together very nicely as a team. In my humble opinion, once Neil returns to Asia his Group will enjoy great success and the Global Collateral Accounts will be opened and deployed.

Even Ban-Ki-moon says it is irreversible. Neil is a terror and catches us at every turn. His mind operates so quickly it is as though as you draw near to catching up with him, one finds that he has amended his course and you have no idea where he is heading.

I sincerely doubt anyone will catch up to Neil Keenan and his team to any detrimental effect. All anyone can do is hope to delay him but once he is on the move, I have an inclination that all hell is going to break loose.

In closing, I genuinely do wish Neil and Team the greatest of luck on their mission. It is known to us that there is more going on behind the scenes than is ever made public and so they do not receive the recognition that they deserve, nor did we ever get access to the information that we coveted.

Regards and so long.

NFK Update: Keenan And Group K To The Rescue

Let's Kick the Garbage Out to The Curb

Apologies are extended to those that might not have gotten things straight without this preface.

Initially I was under the assumption that we had nailed the former Sri Lankan President and Japanese Gold buyers (as well as government) in an attempted theft of 20 thousand metric tons of gold.

Japan's Prime Minister Shinzo Abe shakes hands with Sri Lankan President Mahinda Rajapaksa.

As things turned out it was not an attempted theft, it was a theft already cemented – and 4 years prior. The rest of the detail follows and I cannot wait to review the audit of all accounts and put those responsible away where they belong.

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

As one can see nowadays these shenanigans are rampant among the politicians and Banksters. Hell is too nice a place for them so let's find a place more fitting for them NOW.

I will request arrest warrants from the UN and ruffle their feathers seeing that they are not worthy of being referenced as real men or real women. We will straighten this crap out and send them all back to where they came from.

It is in our hands now, not their hands. They will be at our mercy and no longer vice versa.

*P.S. Karen Hudes bought a gun. Ha ha, I guess she knows what she has done and what she deserves. And hell, she is a big enough target. Neil Keenan

The Details

Ali Baba is alive and well... attempting to relieve the East of its Gold! Most recently, the "Ali Baba role" has been played on various occasions by Jeb Bush, Ban Ki-moon, Obama, and many others who are desperately trying their utmost best to steal and build up their Gold chests/coffers under myriad guises cloaked in deception.

They intend to collapse the US Dollar and still control the world's finances.

If you live in Asia, you see and understand when Westerners appear almost everywhere looking (unlawfully) for precious metals and other riches. Lately, more often than not, they're told to take a hike and leave the country immediately!

This is to also say that the East likes honest, respectful Americans, but strongly dislikes those who misrepresent themselves or try to hide their underhanded, illegal ways that do great harm to many good people and their countries as well as the world's economy. In light of all of this, Neil Keenan and Group K have altered their way of doing business in the East, building honorable business relationships as well as in creating an impressive resume on their way to opening the Global Accounts.

Most recently, Neil received illuminating phone calls and detailed information relating to a 2012 illegal Gold transaction between Sri Lanka and Japan. Because it is directly related to the Global Accounts, Neil and Group K have now come to the rescue!

Upon further investigation and our decisive action in verifying said research, we discovered that the Global Accounts were indeed tampered with in 2012 and Assets were stolen by the following:

- ▶ Japan, Sri Lanka, Credit Suisse Securities Limited.
- ▶ Japuga Holding Company, Limited.
- ▶ Mr. Keji Matsumura, Corporate Advisor of Japuga Holding Company, Limited In Japan.
- ▶ Mr. Rajagopal Kartheepan, Mr. Reiji Onizawa (Credit Suisse Securities (Japan) Limited.
- ▶ Director -Global Foreign Exchange Sales.
- ▶ Sri Lankan Former President Mahinda Rajapakse.

The above mentioned are known to have participated along with others (both known and unknown) in the theft of 20,000 MT of Gold from the Global Accounts, belonging to DEPOSITOR (owner) Dragon Family, being held in the bunkers of Sri Lanka under the protection of the former President of Sri Lanka, Mahinda Rajapakse, who at that time was the HOLDER of said assets (Not the owner).

Here is the key information about what happened at that time:

- ▶ 1). The Japanese Japuga Holding Company Limited (Co-Director Mrs. Uwataki Tamae) made payment for 20,000 MT of Gold through HSBC Bank.
- ▶ 2). Credit Suisse Securities Limited appointed Japuga as MANDATES for this knowing illegal transaction.
- ▶ 3). Mr. Keiji Matsumura Corporate Advisor of Japuga Holding Company, Limited in Japan was appointed to proceed with this metal transaction.

(Contact numbers kept private and for authorities only.)
- ▶ 6.) SRI LANKAN ILLEGAL SELLER DETAILS:
Sri Lankan ex-President Mahinda Rajapakse (HOLDER of the Gold Accounts on behalf of the DEPOSITORS – the Dragon Family) did sell said Gold to Japuga Holding Company, Limited and delivery took place in 2012 to, Japan to Credit Suisse Securities, Mr. Reiji Onizawa, of 20 Thousand Metric Tons; thus, completing this illegal transaction.

The seller received payment which was, and most likely still is, located in the Central Bank of Sri Lanka.

To reiterate: Not anyone other than the former Sri Lankan President and a few others have received any payments at all! What was earmarked for Humanitarian Packages ended up in the hands of a few greedy Globalists. Consequently, a full audit is being immediately commenced in Sri Lanka.

Without delay a fully-fledged transparent, ongoing investigation is required following the incriminating lead and fact-filled documents in our hands substantiating the above evidence as having taken place along with uncovering in great detail each and every participant's role.

Unfortunately, what you will find is that this conspiracy extends to the West – right back into the hands of more Globalists! What we need to strongly emphasize to governments, which are actually corporations, as well as to the Globalist banks, et cetera, is that THEY WILL NO LONGER BE TOLERATED!

In addition, through very specific auditing of said Bunkers/Accounts, they will be publicly exposed, tried, and sent to jail for very long terms. Those listed above are all part of a heinous conspiracy to defraud, not only the DEPOSITORS, the Dragon Family, but also the People on this planet.

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Again, those names that are included in this article are all involved in the theft of 20 Thousand Metric Tons of Gold which was designated for Humanity Packages Programs.

Former President Mahinda Rajapakse, the Holder and the SELLER, betrayed not only the Global Accounts and the Dragon Family, but he also deceived his very own people and his country – who did not receive one cent, despite the funds being deposited in the Sri Lankan Central Bank.

The Sri Lankan people thought the assets belonged to the National Treasury for the well-being of their country. Whichever way you look at it, a huge theft took place with impunity (however, that will change very soon!)

Furthermore, the former President turned his back on any and all aides who assisted him in this transaction, thus making the theft complete. His crony, the current President of Sri Lanka, is also hereby implicated in this matter and should not be allowed to escape justice.

To be clear, we say once again (although it cannot be said too often to these crooks): Auditing is being undertaken, and you have nowhere to go or hide! To all “Ali Babas”: There are no “Open Sesames” here! There are NO escape routes! We’re coming for you!

Be advised that Justice will have its way sooner rather than later, although it can’t happen soon enough.

The planet’s patience is at an end.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | The United Nations Invites Neil Keenan To Discuss Financing, New Technologies & The Global Collateral Accounts

September 1, 2016

Group K recently received a message inviting Neil to the United Nations to discuss financing, new technologies, and the Global Collateral Accounts. The UN is awaiting Neil's decision as to whether he will accept the invitation or not.

As we all know, Neil does not acknowledge the UN as being either a legal nor a lawful organization; rather it is just another cabal-run corporation.

He believes the East will set things up better in a much more solid and robust manner for the people of our planet.

Neil states that the only circumstances under which he would accept such an invitation, would be because the UN had accepted his demands for the majority of seats on the particular UN committee; thereby establishing Neil's credence that the Golden Rule applies: "He who has the gold makes the rules".

Another prerequisite would be that the numerous aggressive corporations imposing themselves as governments stand down, as Neil and Group K finances the deployment of new technologies from the Global Collateral Accounts worldwide; thereby alleviating the burdens of poverty-stricken people everywhere.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Neil also states that the first couple of Accounts opened will go immediately into backing new technologies, towards the immediate halting of chemtrail spraying, geoengineering and the dissemination of any other environmental poisons including weaponized food, vaccines and GMO's etc.

Funding will also be directed towards the eradication of homelessness, and into the provisioning of proper healthcare, clean drinking water, safe food and the taking care of military veterans.

Finally, Neil would demand UN worldwide immunity in relation to all matters pertaining to himself and anyone representing his team.

If the UN were to agree to the above terms, then Neil would fly to the United Nations with his attorneys, and M2 to work things out. Of course, the likelihood of a cabal-run operation such as the UN agreeing to such terms is negligible.

Neil requires no meeting with the United Nations in order to accomplish that which he has stated he would do all along.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Important Note Regarding Neil's UN Invitation

September 7, 2016

The response to Neil Keenan's invitation to the U.N. is detailed below, along with some notes on recent attempts by cabal underlings and divisive trolls to once again hamper the efforts of Neil and Group K.

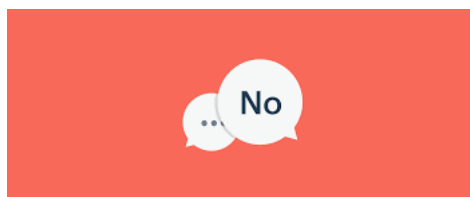

It is this simple: Neil and Group K have invested far too much in their efforts to waste time dealing with detractors at this point.

What information Neil makes available is voluntary, but there are those who seem to have a sense of entitlement with regards to access to certain details that is completely unfounded.

"On 9/2/2016 A Keenan Team call was made on behalf of Neil Keenan answering the UN's request for Neil's recent invitation date and subsequent confirmation, if at all. The UN was advised that Neil had no intention at this time to go anywhere other than to Indonesia for the completion of his own pending deals in Jakarta and other Asian countries.

The conversation lasted for 20-25 minutes without regard to anyone else other than Neil, the Dragon Family & Group K.

Consequently, there is no official date set at this time with the UN. Of course, Neil can change this at any time if or when he chooses to do so.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | End Of The Line

NFK Update: End Of The Line

We do not mean the End of the Line for us, but, rather, for the infamous Cabal. We realize they are desperate, because the end is coming. However, there is still time for them to raise havoc and chaos in a last gasp effort to delay things.

Should Group K finish with acquiring the New Technologies and also opening the Global Accounts, then tremendous changes will begin to take place on this planet that favor We the People.

The Globalists will find themselves flat on their asses trying frantically to make sweetheart deals wherever and whenever possible, but to no avail.

Meanwhile, the Khazarians / Zionists / NWO / Globalists are sitting in a pressure cooker, not knowing which way to turn. Remember, "Desperate people do desperate things"!

Below is our update, and it applies to now, this time, this moment. We are pushing overtime to make it happen for us all, but all need to lend a hand as well wherever they can.

After publicly revealing the new technology healing computer, we have received so many inquiries that it has made us realize there are a lot of people needing help. Also, it has become most apparent that the best and perhaps only way to heal properly is by way of such a computer/machine.

Yet, as the weeks have moved on and after so many requests, we realized we need a database to record when people would be in a position to place orders for and be able to travel to receive the machines. This will add to efficiency in processing so many requests.

Due to high production costs the machines are currently expensive. We understand that many are waiting for the RV's and other significant things to happen before they are able to make their purchase; many will never make it safely to this time – the RV's are still up in the air in terms of timing.

This pushed me into looking back with 20/20 hindsight and realizing that we should not be focusing solely on individuals to make a purchase, but more so on groups.

Consequently, our revised plan is to get these machines out to as many as we can, as fast as we can. Later when we secure the Global Accounts, we will open healing centers worldwide accordingly, for people to heal with the machines. If you are on the list for purchasing, you will get your computer, providing you can request to have it on a certain date. However, it cannot be an indefinite wait.

BHUMIBOL ADULYADEJ (5 December 1927 - 2016) is the King of Thailand

Regarding other news of interest, it appears that 1 Million Metric Tons of gold has been sold by the King of Thailand. How or why he would sell something that does not really belong to him warrants immediate auditing. The Dragon Family should dispatch Sister to said location and / or acquire the AU registration numbers and research just how much of that gold belongs to the Family itself.

Furthermore, President Park of South Korea has ordered the military to take over a bunker that she does not own. It is time for the Dragon Family to come forth immediately and stand fast in recovering and taking over their own assets. Then they need to leave these fake governments to deal with their own life and death situations by themselves. If Sister were appointed to audit said Accounts, no stone would remain unturned. Then everything will be returned to the Depositors, as it should have been done a long time ago (before the West could literally steal the East blind).

The Elders have been watching over many bunkers throughout Asia for a long while without being compensated one cent for their long, hard, and dangerous work; the Elders have to eat as well! This, too, needs to be rectified in an honorable way.

Philippine President Duterte is right in his condemnation of Obama! What did he say that was so wrong about the "Little O" (nothing big about him) that most Asians are not well aware of? The entire East laughs at the 'presidential' puppet who licks George Soros' boots. Then again don't think Soros is normal seeing he licks between Rothchild's toes.

The entire clan is perverted, twisted and corrupt and it is time we bang down their doors. Putin has it right on Soros – dead or alive.

At this crucial time Group K is making significant strategic changes in order to immediately move forward. We are even more clear about the next steps to take, as well as who is really on board for the final push to the finish line. Mark Thomas and the Lords of Light are going to be very instrumental at this time in advancing Group K in the important cause of the New Technologies.

As for entitlement, I want to make it clear that those of you who actually believe the Eastern Assets are yours that it is best to give your head a shake. For nearly one hundred years the West has stolen the Eastern Assets. How do you think the West got their money? There should've never been a Marshall Plan when the Plan was broke.

The Asian Marshall Plan and Federal Reserve Bank Plan

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

They used FRN's in the Global Accounts to rebuild their allies – all of which belonged as payment to the Eastern Dragon Family Depositors. The doors can be blocked now to all. This is what is happening to the Khazarian asses that have run our Western countries for the longest of time. Precisely because the money they stole belonged to the East, they're now broke and are doing their best to hide the fact.

We cannot wait for people any longer. The new technologies have to be released and put into the right hands. It seems that many are unable to move accordingly or are unwilling to help themselves while passively waiting on us to do it all for them. They call this “having a sense of entitlement”.

Therefore, I am moving in a new direction that will enable things to open up for us in the very near future. I waited 6 long months while sick and waiting any longer is not an option. If I am to pass on it will not be while watching television, but fighting. Do not give up your guns to the UN or anyone like them. They are all the same and want you dead. Group together and fight. Don't roll over and play dead. Know who the enemy is, target it and get it. This will end the charade quickly.

I keep receiving messages for Group K and me to hurry, because other people cannot wait any longer. Let me be the one to issue this message to you, “Hurry, the world cannot wait any longer! It needs help now!” Do whatever you can to make a difference. So, again, this is the main reason why I'm shifting gears now and moving forward in a fresh, new direction, especially since we did not receive the help, we requested in the way we needed it most.

Rest assured however that we are not giving up on anything knowing that once the accounts are opened, everything changes quickly, and the end comes clearly into sight. New technologies are now the best way to go, and Group K will soon find the means to get these out there as fast as possible for the benefit of humanity and Earth.

Free energy is next. Just you wait and see!

As for now I am working on acquiring the funds necessary to finish up the Global Assets. Thank you to all who have contributed thus far.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Stupid Is As Stupid Does– Forrest Gump

September 13, 2016

Karen Hudes is at it again with gross stupidity and disinformation.

In her latest interview she is telling everyone that the original Bretton Woods Agreement has now expired and that all the gold that was put on deposit in the Global Collateral Accounts is now the property of the People of the World – due to the Statute of Limitations being 50 years with no claims against these deposits.

Hudes claimed that Marcos, being a lawyer, arranged the agreement as such and that the gold came from Jose Rizal, a Philippine Ambassador to the Vatican; who is supposedly related to the old Queen of England.

Let's get a bit of history correct to begin with.

Marcos was never M1, but he did negotiate with the Asian Elders to finance the reconstruction and world development after WW2 as detailed in the Bretton Woods Agreement.

The Elders individually placed gold on deposit with the Bank for International Settlements (BIS) and they are the legal individual OWNERS of these accounts and deposits – but have been repeatedly denied access to their accounts, or use thereof, since the time of their initial deposits (WHICH IS GROSS FRAUD).

These original depositors are clearly identified in official records held by the BIS and the Elder's Depositors (now also with Neil Keenan).

At no time whatsoever have the OWNER Depositors ever relinquished their claims to their assets on deposit, but have repeatedly tried to secure them for proper use for the benefit of mankind as originally intended.

There never has been an issue of abandonment of claim and any possibility of invoking a Statute of Limitations on said accounts.

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Any attempt to do so is fraudulent and a gross theft which is the current foundation of legal suits that Neil Keenan is preparing against all those involved, past and present: Ms. Karen Hudes included.

In its simplicity, if you put your money in a bank, you expect the bank to return your deposit on your demand.

If the bank refuses to give you your money back, it is theft and a fraudulent act punishable by LAW.

Karen clearly understands THE RULE OF LAW. She just doesn't seem to understand that it applies to HER and the UN / IMF in trying to steal the Global Collateral Accounts for themselves.

Who were the Depositors and OWNERS of these accounts in the BIS?

It is estimated that 80% of the original Depositors were from the Asian Elders (Golden Dragon Family) and the remainder from Western Royalty and Rothschild banker elites. Jose Rizal came into the picture as he was trying to recover gold that the Philippine government had deposited with the Vatican prior to WW2 for safekeeping but which the Vatican refused (still to date) to return to the Philippine people.

Jose then tried to tie the Philippine gold to the Bretton Woods Agreement but it is still unclear as to whether or not the Vatican (Rothschild bankers) ever released funds to the BIS.

Certainly, Jose and Marcos never had any legal authority over the deposits made individually by various authorized Asian Elders.

Ultimately it is the BIS, it's officers past and present, and anyone, bank or financial institution – that participated in this fraudulent use and abuse of the Global Collateral Accounts – that will be the ones held liable and subjected to the full force of the Rule of Law.

Neil Keenan has already assembled a large legal team to handle these matters, which is going to clear up this gross injustice and fraudulent mess.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

This legal action will take place as all the original evidence is now available and the Elders are entrusting Neil Keenan with the legal authority as M1 to proceed with the reclaiming of these assets.

And anyone who gets in the way will be steamrolled.

Now that the original documents and certified copies are in the hands of Neil's legal team, there are now 100+ "Neil's" should anything happen to the original Neil.

The Cabal cannot get them all so guys – put your hands UP! Higher! You're DONE.

Stupid is as stupid does: Karen.

There is no corporate entity such as the UN or IMF which has any legal authority to claim assets of any individual – or to appoint anyone to make such claim as having authority by way of a mandate or appointed Trusteeship, granted by any Board of Directors or Financial Advisory made up of Finance Ministers of various countries.

A Non-Party has no legal authority or Standing in this matter as it is a legal contract between the Depositors and BIS ONLY.

As a lawyer and legal adviser, you should be clearly aware of your gross negligence in advising your clients in proceeding in this manner; which has the potential for making them all LEGALLY LIABLE, particularly because sticking their fingers in this pie is a FRAUDULENT ACT.

STUPID IS AS STUPID DOES!

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | On Our Way Home

NFK Update: On Our Way Home

How mightily things have changed over the years. It is quite amazing what one lawsuit did to challenge, and begin a series of events that will ultimately change, the structure of our society; for the better.

As Benjamin Fulford said, "The Neil Keenan Trillion Dollar Lawsuit will ultimately be the downfall of Western Financial Tyranny". And believe it or not, he just might have been spot on!

The day that law suit was filed was the day the Cabal was doomed. It not only opened up the door for Neil's further legal action, but it was a huge and fundamental step forward for the sake of everyone else as well. This was the shot heard around the world! Thanks to so many Patriots and fed-up people, the Cabal has been in the process of being dismantled day by day for years right up to today... where they now are at their breaking point.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Neil's concern has always been to get things efficiently opened up to make it easier for you the people, and he has made a courageous, concerted effort to do just this. When we say 'the people', we mean the people living on this planet, not just in some isolated region.

Neil has also been putting groups and professional teams together for years, because he knew the time would arrive when they would be needed. That time is much closer than ever before. Unfortunately, despite preliminary enthusiastic rhetoric, the Foundation that set up the online donation facility to help get things to the finish line hardly even left the starting gate, and it caused even more delays.

So, Neil is now "taking the bull by the horns" and, despite being ill, is doing things himself once again by his own rules. No matter what. Neil is not going to let this "golden" opportunity slip away for the planet.

He remains relentless in going for the gusto while throwing unnecessary caution to the winds. To hell with hesitations and set-backs. Nothing is worse for Neil than waiting and watching others make false claims to what he knows is his, as designated by the Family to fulfill. In the meantime, this long-extended wait is tearing him apart.

As Neil says, "It belongs to us; no one else. The Depositors are solidly with us, and without the Depositors' approval, the ongoing, blatant attempts at stealing the GCA is what the West has done for over a hundred years."

According to Neil, payback is going to be (more than) a bitch. Having succeeded in business for many years, he knows what must be done, and he will do whatever it takes. There is no such word in his vocabulary as “failure”. Will he have enough to make it? I'll place my bet-on Neil!

In addition, some of Neil's friends and associates are manufacturing and deploying even more new medical (and other extremely advanced) technologies. These are being moved into place at this very moment. You will hear more about this in the video.

Then, too, Neil has his usual brilliant team, Group K (second to none) faithfully working hand in hand with him. Adding his brilliant expertise to the mix, M2 continues to assist Neil throughout this unfolding labyrinth.

In the meantime, let's pray for the best outcome on behalf of all the people... Neil says once this is over with, he is returning home.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | UPDATED: Iraqi Dinar RV On Hold

October 8, 2016

News from the Family shared with Neil states that the Global Currency Reset should be ready this coming week, or soon after. The Dinars be first with the ZIM's following shortly afterwards.

The International Monetary Fund has already been handled by the Family. They have three people inside the IMF and they are now running the IMF. Christine Lagarde is only the front person.

Further updates will be published as they come to hand.

Early morning Eastern European time Neil received a message pertinent to what many of us have been waiting for and wondering why nothing has happened yet.

It seems that Cabal flunkies such as the Clinton and Bush families, ranking politicians and other associated underlings were planning to exchange notes that were fresh ones, not older ones.

These new notes were not registered – and this ‘arrangement’ was only between the Cabal and the Iraqi Central Bank. You were to be screwed. [The detail of this statement has been corrected from yesterday's original post at the direction of the Family].

These minions also requested to receive the higher monetized notes for themselves, leaving only the bare minimum for those who follow behind them in the redemption process.

In other words, you (holders of RV-relevant currencies) were going to get shit! The Golden Dragon Family caught these criminals out long before they had the opportunity to action this; by checking and confirming the registration numbers of all dollars and dinars – only to identify the dollars as being fake.

This is the exact same procedure Neil has described with regard to their attempts to purchase gold in Southeast Asia.

Fake dollars-worth nothing in terms of real metal (Au).

These Cabal operatives may now consider themselves busted given that the Dragons have henceforth excluded them from participating any further in the redemption. Furthermore, the Dragon Family have now replaced all Iraqi Central Bankers with notable and honorable ones.

As for the Zimbabwe notes, they remain on course. We are told that developments with respect to the Dinar situation will take place soon.

This is the information and detail we have to share in its entirety and so kindly refrain from bombarding us with questions. Please refer any further questions to your local politicians who have their hands in the till.

As soon as updates come to Neil, we will publish them.

All the best,

Neil Keenan & Group K

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | The Report Of My Death Has Been Greatly Exaggerated

October 11, 2016

I am sorry to learn that Ben Fulford says I am dead. I just checked myself, and everything seems to be in place; I went to the toilet and everything worked just fine.

I even checked Ben's emails and Skype messages to see if he actually sent me any. To be frank, I did not receive anything from him, so I am not sure what emails he is talking about. Then again, according to Ben, I am "dead" so why should I be so concerned?

I will tell you why. I am concerned, because I have so many people that I care about, and I cannot go anywhere until I complete what I started.

I am concerned, because I have so many dear friends that would be heartbroken should something happen to me. I am concerned, because damn it, I do not want to lose the person I love nor my son... Thaass why!

I want to enjoy everything we have accomplished after this is over with and begin to really live again. Finally, I want to see the Cabal turn over their sword to us, so count on me staying for a while. Perhaps here is where Ben might have gone astray.

The Continuous Clinton Threats

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Recently, the Clintons did seriously threaten us. As a result, I did contact one of their hit men here in Europe and was told that Ben was going first and then myself.

There were a couple of attempts in the past couple of months to eliminate me, and in both instances, I dealt with things pretty well.

First my toe was severely damaged about 2 months ago and then my leg was nearly broken. It seemed as though everything was getting torn up.

Finally, the poison packs started opening in my body, which tore me up during the past two weeks or so. Now Benjamin says that I'm dead. Well, if I'm dead, I'm doing a great job of looking alive! I realize I often keep things to myself pretty much, but when it comes to this matter, I must respond.

After Ben manufactured this, he went on further to erroneously say that we are working with the Rockefellers (like Hell, not in this lifetime!), and that the Zimbabwe notes are not real.

I want to emphasize the deal with the Dinars and Zims is VERY real, and I have no interest in it at all other than to help get the information out to my friends.

Finally, I don't know what I can do to prove I am alive other than to do the Irish Jig with you all... hahahahaha. Just take care and do not fall for anything.

This is getting near the end and we will hear all kinds of things. I am already out there attempting to get the financing so I can get into the Accounts and will continue to do so until I drop.

All the Best, Neil Keenan

P.S. Ben must have had a lot of whiskey before writing his latest post. When Ben drinks, he can't see anything anyway...

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Outcast Asian Insider Offers His Assistance

October 12, 2016

The following was submitted to us by the person known as "The Asian Insider" (#1). He makes some valid points and so we are sharing them here.

"Sorry for bothering you again, but I feel compelled to impart some important observations. Although I attempted to assist Mr. Keenan in my last communication, he decided it was time to expel me, and given full consideration of the facts, this was a pertinent move on his part.

Unfortunately, in the past we often did not always concur on policies nor approach, which I regret. Upon reading the latest post from Benjamin Fulford, it sent a jolt up and down my spine. Despite the fact that this report was a fabrication, it immediately reiterated to the entire Dragon Family that should anything happen to Neil Keenan, the entire Global Collateral Account project falls apart.

In many respects, I admire Mr. Keenan and Group K for what they have already so admirably achieved in taking on this monumental battle, on behalf of the Dragon Family; the securing of the Global Collateral Accounts, as well as their work towards enabling humanitarian initiatives.

And so, I would be most grateful if you would once again allow me an opportunity to humbly offer my observations by way of an update. The many endeavors undertaken by Mr. Keenan and his Keenan Group have been followed 'keenly' from my vantage point here in Beijing. I observe the situation very clearly. Admittedly, I am privy to information and sources of a somewhat elevated vantage point.

With respect to the Global Collateral Accounts, understand that the Golden Dragons control the vast majority of the Assets involved; because they are the Depositors. By way of the Family's explicit approval, Neil Keenan continues to be in charge of the Accounts after protecting them for more than 7 years at his own great personal cost. Anyone else making any claim to the same role is definitively – a flat out liar.

I admire Mr. Keenan and the Keenan Group for what they do, especially when speaking of using the GCA as an initiator towards financial restructuring, to assist the world's disenfranchised populace with free energy and other very advanced technologies; such as healing systems, water purification methods, better schooling; and care for the vulnerable persons of our societies such as the homeless, military veterans, our children, and the elderly.

Pivotal documentation and legal agreements lay in wait for the return of Mr. Keenan in person – but he will first have said paperwork further detailed and rewritten before executing by way of his signature. Fortunately, it seems no one is in a hurry to do this. This has been a protracted process and it is no easy task. It is important to remain cognizant of the point that this role – with its enormous responsibility – has only ever beforehand been occupied by one person: President Soekarno of Indonesia.

Following talks with the many Elders, and once the revised documents are signed, the Global Collateral Accounts will finally be opened for humanitarian purposes. Mr. Keenan has nearly everyone (especially all those who have aided him over the past seven years) in position and ready to commence work.

From Asia we watch this man very closely, not because we do not trust him, heavens no, but because on several occasions, he has nearly left us much too early. Recently he was an inpatient at a local clinic with body pains, headaches, a high fever and he was hardly able to move, only to discover that his body had been poisoned once again.

From what I understand, there were 14 miniature ‘poison packets’ placed within his body with programmed time-releases, that were surreptitiously placed to be ingested into in his body while eating food in Indonesia. The remaining packets have begun to release now.

Although this new healing machine seemed to destroy 11 of them with only one treatment, it is possible the other 3 have burst into Neil’s system with a raging violence during the past 3 or 4 days – and Neil is not currently within the vicinity of a healing computer.

Neil must recover completely and push onward, and if not, the Global Collateral Accounts would not be opened at all. The Family would turn their heads and refuse any and all requests in the event that Neil were to move on or pass on.

Neil should have returned to Asia before any of this happened. I understand that bank accounts were interfered with in every way imaginable. Deposits were flat out stolen, frozen and transfers were blocked and even returned for “security reasons.”

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Nevertheless, this man forges ahead. In addition to the GCA mission Mr. Keenan has taken on another project in parallel; the deployment of very advanced technologies; because the fight for our freedom is a multi-faceted endeavor.

I have spoken with two or three major groups that would support the entire matter – regardless of cost, but they also want to have outright control in making the currency transactions throughout the world as well.

Mr. Keenan has already made his position clear in that there is no room at the very top for subversive agendas – we, all of us can stand as witnesses to the predicament in which we find ourselves due to such upper level manipulations.

This is not his ego espousing this, but as Neil has previously said to us in Jakarta, “I am not going to bring anyone into this who believes for one second that they are going to run this show for a few dollars. There is a plan, and the plan will be enacted step by step”.

I agree with Neil on this point; he is right, because he is the only one along with his team who has courageously walked the walk above and beyond talking the talk! If the right donors with means soon come forth, this all could be rapidly completed; nevertheless if no one moves it could be later.

Neil has told others, and I confirm he is planning on doing this, that he is going to source the funds himself even if he has to negotiate specific deals to that effect.

My considerations are offered with respect,

“The Asian Insider”

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Globalist's Desperation, Health And Wellness & The End Of Big Pharma

NFK Update: Globalist's Desperation, Health And Wellness & The End Of Big Pharma

Desperation has made many turn their heads in terms of what is right and wrong, and in this case as to who the Depositors are – and who the Depositors are not. Many are attempting to work out deals among themselves, despite not owning the certain assets in question – and this is the Breaking News today.

Desperate people are doing desperate things – with assets that they have no claim to ownership of whatsoever!

Najib Razak

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Malaysian Prime Minister Najib Razak finds himself in the limelight once again along with everybody's best friend Alfredo Saurin, the Thai [Corporate] Government, the US Federal Reserve [Corporate] Chairperson Janet Yellen and also the Bank of England.

BANK OF ENGLAND

They are all either desperate to keep their Agendas alive or they are just plain greedy and willingly ignorant of what those assets were intended to be used for.

Most certainly the East did not deposit their wealth into the Global Collateral Accounts so that the corrupt Globalists could continue to destroy the planet with their vaccinations, geoengineering / chemtrails, manufactured wars, HAARP attacks, banking bail-outs / bail-ins, weather warfare and many other things.

Their desperation is so obvious and visceral you realize that it is the Clinton's who are literally murdering anybody they fear might make a significant statement against them. The madmen are running the asylum. This is why no one respects the US. And we have allowed it.

Now it is time to change our program and kick the Cabal and their underlings the hell out and whatever happens to them, happens. It is of their own doing.

Najib Razak, this time will need to answer to his own people as he has been deceiving them for what seems like forever. Malaysia deserves much better than Najib, who is no more than a common thief.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

The others involved should be picked up and tried in their own countries. When you read further in this preface you will discover that what they are attempting to do without even the Depositors knowledge is treacherous.

Janet Yellen

The size of this financial package is staggering but we will get to this in due course. The 1 Million MT of Gold (Yes – One Million Metric Tons of Gold) deal seems to have come together and Najib and Sauren have already flown off to meet with Yellen to sell the Golden Dragon Family's gold for new US FIAT currency. Busted!

All commission agreements have now been worked out.

It seems all that is required is for the FED and the Bank of England to sign off, which has apparently happened given that Najib has already flown the coop.

Governor of the Bank of England, Mark Carney (Ex-Governor of the Bank of Canada)

The twist here is that Alfredo Saurin is accompanying Najim on this trip which means he is brokering this deal.

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

This would be logical as both parties have been putting together the deal with Malaysian Authorities for quite a while, with one side having connections with the Thai supplier of the Gold (the King has passed on and his son and or military are running the country so this would make more sense as the King never allowed the Gold to leave Thailand) and with Saurin writing up the Gold Certificates in Hong Kong.

These characters all are in this to enrich themselves, to steal assets belonging to the Depositors (The Golden Dragon Family), and to split up approximately 3 Trillion USD in payouts...

Let me share with you the numbers:

Gold USD: 50,000 Kg x 1,000,000,000 Kgs = USD 50,000 000,000,000 (Trillion)

Gold Certificates made by Alfredo Sauren in Hong Kong x 20 = USD 1,000,000,000,000,000 (1 Quadrillion USD)

In USD Federal Collateralized New Fiat Issues – 20+x=20 Quadrillion USD or more as FED notes are collateralized globally x 20 again.

Yup, Yup and Yup: Everyone gets a Billion Dollar or a Trillion Dollar Commission!
And get this: Not one bar is owned by those selling them!

What a hoot eh?

And more filthy, worthless FIAT FED USD currency spilled everywhere once again, right where we left this monster off...

- ▶ Japanese (Kamiya) is looking to purchase Gold in Korea at this time. He represents Japan.
- ▶ Korea is holding Golden Dragon Family Gold.
- ▶ Again, Japan attempts to steal someone's gold and Korea looks to sell it knowing it is not theirs
- ▶ Next in line is Indonesia and now their top Elders are working on their sales with Swiss Banks.

I have the names of the Banks and representatives and will keep them confidential for now – but I do advise both the Banks and the Indonesian Elders in this case to proceed with extreme caution, given the established fact that neither side owns any asset involved in this transaction.

Alas, once more, Cabal crooks and their underlings are planning on selling out the Family's assets.

We are talking about Trillions and or Quadrillions of Dollars-worth of stolen Assets.

Remember the sellers and deal brokers in these illegal transactions own none of the assets concerned.

Not one party involved in these deals is legally entitled to be doing what they are doing.

The assets we speak of were intended to be used for humanitarian purposes for the people of the planet and most especially Indonesia and not for the pockets of the Cabal and their bottom-feeding minions.

In other news, after seeing so much fiat money being tossed around for Gold you must congratulate President Duterte of the Philippines for tossing out the Globalists and looking for sovereignty for the Island.

President Duterte

Congratulations Mr. President; if everyone in Asia only took your stand the world would be a better place and the Globalists would not only have one less place to hide – but no longer any place to spill their make-believe FIATs. We wish you well.

IF this treacherous deal happens the Cabal once again will take over the World's financial system, no matter what they call it.

So, they are not calling it quits and remember it is not over till the fat lady sings so we must keep on fighting and presenting opposition to them.

One further note, if America goes down all of Europe and the entire Western world goes down so pray to God, not Lucifer, that everything works in our favor.

Even the so-called 'Pope Francis' is attempting to manipulate the numb-skulled masses to convert to the belief that Lucifer is the light. This Pope-on-a-rope is yet another example of the pedophile Globalists that we have to deal with.

Do you want your children safe and your old age secure or do you want to turn over your rights and family to the clutches of the Clinton's and worse?

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

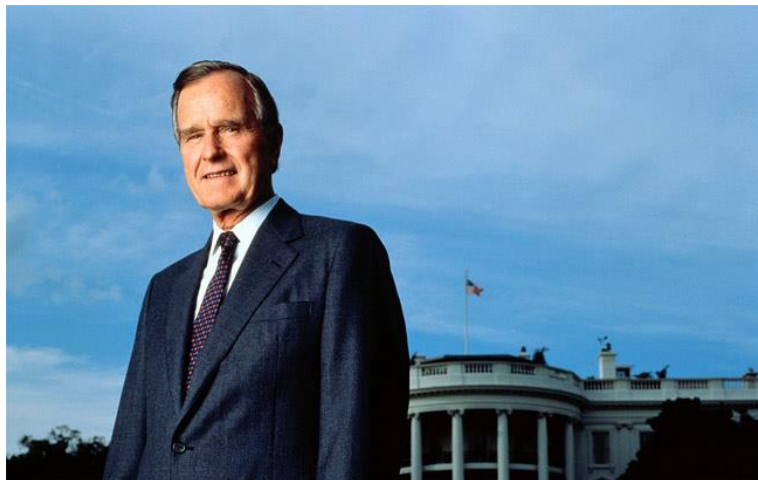

Pray for America and Trump and the world will be finally at peace.

The War Mongers, Khazarian Zionists, Nazis and others will finally be imprisoned (and) where they belong.

The Bush's and Clinton's among others will be long tucked away where we will never see them again.

Now as the saying goes, let's just do it!

"...If the American people ever find out what we have done, they would chase us down the street and lynch us." – George Herbert Walker Bush, 1992

Well George, the people have awakened and the time has almost come for you.

What a time we are living in; with these healing computers becoming available, as well as the new Free Energy technologies that are almost ready for deployment – that are quite unlike anything you may have seen or heard about thus far.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Finally, once Donald J. Trump takes office, the interference will all be over with. They will be coming for the bad guys who've been the scourge of humanity and this planet for so long.

You know who you are and you are hereby put on notice that you will be captured and brought to face justice.

Despite what you may believe right now, there's nowhere to run and nowhere to hide.

I see it oh so clearly now.
General Clement, get ready to round them up.
M2 ready to go on a wild ride?
Eyes getting any better?
If not give your head a shake! It is happening now!

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Keenan & Group K Take Down Mark Carney And Possibly The Bank Of England / English Insider Steps Forward

October 31, 2016

This message was sent to Neil by a person who wishes to remain anonymous. We shall call him 'The English Insider'.

"I understood when I began writing this that I could not use my real name. Many within the establishment are well aware of who I am and where I work. Neil Keenan and team have put that which is required on the table in order to warrant an investigation into the many major bankers involved in the "One Million Metric Tons of Gold Deal".

There is no question that this situation is indeed real as I was to have personally benefited by way of a minor commission on the transaction. I like the pseudonym "The English Insider", which felt to be fitting given the other insiders such as "The Asian Insiders" that have worked with Neil and team.

Zero Hedge and the British press have also figured out the double-speak of Mark Carney, the Governor of the Bank of England (BoE), hinting that he may step down much earlier than expected, possibly even as early as next week.

The high probability of Mark Carney's resignation is all over the mainstream media now as one can see in the examples below. This narrative is really a cover for the impending investigation:

The Telegraph: Speculation grows about Mark Carney's future at the Bank of England

The Guardian: Mark Carney may end speculation about future this week

The Daily Mail: Mark Carney could quit his Bank of England role within DAYS after his 'Project Fear' predictions were repeatedly proven wrong

The Sun: 'BANK BOSS TO RESIGN' Bank of England Governor Mark Carney could QUIT next week after fear-mongering predictions over Brexit were proven wrong

One must ask why someone in such a lofty and influential position in the banking community would relinquish such a prestigious position of employment at such a young age – unless there are extenuating circumstances such as personal, physical or fiscal issues surfacing. "I have personal circumstances which I have to manage", Mr. Carney said when asked.

Perhaps Mr. Carney is looking for a way out being that he must be well aware of an imminent investigation. Most here in England who are "in the know", are taking measures to separate themselves from the syndicate of persons referenced in the recent Keenan article.

That article in and of itself is so revealing that all involved should be well aware that there are circumstances that will lead directly toward incarceration.

The theft of one million metric tons of gold is not even mildly amusing unless you are George H.W. Bush and are "hand-wringing" hopeful this deal may go up in flames being that he is not included.

Imaginably, Donald Trump may be the proponent of such an investigation that will lead throughout Asia, Europe and the United States. It is well worth the consideration.

The recent Keenan article has created an underground uproar here in the United Kingdom and there are those who are left wondering why we would allow anyone to complete such a transaction, when it would subject the populace to a fate worse than slavery for hundreds of years.

You now have the push for the revelation of this transaction that would destroy the people on this planet. How many similar atrocious plots of such formidable gravity is it now that Keenan and team have revealed?

Perhaps you can find the hyperlinks referencing such on Keenan's internet site and recount these endeavors for yourselves. Many attempts have transpired and have been truncated – that had the intention of hi-jacking the world on the scale of a James Bond villain's lunacy. This is yet another of the numerous adventures that Group K has halted.

It surely must be a mathematical certainty that Mr. Carney is looking to flee the coop. All involved should be very nervous as they observe the conversations in play around this conspiracy. All should wonder if Mr. Carney has or will defect, with his escape made good under Police supervision until such time he reveals intimate details.

Perhaps Neil Keenan and Group K's recent searchlight shining expedition upon the Federal Reserve and the Bank of England, in a "One Million Metric Ton Gold Racket" with trillions of dollars in commissions at stake, may have hastened Mr. Carney's decision to depart in an expedient fashion. Of course, leaving before the guillotine drops is always a good idea. It is also prudent to ensure one's extended vacation is somewhere so secluded and isolated that there are no telephones nor extradition treaties.

Mark Carney

The next question is that if Mr. Carney was well aware of this Asian gold caper (as he would obviously have to be in his position as Governor of the Bank of England), then what of his comrades-in-arms at the Federal Reserve? When will "Mad Dame" Yellen accommodate the press with her unconvincing denials?

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

It is quite obvious that the Bank of England and the Federal Reserve are somewhat lacking in solid collateral backing. Without real assets of any tangible value propping up their Fiat currency, printing more Monopoly money will only lead to hyper-inflation and the demise of both the British Pound and the United States Dollar.

Consequently, it is no wonder that the establishment are hazardously desperate and willing to buy gold, even from people who do not even legally own it. Refer: The Golden Dragon Family.

Therefore, adding Malaysian Prime Minister Najib Razak into this greedy amalgamation should serve to put Southeast Asia on high alert as well. This thievery of the Dragon Family's assets has serious repercussions that must mandate the immediate attention of the Malaysian people and their government authorities.

The specialists who deal in large quantities of precious metals at government and central bank levels are all aware that such deals are brokered at sizeable discounts from the current global market prices, while the margins being split between the interested parties (personally), before closing with the institutional buyers at full market values.

Commissions paid out on one million metric tons of gold would be exceptionally large as calculated by Mr. Keenan. Can you calculate 1% of one quadrillion dollars-worth of new collateral-backed Fiat dollars as commissions (protracted vacation money)?

Mr. Carney, it seems that you may be compelled to elaborate on your "personal circumstances" that require your attendance, and in short order. Your precious Bank of England is going to be agape, split like a watermelon and whatever shall be revealed?

You are all responsible for everything wrong that is happening in this world. The colloquial "Banksters" are the source of so much that is wrong with this world. With the impending elections in the United States in the spotlight, has anyone considered "electing" Neil Keenan as the honorary Sheriff of Nottingham?

He would waste no time in rounding up and arresting the "Robbing Hoods" of England, not to mention bringing them to justice. Alas, a true hero for our not-just-fiscally chaotic and challenging times.

Thank you, Neil and Group K for halting another treasonous hustle. The times, they are indeed changing.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Mark Carney, You Can Check Out Any Time You Like, But You Can Never Leave

November 2, 2016

The following is another message for Neil Keenan from 'The English Insider';

"Whatever has happened to our Mr. Mark Carney? He was apparently all ready to resign and abscond awaiting the progenitor of all payouts from the "One Million Metric Tons of Gold Deal" (the clamps came down immediately and he was found with a packed bag – ready for immediate departure). Rather, he was ordered by the Rothschilds to stay right where he was and not to cancel his "central bankers' membership" nor to take any extended vacations.

As one might assume, once one has gained entrance to the "hallowed halls of banksterism" and swears allegiance to the "money gods", one has taken a blood oath forever, and not only pertaining to the blood of their immediate person, but also to the blood of their brethren.

Mr. Carney now has many eyes scrutinizing him after his musings became public. He may be their weakest link, and security is awfully tight while all players are facing a good, hefty jail term.

One must remember that the Rothschilds own the Bank of England, not the English people. If the transaction exposed by Mr. Keenan and team were to be concluded, whom do you think would continue to be in control of the world's financing?

Ponder upon Mr. Carney's current predicament. Such an accomplished man with "personal circumstances which I have to manage" can be forced to carry on with tasks of an unlawful, immoral and "globalist" nature that make provision for the reinvigorated financial enslavement of mankind.

Do not be too harsh on him, he may be at a moral impasse; he must be seriously aware of the ramifications of his role in this malignant fraud. His arm is being twisted and it shows that it is too much for him to bear – which is written on his face.

(Neil, perhaps you should make contact with Donald Trump, I do not believe that he would want to begin a Presidential term – without being forewarned of a catastrophic deal of this magnitude being in the works that would impact not just the United States but the entire Western world.)

It has emerged that Federal Reserve Chair Janet Yellen has been ingratiating herself with Malaysian Prime Minister Najib Razak, as their component of this now-not-so-concealed "One Million Metric Tons of Gold Deal", is still being undertaken behind closed doors.

Dr. Yellen will surely be reaping a fortune from this dirty deal too, and she will be watched closely to ascertain whether billions of US Dollars make their way to Dubai to join Hillary and Barry in their sand castle palaces.

While Mr. Najib is in the United States with Dr. Yellen and Mr. Sauren, all applicable documents have been processed, including origin free and clear, distributions of commissions, legal paperwork, approvals at the Federal Reserve and the Bank of England, the relevant Ministries and the Malaysian Bank Negara. All that remains to be completed are the seven-year tax immunities.

The broker Alfredo Sauren is the cement in this deal. Mr. Sauren brings it to life and makes it perform for the many world leaders. He has shown confirmed gold certificates to Bank Negara officials, as well as to Mr. Razak.

Mr. Sauren additionally claims to be one of the four Trustees for the Committee of 300 that handles Asia. He has been living in the Royal Compound in Bangkok (originally under the protection of the recently deceased King). Resultingly he has direct access to Thai gold. Notwithstanding, this does not mean that the gold belongs to either himself nor the Committee of 300 – but most likely to the Golden Dragons.

From my standpoint it is apparent that Najib Razak is playing both sides and will pocket as much personal gain as he can, regardless as to whomever closes the deal first. The people of the United States must arise from their slumber for it will be they who are issued the cheque to pay severely for the thievery of their corrupt leadership by way of onerous taxes and unmitigated inflation; followed by the debtors' FEMA prisons where they will get to work for almost nothing.

Remember, Mark Carney, "You can check out any time you like, but you can never leave." The spurious arrangement that is this gold deal, will consume and decimate the world financially, and otherwise – if it is not immediately circumvented.

The time is upon you Neil Keenan and Group K – to take abrupt and decisive action to stop the fraudulent leveraging of a million metric tons of gold. This request comes from within the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

"The English Insider"

Addendum: Certain circles within Indonesia have become rather quiet of late, however it is known where the muted voices hide. What those within these circles in Indonesia should be aware of is that the gold they hold will soon be worth substantially more than it is currently. Certain people should show wisdom rather than desperation."

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Let The Battle Begin

November 8, 2016

It is 'We the People' vs. The corrupt, perverted, demented establishment.

NFK Update: Let The Battle Begin

To: 'The English Insider' And the Honorable Lord Blackheath (House of Lords).

Dear Sirs:

For the past month or so, I, Neil Keenan, and Group K have actively participated in preventing from conclusion, a highly unlawful and damaging scam set in place by the players to keep the crooked Cabal alive (via the 1 Million Metric Tons of Gold deal), thereby creating dangerous setbacks for the world economy.

I am referring to the recent development of the "1 Million Metric Tons of Gold Transaction" exposed recently by way of www.neilkeenan.com.

I have watched all the players (and I mean ALL) work overtime to quickly get this done so that their Cabal compadres would not falter and lose their financial status on the World stage. It was our intention to reveal their not-so-clandestine plot before it could reach completion.

I clearly see how the 1 Million Metric Tons deal ties directly into the current US "silent coup" and how the ill-gotten gold buttresses the financial fortunes of the elite 'establishment' once again, thus keeping their position and maintaining – as well as expanding – their control of the world's financial power base.

In addition, it also means that the US election is nothing more than a façade or distraction to what they really are fighting for i.e. to maintain a stranglehold on the electorate... CONTROL!

On November 15, it is alleged that the involved parties will meet to split up the “spoils” of this unlawful gold transaction in the Malaysian Bank Negara or in the HSBC in Kuala Lumpur.

Should this happen, it is going to be extremely difficult to put the elephants back in the barn should they be let loose. Consequently, this gives the Cabal cartel an even more solid opportunity to turn things around on us for the worse.

The metastatic consequences that will be brought upon the people of the Western hemisphere will be so heavy that they will begin to parrot certain Democrats screaming, “We are going to leave the US if Donald Trump wins!” (To them we say, “Au Revoir!”).

To readers in America – should seriously consider leaving the United States if the election gets stolen for Hitler – because your country will be going straight to hell. No one will be safe, not even those closest to her, as we are now being made so acutely aware of during these final, auspicious days leading up to this crucial and far-reaching presidential election.

Imagine letting that volatile fury loose while knowing full well that she is controlled behind the scenes by so many with maniacal ideologies harmful to our own common values and democratic principles.

What would we look like when she/they got through with us?

It would be the continuation of Obama's bullshit, which means nothing to anyone of us, other than one great big fight in which we will catch and tie up the asses up of all those involved.

Do they actually believe they can win this?

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Control of the US? The world? I strongly doubt it. No one will be safe on this planet if you connect the dots between the politics and the illegal deals/corruption.

They have done all they can to prevent us from stopping them, and yet, we are still standing! We have been knocked down many times, only to get back up with even more resilience and stronger determination to win this battle for humanity.

"The English Insider"

NOW WE ARE BACK UP ONE MORE TIME BEFORE THE US ELECTION... for far more than just for another battle. This one means way too much. So English Insider and Lord Blackheath, we are now faced with a most urgent dilemma, one that needs to be resolved quickly before November 15.

Ultimately, it does not matter who wins the US Presidency, because it is a programmed distraction from an even greater "prize" for the Cabal: the aforementioned 1 Million Metric Tons of Gold deal.

We must stop this by immediately shutting them down through the Depositors who are not in any way tied into this deal. It is grand theft!

If we do not shut them down, your country will become a pile of rubble along with America and the entire planet. Closing them down is the ONLY option! English Insider, we thank you for your invaluable assistance and crucial information in this matter.

With time being of the essence we believe we can stop this before it gets to fruition if we receive sufficient funding now to get this completed.

I have already expended millions of my own dollars in the effort toward getting the Global Collateral Accounts opened, but I have continued to have my hands tied as well as my life threatened.

If you know of anyone willing to give financial assistance in this matter, we will do our very best to succeed.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

If not then we are all looking at "the establishment" growing stronger not weaker and as you know this will be our demise. What say you sir?

Lord Blackheath, we respectfully request that you investigate this unlawful Gold Deal immediately within the Bank of England in order to expose and flush out the truth.

We will have all papers soon but it will be final papers and the money will have been split already. We might be too late but not so late as to file some real charges against the big wigs in England.

Jacob Rothschild

You do realize the Rothschilds own the Bank of England and the Queen is involved so it would behoove you to assist the English people to investigate this matter.

Liz Windsor

This is the evil you need to deal with and they have already started filing legal action against the Brexit.

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

This is a game for freedom from tyranny and it is up to us in the know to make sure the people and most especially children, are protected.

The World also needs your help.

Thank you most sincerely,

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Recommendations & Background For President-Elect Donald J. Trump

Introduction

Hello everyone,

I am Neil Keenan and I would like to thank most of you for sticking with Donald Trump, our soon-to-be-President since the very beginning of the primaries. We have long waited for a man to take the leadership reins and send the girls (Obama & Co.) back to wherever they came from.

Myself and my team, Group K, have endured much in protecting Mr. Trump through thick and thin. Considering we have been through the wringer many times ourselves; I think it is only right that we bring to the attention of Mr. (President) Trump, a few key concerns which we believe need to be urgently addressed.

Some of these recommendations may be implemented with just a phone call, before the damage done to the planet is beyond control. So here you have my list of recommendations for Mr. (President) Donald Trump; and yes, Mr. Trump and his own team have requested this.

I hope this document is of assistance to you.

Neil Keenan

1.0 Immediate Actions:

1.01 Cessation of Chemtrail Spraying and Related Geo-Engineering and Weather Warfare Activities

Chemtrails include heavy metals such as Aluminum Oxide, Barium, Strontium and harmful biological agents. This clandestine project is billed to 'insiders' as fighting "climate change".

- ▶ Geoengineering Watch
- ▶ Chemtrails / Geoengineering, Weather Modification & Weather Warfare

1.02 Cessation of HAARP Activities

HAARP (High Frequency Active Auroral Research Program) is used in conjunction with chemtrails for weather manipulation and weather warfare (droughts and severe storms etc.) and also for triggering earthquakes, and negatively affecting the minds of the populace worldwide.

- ▶ HAARP Used for Weather Manipulation and Warfare
- ▶ HAARP: High Frequency Active Auroral Research Program [Official 'Line']

1.03 Curtailing of GMO / Weaponized Foods

Genetically Modified Organisms are dangerous and this is well known but suppressed for profit and population control purposes.

More rigorous testing by un-biased researchers will reveal this. GMO's are being used for the Eugenics depopulation agenda and to control and manipulate the world's food supply. A return to organic farming principles is needed.

- ▶ THE KEENAN TEAM REPORTS | One If By Land, Two If By Sea, We Sound The Alarm For Attacks By Three
- ▶ GMO Facts

1.04 Curtailing of Vaccination Programs

While the concept of vaccination has merit it has been proven time and time again (but suppressed by the industry and manipulated mainstream media) that there are toxic components in vaccines that are not only unnecessary but extremely dangerous. This will be revealed by more rigorous testing and FDA inspections that are allowed to be publicized in the public domain.

1.05 Exposing and Halting of United Nations Agenda 21 / Agenda 30

“Effective execution of Agenda 21 will require a profound reorientation of all human society; unlike anything the world has ever experienced a major shift in the priorities of both governments and individuals and an unprecedented redeployment of human and financial resources.

This shift will demand that a concern for the environmental consequences of every human action be integrated into individual and collective decision-making at every level.”

– Excerpt, UN Agenda 21

The “goals” of this document are nothing more than code words for a corporate-government fascist agenda that will imprison humanity in a devastating cycle of poverty while enriching the world’s most powerful globalist corporations like Monsanto and DuPont.

1.06 Put the Agri-Chemical Industry on Notice

This is with regard to harmful chemical fertilizers and other practices that are dangerous for humans, animals and the environment. The chemicals and sprays being used are mostly toxic with Monsanto's glyphosate-containing Roundup being the most widely known offender; with the WHO having declared it a probable carcinogen.

1.07 Put the Pharmaceutical Industry on Notice

This industry must stop producing ineffective, profit-driven and dangerous 'medicines' and vaccines laced with toxins such as mercury.

We need to promote the release of advanced healing technologies that are currently going into production and supported by Group K.

1.09 Stop the North Dakota Pipeline

When the Army Corps of Engineers issued a permit for the 1,100-mile Dakota Access Pipeline in July, executives at the corporations behind the plan probably thought their path forward was clear. They'd moved easily through the permit process, seemingly dodging the concerns of people affected by the pipeline, and were ready to go ahead with construction.

But the communities in the pipeline's path, especially local tribes, had other ideas. Thousands of people, mostly Native Americans, have converged at the Standing Rock Sioux Reservation in North Dakota in an effort to stop the pipeline from being built. The Standing Rock Sioux call the pipeline a black snake, and they know that if it were to rupture and spill – a serious risk, given the well-documented history of pipeline leaks in the U.S. – it could poison their drinking water and pollute their sacred land.

As we will detail, the Standing Rock Sioux are not just up against the oil and gas industry and the federal government, as daunting a challenge that alone would be. They are up against the many of the most powerful financial and corporate interests on Wall Street, the profit-driven institutions that are bankrolling this pipeline plan and so many others like it throughout the country.

The pipeline company disrupted the peaceful demonstration this weekend when its security firm unleashed violence on the activists, attacking them with dogs and pepper spray. The tribes are standing strong in their unity, and won't give up despite these frightening and horrifying developments.

2.0 Financial Actions:

2.01 Put an Immediate Stop to the “One Million Metric Ton Gold Deal”

This originates from Thailand and aims to fund the Federal Reserve and Bank of England.

BANK OF ENGLAND

“Malaysian Prime Minister Najib Razak finds himself in the limelight once again along with everybody’s best friend Alfredo Sauren, the Thai [Corporate] Government, the US Federal Reserve [Corporate] Chairperson Janet Yellen and also the Bank of England. They are all either desperate to keep their Agendas alive or they are just plain greedy and willingly ignorant of what those assets were intended to be used for.

Most certainly the East did not deposit their wealth into the Global Collateral Accounts so that the corrupt Globalists could continue to destroy the planet with their vaccinations, geoengineering / chemtrails, manufactured wars, HAARP attacks, banking bail-outs / bail-ins, weather warfare and many other things.” (Quoted from the following article)

Note: Neil Keenan and Group K were successful in their effort to have the “One Million Metric Ton Gold Deal” put on hold by publicly exposing the details of said deal by way of the internet. The fact that Mr. Trump is now President-Elect helps to bolster this situation, and once inaugurated, President Trump will be in a position to see to it that this deal cannot progress in its current form.

2.02 Re-Institute the “One Million Metric Ton Gold Deal” Transaction Directly with the US Treasury

This would be done without the gross commission payouts to politicians and bankers (can be done immediately).

This action will immediately gold-back the US dollar.

1.01 The Trillion Dollar Law Suit October 2011

This could be the biggest, most explosive story in modern history. We have put the pieces together and now understand what is going on in the occult financial geopolitical scene, and how a 117+ nation alliance is working to free the Earth from financial tyranny.

Conclusion

In reviewing the immediate recommendations, you will note that there are items that could have been included that have not been included. There is so much that President elect Trump must do and it all cannot happen in one day.

It will take months if not years to get through a much more exhaustive list but so long as things are progressing, we should not complain. The Republic of America is in good hands now and once it starts rolling, the Democratic Party should be kicked right out of our political scene (they did attempt a coup which is Treasonous).

The Democrats did not win thanks be to Donald J. Trump, who had the strength to withstand so many slanderous onslaughts that were directed not only at himself but also toward his family. There are many organizations and individuals that should be tossed out of America including many of the major media outlets – or if not then it should be made near impossible for them to get into any room that the President is in.

Let's keep our President safe. Remember John F. Kennedy's Secret Service detail did not do him any service in Dallas on the day he was assassinated. Let's take good care of our soon-to-be-President and not let anyone dubious get near him. He is our leader and he will do one hell of a job.

Take care y'all and god bless.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Urgent Warning Of Planned Trump Assassination Attempt & Former Bilderberg Head, Bygone Dutch Queen Beatrix Is Out To Steal Again

NFK Update: Urgent Warning Of Planned Trump Assassination Attempt Queen Beatrix Is Out To Steal

Leading Psychic Healer warns of a planned Trump Assassination attempt and former Queen Beatrix is attempting thievery once again as she and her Bilderberg blood attempt to con Indonesian President Jokowi into working out a “debt payment” to the Dutch Royal Family...

▶ URGENT: Warning of Planned Trump Assassination Attempt

Healer Daniel woke this morning at around 2:20am, shaking, as he had a dream where gun shots were being fired.

He states:

“I asked the Lord, what is this Lord,” then I saw the words ‘Assassination plot targeting President-elect, Donald Trump at the Oval office.’”

Immediately I started praying as I had a strong impression that there was a plan to assassinate the President-elect Donald Trump when he visits Obama at the Oval office, or maybe at another location (if Mr. Trump decides against meeting in the Oval office) in the next 3 months.

In the vision, Trump was seated talking to Obama, and then all of a sudden someone entered the room with a semi-automatic rifle and started firing shots. Obama took cover behind a large box or desk in the Oval office, and came out unhurt. There was much panic; I could not see Trump.

Obama then declared martial law. This would mean he would run the country once again.

It was then when I had the prompting that Trump must not visit, accept an invitation or meet with Obama in the White House or elsewhere at all, but especially not alone until he takes over the White House at the appointed time.

Trump must not relax his security and must wear a bullet proof vest while attending meeting in public and if he has to go to the White House for any reason until such time that the Obama administration has ended and is out of that place.

I personally think that Obama is not a Christian, nor or a Patriotic American; but instead is carrying out a mandate to open the doors for Islam to spread in the USA and throughout the world.

Please try your best to get this message to as many people as possible. Pray for protection for Trump and his family.

Also, if you could please forward these messages to your contacts in the US, who may be able to get this, message to Mr. Trump ASAP.

I have sent this to all my contacts. This morning I spoke to some of them in the US who told me that there is quite a bit of unrest in many parts of the America and that there was a sense of fear among the people.

May I encourage the church to pray like you have never done to this point. Your prayers certainly saw Donald Trump through to being elected.

Now your petitions to our Lord God Almighty can keep him protected to enable him to carry out the Will and Purposes of God.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

"See, the former things have taken place, and new things I declare; before they spring into being, I announce them to you." Isaiah 42:9

May God bless and keep you all,

"Healer Daniel"

From Neil: I was not going to post this but I read it a few times and spoke to a few people who know Daniel including the family (who are in support of Donald) and decided to let this important development be released.

I have also heard the Cabal are going to attempt an assassination; and at this time and period of our world we need TRUMP more than ever. He will help us through it and do whatever it takes to make things right once again for we the people...

Neil was recently subject to a very suspicious caper in an airport, "The Case of the Vanishing Laptop", as described in the video.

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

The Cabal never quit and keep attempting to impose their will on smaller nations. Former Queen Beatrix of The Netherlands is a good example: After she screwed up a perfectly good financial transaction in 2012, one that would have benefited not only the Dutch Royal Family but the people of The Netherlands as well.

The greedy old woman that is Beatrix, showed her ineptitude by bungling the aforementioned deal. The old witch now is attempting to deceive President Jokowi and the Nation of Indonesia – with what Beatrix circus acts are calling a “Debt Repayment”.

In other words, Beatrix – a representative of the family that created the Bilderberg Group – the biggest group of thieves on the planet- who have just had their asses handed to them by way of the triumphs of both Nigel Farage and Donald J. Trump, are now trying it on again in a different way.

On this latest occasion, the establishment are making a last-ditch attempt to steal someone else's gold (according to Benjamin) by propping up this incompetent old woman, Beatrix, and pushing her into the fray.

However, when the people of the Netherlands become clear in the understanding that their (former) Queen literally screwed them – they just might become unruly.

On the other side of the coin and in an earlier endeavor, Queen Elizabeth II had Beatrix effectively boxed in at all times. You see, Liz Windsor had her intelligence underlings listening in to everything that was going on at all times.

When Beatrix called out to discuss the Certificate of Deposit, Queen Elizabeth II and her intelligence flunkies were listening in on everything as it was being planned. Here we have the Globalists – all in favor of the New World Order and constantly screwing one another in order to be the fox that runs the hen house.

In the earlier deal noted above (the one that Beatrix ruined with her greed) everything had been initiated by Neil Keenan and Dragon Family Signatory, Akihiko Yamaguchi. Neil Keenan held unlimited Power of Attorney which enabled the transaction to take place, along with of course Yamaguchi, to sign off on the Certificate of Deposit. But this is not the way it was to play out.

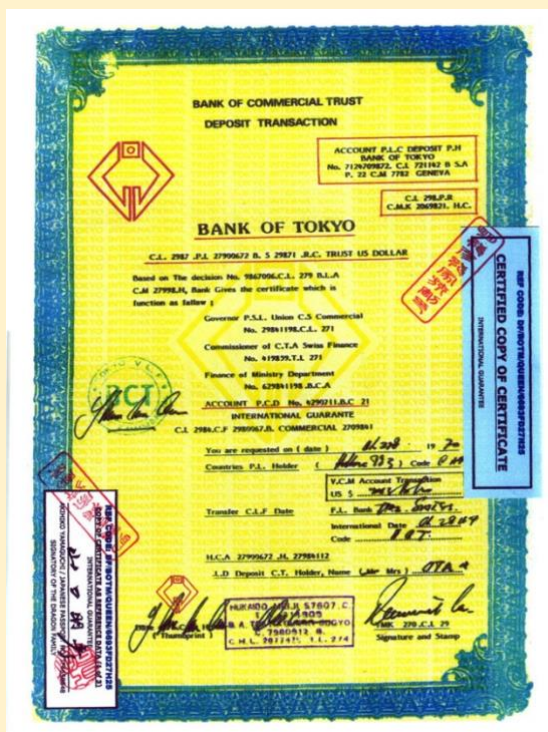

Neil recalls how events transpired:

"This could have been a very easy transaction to complete, but the greed of the monsters that actually ruled our planet (who are now on their way out and not fast enough) surfaced and it became a fight between families that are supposedly tied into one another by blood.

So much for relations. Then again, they are a special ugly kind of dog or horse, aren't they? When I initially contacted Queen Beatrix I made it clear that her mother (Queen Juliana) had been the Nominee over a CD (Certificate of Deposit) with a value of 2.13 Trillion USD (see the documentation below).

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

I explained to her that the CD was in the Bank of Tokyo Mitsubishi, and an agreement had been reached between her Mother and the Dragon Family.

It emerged that Queen Beatrix had no knowledge of any such transaction, nor of her Mother being named Nominee – in not just this transaction but other transactions as well.

In this regard the CD had long ago matured and should have been capitalized on but Queen Juliana had passed away without leaving any notice to her daughter, (soon to be Queen) and this is where it was left until the Signatory of the Dragon Family (Yamaguchi) and myself brought it forward to the Bilderberg leader (not that I knew that at the time as this was before I was well versed in the Cabal).

Queen Juliana's Mother and Father had created the hideously vulgar Bilderberg Group, whose plans were to basically take over this planet with a New World Order. This has now been outlined in many a document.

It was at this point in the proceedings that the machinations of evil intent took place. Queen Beatrix, upon learning that such a CD had existed and had matured, rather than spending a few minutes learning that the real Depositors were the Dragon Family, jumped the gun and sent her son (now King) Willem Alexander to Tokyo to see if he could abscond with the CD without anyone receiving any payments other than herself.

Not a bad chunk of change, especially considering that Queen Beatrix knew nothing about it until I brought her up to speed.

Which leads us to the present day...

Benjamin Fulford recently stated that former Queen Beatrix and her sons were going to visit with President Jokowi in an attempt to collect “the foreign debt owed to them”. We wonder what foreign debt this could possibly be, when in fact the Dutch raped Indonesia as much as could be – including the many deaths in West Papua over gold.

If anything, the West never placed any of their own assets into any bunkers in the East, other than what they owed for the leased gold-backing for their own currencies. I have never seen nor heard anything of any debt owed to the Dutch – but just the opposite.”

What I do notice though is the West and their “Royal” families scrambling for whatever tidbits any third world nation wishes to give them.

These families attempt to continuously collect on the assets belonging to the depositors within the World Bank, BIS and IMF. They reach out relentlessly, trying to take whatever does not belong to them with the little time they have left – as they are being brought to their knees; their deceptions are being exposed to the people of the planet.

Queen Julianna Abdicating Her Throne to Princess Beatrix

These families have no right to anything! If Queen Juliana was a Nominee and left no will nor testament detailing such, then no one will be as kind as Yamaguchi and the Dragon Family were, in offering her the piece her mother would have received for being the Nominee for the Certificate of Deposit.

What is really happening now is that the Dutch “Royalty” are attempting to deceive President Jokowi – and I doubt that the Indonesian gentleman President would stoop so low as to grant them their wishes, as he knows that even the Indonesian President does not own the Certificate of Deposit.

*Nor do the Holders own the Certificate of Deposit.
Only the Depositors own the Certificate of Deposit.*

Should any metals or paper assets leave Indonesia – or anywhere – they will find us waiting for them. We have stopped them time and time again.

We will stop them right up until the end as well, and open up the accounts for Humanitarian Packages along with Simon.

Then things will get rolling with the Accounts and the new technologies, and the world as we knew it will shut down and the New World – that being our World, will close the doors on the Babylonian money vultures that have run the whole global financial circus for the past 100+ years.

As for Donald Trump looking to make a Gold Backed Dollar – he already knows that I can bring forth the AU not only for such a thing, but much more, larger than any number heard to date – but for the rebuilding of our entire infrastructure – and it does not even evolve from the Global Collateral Accounts.

That's right – I can acquire whatever is needed by Donald Trump and nothing whatsoever for the Democrats. We have heard enough from the Libertards.

As Neil has been saying ad nauseum – it is only a matter of time before all of the countries of the East finally break ties with the West and go their own way...

Now let's get to living once and for all.

Note on page 143, there are many more signatures than the first document, the same ASBLP reference on the header, and at the end, a disclaimer about signatures that are “valid with and/or without the acknowledgement by ASM.”

Okay forget the document now – I see you like everyone else; swallowing hard saying wow! But let's get this straight: The documents you see with Anthony Santiago Martin's name on them are fraudulent papers.

Okay? Now swallow! You too M2. Take a deep breath and let's get this story moving.

Signatory HM, King Anthony Santiago Martin

Passport No. UN – 00191-01 (United Nations Organization xx3794724

Postal Address: 133 Rizal St. San Sebastian, Hagonoy, Bulacan 3002, Philippine Island.

It has been alleged that Anthony Santiago Martin was being used by the Committee of 300 to withdraw funds from the Global Collateral Accounts. It has further been alleged that the White Spiritual Boy and all related accounts are fictitious.

According to one testimony, the real Anthony Martin was an Australian who married a Filipina from Hagonoy Bulacan. Apparently, Martin was paid a million British Pounds to sign documents given to him by President Marcos which declared Martin (the real Anthony Santiago Martin, not the subsequent CIA fakes as detailed below) the sole heir and signatory to the accounts.

But the truth behind this fraudulent endeavor was discovered and the World Court (through the International Court of Justice) ruled that Anthony Santiago Martin was not the rightful heir nor signatory to the accounts in question.

The 'original' Anthony Santiago Martin has since passed away.

From this it may be deduced that Martin was used as a patsy in the Committee of 300's failed plan.

Since the not-widely-known passing of the 'original' Anthony Santiago Martin, the CIA spied an opportunity to create not one but five new fake “Anthony Santiago Martin's”, at least one of whom remains in play to this day, front and center. The CIA managed this by acquiring five young Asian men whom they groomed as assets and provided with false legends, or histories, in order to be able to utilize them in future financial transactions (scams).

You see, Alfredo Saurin (a broker who is ex-CIA) and one of the fake CIA-concocted “Anthony Santiago Martin’s” (pictured above) were involved with a deal that we exposed in our last post: The Final Battle Lines Are Being Drawn.

What Neil Keenan recently exposed has created a war between many on both sides of the aforementioned deal that was about to take place. The fake Anthony Santiago Martin attempted to pull a fast one and is now being pursued.

Neil has been informed that this fake “Martin” is currently running for his life and hiding in Hong Kong. He screwed Alfredo Saurin who is famous as the modern-day Asian Robin Hood. He steals from the elite Banks and he gives to the poor.

Meanwhile, we need to expose to the world that in the unravelling of the deal that we exposed in The Final Battle Lines Are Being Drawn that the kleptomaniac Malaysian Prime Minister Razak Najib (who was also involved in said deal) took it upon himself to once again, try and get away with stealing anything and everything that wasn’t nailed down in the midst of the confusion.

The Committee of 300

“Three hundred men, all of whom know one another, direct the economic destiny of Europe and choose their successors from among themselves.”

– Walter Rathenau, 1909, founder of the mammoth German General Electric Corporation

Ultimately, that these World Bank documents are legitimate or the signatures authentic, it really matters not — this is all the dictate of the Committee of 300!

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

For those who are not familiar with The Committee of 300, they are a group allegedly founded by the British aristocracy in 1727 and by many accounts, consists of an international council that organizes and controls world politics, commerce, banking, media, and the military for centralized global efforts.

Also note the absence of a signature under “Acknowledged by ASM” on both documents. Now here is where “King” Anthony Santiago Martin is once again exposed in this fraud.

There has never been a King of the Philippines!

Then how could there possibly have been a King Anthony Santiago Martin, real or fake?
“Anthony Santiago Martin” / “ASM” / “White Spiritual Boy” etcetera – It’s all a fraud.

Good luck and go get ’em Willy – he’s in Hong Kong!

NFK Update: What Goes Up Must Come Down

Alexis de Tocqueville stated that:

“A democracy cannot exist as a permanent form of government. It can only exist until the voters discover that they can vote themselves largesse from the public treasury. From that moment on, the majority always votes for the candidates promising the most benefits from the public treasury with the result that a democracy always collapses over loose fiscal policy, always followed by a dictatorship. The average age of the world’s greatest civilizations has been 200 years.”

If the above is correct then isn't it about time that our up and down government which began as a Republic and then taken over in a silent coup is about ready to collapse. Isn't it about right that all outstanding debts should be on the shoulders of our so-called United States of America Corporation?

Isn't it about right that the Republic of America should step right in seeing it was pushed out and govern 'We the People' as it was meant to be from the beginning with Sovereignty?

Is it not right that all of those profiteering from the corruption of the US Corporation should be tried for corruption and treason with all funds and assets frozen? Shouldn't this be done immediately seeing they are already (Obama, Bush, Clintons etc.) in the early stages of a well-known coup attempt?

Why would we the 300 Million more or less people of the US allow this to happen after suffering so much at the hands of a few? Has the time come for we the people to support our President in good times and bad times and work together in this hand and hand? He claims he is the peoples President and he sure seems to show it to each and every one of us.

The time has come today. Let's keep an eye on our President and consider him precious and by supporting him bolster his military and other agencies in their fights within and out with the numerous organizations mamby-pamby Obama, nutcase Clinton, and Hot Lips Bush seem to have control of.

Let's stand tall and do what needs to be done to keep our children and elderly safe. Let's do It!

The Republic of America must have 200 years or more of working at making things better and this would be more than enough for us to set things straight and get ourselves and our neighbors in line for grand undertakings.

Our nation has been on such a roller coaster ride that most have never had any idea what hit them, but now they do. It is called the Spinning Wheel Up and Down Syndrome. It is the Khazarian Cabal that has taken us on this unnecessary ride and now it is time for the Spinning Wheel to Stop...

Blood Sweat & Tears - Spinning wheel (1989)

Apologies extended for the delay of this post but I am only one man with a small but dynamic team attempting to do everything possible in many different ways to take the Cabal down before my time passes. So, let's get moving and rock them before they rock us...

On another note of importance, there is a powerful British organization called Serco which controls most of the Western hemisphere's various service agreements and contracts, especially including ALL of those in the US. (Who said the British no longer control the US?)

Neil Keenan

Serco: A Corporate Octopus with Tentacles Wrapped Around the Globe

Serco: The Biggest Company You've Never Heard Of

It is time for us to be aware of Serco and do something about it to prevent further damage to each and every one of us!

Further investigations show that many crooks continue their stealing and attempts at raping the bunkers.

Fortunately, President Trump has been updated on this matter, and he has ordered satellite surveillance on those who are trying to steal the gold, currencies and bank documents currently stored in the bunkers.

They will be shortly dealt with in a strong and effective manner.

Only a few of these crooks will be granted immunity while the rest will be arrested for international theft and corruption. As justice is done, you will only be able to visit these conniving thieves in prison.

There's another pending story about a Japanese woman, Misumi Ishikawa, who is controlling a bunker that her father had a long relationship with; therefore, making it far too easy for her to steal from within the bunker itself.

In another case, the Chinese Li Family is doing its best to protect their Family's assets by purchasing as much of them as possible. Mr. Li is currently preparing to sign for an astronomical fund within the next few days. He is signing for all of the currency in the bunker, while many questions emerge around what the Family is doing.

Mr. Li is a person of integrity who has had a great deal of experience despite loads of problems and challenges. He is a man who can be trusted in the midst of current troubles.

Other notes of immediate concern from Asia reveal 3 crafty, crooked men who have moved 5 Billion Yen to Seoul. One is a Japanese, another is a Korean, and the third one is a Korean broker.

It appears that they are preparing for more thieving of bunker assets.

Some Japanese also have stolen 2 containers (of Yen) from the bunkers. They are now trying to exchange the Yen for Korean money. They plan to sell 75 per cent of it.

Then, too, many an Elder has become aware that they are going to be caught for some of their shady transactions in the past. Some of them wish to atone and make amends for these past indiscretions while others wish to return what they have stolen.

However, to be fair, the West deceived each of them by stealing the Assets through their lawlessness and fake Western financial system that they set up with Bretton Woods and other fraudulent agreements.

Thus, these Elders do not owe anyone anything. They (including their Fathers and Grandfathers) took responsibility for these bunkers and faithfully watched over them for many years without receiving any well-deserved compensation.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Neil Keenan is aware of this and will be sure to arrange for their immunity so they can relax and have peace of mind. They deserve to have sufficient means for a healthy, happy life as well.

Another case of more, blatant corruption involves the “dynamic duo” of criminal behavior, Malaysian Prime Minister Najib Razak, who is also the Minister of Finance, and his Deputy Prime Minister Ahmad Zahid Hamidi, who is also the Minister of Home Affairs.

Partners in Crime: Ahmad Zahid-Hamidi and Najib Razak

Recently, Razak took the “liberty” of emptying the bank accounts of a very wealthy Malaysian.

Najib erroneously believed himself to be extremely clever by transferring this man’s Collateral Security Instruments being held in the Malaysian Central Bank to a local commercial bank account in the Prime Minister’s wife’s name, Rosmah Mansor.

Razak then had the sneaky audacity to contact the UBS in Switzerland and to advise the bank that the Malaysian billionaire was “DEAD” and that he (Razak), as Minister of Finance, was the Executor of the man’s estate, thus claiming the entire funds of this individual, including his Trust Accounts.

Meanwhile, UBS asked Razak to produce this man’s Official Death Certificate which the DPM could only provide with official notices in writing of the so-called Executor’s authority that only the PM could provide.

These official documents were then sent to UBS who, fortunately, were in direct contact with the very much alive “Dead Man” throughout this ongoing scenario. Consequently, UBS knew that needless to say, dimwit Najib’s attempts were illegal and fraudulent as in Grand Theft on an international level.

With transcripts and recordings of phone conversations in hand as well as the official documentation that was sent, UBS had more than enough to nail Najib to the wall! They then filed a major legal case with the International Court of Justice in the Hague.

Ironically, in his increasing desperation Najib tried preventing the “Dead Man” from leaving Malaysia.

To his immediate dismay, he was stopped abruptly by way of the timely intervention of the UN, IMF, the FED, and the Swiss government.

The “Dead Man” is now living in Europe and will gladly testify before the ICJ in this matter.

In the end Najib and Zahid are now the real “Dead Men Walking” with no place to run and no place to hide.

Perhaps they best stand down, especially after the other previously noted past attempts failed to destroy the Malaysian economy.

Karma has its rightful place in these matters of greed and corruption.

The Marcos Deposits

Another such tale of corruption involves a number of cases arising that concern the “Marcos Deposits” that were made to various central and commercial banks around the world.

It is estimated there are over 2,500 of such fixed deposits which are nominally held in the name of a signatory, a trustee or their descendants.

The truth is that these very deposits are Golden Family Assets that, per the Family’s approval and instructions, were to be distributed by Ferdinand Marcos to rebuild a number of designated countries’ economies following WWII.

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

THESE FUNDS DO NOT BELONG TO THE SIGNATORIES OR THE TRUSTEES. PERIOD!

It is also duly noted that Madam Cynthia from the Philippines is NOT a Dragon Family member. Any further activities by her to misrepresent herself will be immediately thwarted by authorities.

Recent attempts to cash-in these fixed deposits by using false approval from the FED (Yellen), IMF, UN, the Philippine government or its Central Bank, and the banks in various countries is, again, another glaring, fraud involving Grand Theft on the part of all involved parties. Shining the light on these nefarious crooks for all to see is only the beginning of bringing justice to the forefront.

In summary, these deposits must remain as Collateral Security and should be only used to back the currencies and development of each country and NOT be used to line the pockets of corrupt politicians, Banksters, lawyers, signatories or trustees and their proxies.

Otherwise, they must be returned to the Golden Dragon Family, the rightful OWNERS.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

So, BEWARE! Anyone even thinking of stealing and cashing in on these deposits – you are hereby put on notice that these Accounts are now being very closely observed.

You will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the Law!

Neil Keenan holds the original books of the Accounts, and they will be opened in due time. He has both the old and new ledgers. Anyone caught stealing the Dragon Family Assets will be rounded up and taken to wherever they belong, as the ASIAN SWAMP WILL BE DRAINED ALSO!

Yellowstone Warning

On another note, the old rumor that Yellowstone National Park volcanoes were soon going to erupt has resurfaced to just a chosen few. This report predicts a major disaster in Yellowstone within the next 4 months. Monitoring technology exposes gasses being emitted, landscape movements and the spike in temperatures of the tar in the roads.

Not anyone has really paid attention to this but there are ways to mitigate and even prevent such a disaster.

FINANCIAL RESOURCES NEEDED TO PREVENT SUCH A DISASTER.

Yes, the above is true and yes, they need resources but what destroys me is no one has even released such information to the public yet. Just be prepared as I always tell you.

This is Obama, Bush, Clinton and Soros' doings. They prepared it before O left office and in case the public liked Trump enough to cause them trouble.

The plan? To take as many of us out as possible.

What are we going to do about Yogi Bear? A National Treasure...

Yogi Bear \(theme song\)

Now it's Neil's turn to speak directly to us in his own inimitable style:

"Let me just say this has been a very, very long ride!!! During this entire unprecedented and challenging journey, I along with my loyal Keenan Team kept trucking right on through one disaster after another... while often escaping death.

There's no question we still have battle wounds and medical problems, but we are steadfastly closing in on the goal line.

Despite becoming more of a storyteller than chasing the Global Accounts, I never lost my focus for one moment. The TIME has come today...YES, it has!!!

Over the years we have prevented so many illegal transactions from taking place by using our website and other vital connections to expose whomever it was and whatever was needed to bring them into the forefront and the light of day for all of you to see.

We wanted to be open and inclusive with so many good people so that each one would know what was happening and also feel a part of the ongoing events.

We often played a dynamic, crucial role that was more far-reaching and greater than governments could have provided.

One major slip-up and we could have lost. When I say lost, I mean the world would have tragically lost if the "enemies" got the Gold.

There still is a great deal of confusion and chaos happening now by desperate people. Even though they know that they are being watched and scrutinized, they remain imbalanced enough to continue their harebrained attempts to steal the Gold which in no way belongs to them.

Despite this tremendous challenge being downright dangerous, it has also been exciting, interesting, even exhilarating, and I've loved every minute of it! What I want to emphasize now is that with the end being near, it is time for the stories to stop. Soon it will be the beginning of a new volume with wonderful, positive events happening for 'We the People' of this planet.

Then we will dance and party and celebrate like no world before us ever has! Beam me up, Scottie! Ha ha ha ha...

I also want to advise you that we have received a lot of attention from major organizations, including the UN (as you already know) which was the first. During the past 2-3 weeks this awareness has grown to include Harvard Medical School, the M.I.N.D. Institute at MIT, the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, the Wingate Institute for Sports and Exercise Science, the National Institute for Brain and Rehabilitation Sciences in Nazareth, Israel, the National Institute for Neurology and Neurosurgery in Havana, Cuba as well as the School of Public health in Havana, and the Blefeld University in Germany.

These organizations sound like a great beginning, but the list is going to continue to grow a whole lot longer while we are very busy mixing and matching up the new healing computers as well as in working with the Accounts.

There's nothing like success! We have a delightful person in the US using a healing computer who already has tested and treated more than 40 people with positive results. 40-0 are pretty damned good results along with the rest from other owners of the machines.

I can only smile and shake my head while wondering how far it will all go! I sincerely hope it eventually goes as far as your own living rooms so one day each of you may have convenient access to this technology for yourselves and your families and friends. Ongoing fine-tuning continues to be done by the developers of these machines to continue with upgrades to further enhance their performance. At the present time I see the Accounts opening soon with many good things moving ahead as a result.

I will be able to obtain the necessary Gold to support not only the US, but also much of the world, so that we will never again fall into such a horrible trap, and subjected to the slavery that the Khazarian Mafia created for humanity.

At last, the time has come for the Khazarians to take a final bow before the dark curtain comes forcefully down upon them. For some time, the writing has been on the wall, and their come-uppance is just beginning.

I can now reveal that I have been invited to fly in a few weeks to meet with the officials who have the authority and ability to open the Accounts. In the meantime, plans are being worked on to get everything in position to benefit the people and the planet.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Another note of importance is regarding the recent numerous and disturbing commotions within our Facebook group. Originally, I thought it was a good idea to create this Facebook group, but there are way too many problems for the administrators to deal with.

My team is working so hard to get things out to you, and they don't need such headaches. Remember this site was set up for people like Lynn, Mary Ann and others who are wonderful, kind people to give them a place to share information and hang their hats. In the meantime, we will leave things to the administrators and immediately block anyone creating unnecessary disturbances.

As I mentioned previously, I've decided to cut out the stories and, instead, simply just get the meat of the matters out to you as efficiently and timely as can be done. I also want to sincerely thank all of those great people who have stood by Group K and myself for such a long time. I believe I had black hair when this saga began and now look at me! (Just joking).

So many other people also need to be thanked. How about our Team K who took so much time out of their lives in order to give and help all of you? They are wonderful people! I wonder how many of you know the names of our team. (Let's see if any of you can answer this in the comment section here at NeilKeenan.com or on the "It's a Keenan Thing" Facebook page. I would love to see how many are correct.

What a great group of people you all are! Now let the team and me get busy in order to deliver something to you that will last forever. Let's see what comes out in the wash!

God Bless. See you soon. I love you all... Neil Keenan

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | What A Long Strange Trip It's Been

March 21, 2017

Looking back approximately eight long years ago (Yes, can you believe > 8 years?) what began as the devious theft of 134.5 Billion in US Notes by Daniel Dal Bosco set off an unpredictable and often times a "Wild West" (and East!) chain of events that continue to this day for Neil Keenan and his loyal Group K (whose members have changed over time) – but ALL have played a major role in getting to this dynamic place of impending breakthroughs and ultimate success on several fronts.

Yes, for the past eight long years there have been so many abrupt and at times – seemingly mysterious changes occurring that even a US Highway map couldn't properly show all of the twists and turns ultimately leading to the most marvelous of doors: The Global Collateral Accounts.

These Accounts, which many crooks & cabal members have done their best in surreptitiously blocking from us for such a long period of time; are now readily recognized by so many.

Fortunately, we can thank Neil Keenan for his relentless courage and Irish tenacity in bringing this revelation to the forefront to be revealed in the light of day to 'We the People' worldwide.

It was Neil who first committed himself to the task – and then endured under unpredictable and tremendous odds, on that long and winding road leading up to not only the lawsuit itself (the one that opened all the doors into that battle on behalf of humanity and the world which we dare witness and still fight for today) – but also to the penultimate point – whereby Neil was told he was going to be placed in charge of those very Accounts.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

To review this saga of events consecutively, we would refer you to the History & Events Timeline on Groups K's website (with forthcoming updates to be made, at the request of the White House.)

Despite being poisoned more than 7 times in order to keep him from this heroic quest, as well as having significant funds abruptly stolen from his accounts on two occasions, Neil moved forthrightly to another major vehicle by which to take the bastards down:

That being the life-enhancing and life-saving new technologies brought directly to the people while bypassing the corrupt "Big Pharma" and so-called "modern medicine" that leave many people dying / dead / bankrupt – just as the central banking system does with their crooked debt schemes.

If Neil could not easily move to take them down via the Accounts, then he would strongly move into another important life-saving arena with the new healing computers and new herbal elixirs that do work and that will kick the crap out of Big Pharma like only he can!

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Not to mention the other advanced technologies that we are about to roll out into the public arena, including free energy.

For far too long we have learned that appearances are deceptive in terms of the medical world. It is not, nor has ever been what it is purported to be.

So, this is where the other side of Neil's brain kicked in to go after the Cabal – smack dab into the medical and pharmaceutical worlds – two big Cabal money makers that never had any business dictating our business and who took away our health and our sovereignty.

Western medicine is a major scam that took so much more away from us than it ever helped, so the coffers of the Cabal amassed exorbitant profit – while the people suffered on many fronts! (Just a band aid, please, no not another operation; it is only a scratch.)

And so, we have been left with the tragic nightmare of a sick society imposed upon us from the outside.

However, now we are pushing back and we are near to busting out the paradigm and reclaiming our basic human rights and self-determination, after being treated inhumanely for so long – by 'elites' who believe their twisted bloodlines and religion gives them some divine right to rule over the rest of us.

The perpetrators of this are now the ones crawling around like cockroaches with the light of truth shining so strongly on them as they frantically look for a way out of the monstrous mess they have concocted for their suddenly "toxic" selves.

They are reeling and confused and have been telling on each other – it is now on them and justice will be done!

Further Recent Developments:

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

We have been working on many different things during recent weeks, and we're happy to tell you that we now have access to a satellite that can tell us what is going on both above and under-ground – including in bunkers and tunnels.

Example picture only – we can't show you what it actually looks like!

Consequently, we can monitor for ourselves, seeing anyone who dares attempt to enter the bunkers or warehouses. Any and all attempts will be identified, and the relevant details sent to various clandestine operative units for apprehension.

This is not about the West as much as it is about the East, although the West is being watched as well. For this reason, with this state-of-the-art satellite in place, it is not necessary for Neil to fly to Asia / Indonesia when he is made aware of every little dodgy move anyone attempts to make.

Meanwhile Nelu and Jo will continue to deal with things for us, as they are in the midst of things happening there in real time. Needless to say, it is looking as though we are near the end game in Asia as well. Neil will be going to meet with the relevant parties once he receives significant information that requires his presence.

Until then Neil will remain working on keeping the new medical (and other) technologies flowing to the people while continuing to do his utmost to keep the people safe – and the Cabal off balance. With these advanced (and formerly suppressed) technologies now coming into the public awareness and consciousness – the Cabal's control apparatus is failing on all fronts.

As we now see in reports on a daily basis, attacks on all fronts has been a killer for the Cabal, and many a request has been forwarded to Neil to stop his movements. His answer has been "NO" at all times.

Regarding the German Elections; Merkel vs Schultz: The people of Germany would do well to pick their poison carefully – with Shultz being a major part of the European Union and possibly an even worse choice than Merkel.

If Germany wishes to have a government for 'The People', they must set up a third party quickly and kick Schulz and Merkel to the curb. Neither of them is worthy of representing the good people of Germany.

Mr. Razak, the Prime Minister of Malaysia, remains in the throes of investigation by the Malaysian Justice Department for his conniving and partaking in the "Dead Man Walking" caper.

Partners in Crime: Ahmad Zahid-Hamidi and Najib Razak

Fortunately, the person declared "dead" by Razak (so he could steal his Billions) is still very much alive, as noted in our earlier report on the matter.

Ex-Prime Minister Mohammad Mahathir could lead this investigation, and if so – he should start by making contact with UBS who monitored and recorded the conversations of Razak which detail that he knew that he was illegally stealing the Billionaire's money.

If diligent, Mr. Mahathir could round up the entire group of conspirators and save Malaysia from any further headaches. Remember it was also Razak doing the deal with Bong Bong from the Philippines (Marcos' son) with approximately 13 Trillion US Dollars for Malaysian ringgits. That's right; the exchange would have placed a foreigner in control of the Malaysian economy and currency. Fortunately, we stopped this transaction with some outside help.

Amazingly, with numerous recordings to review – it appears highly likely that the tables have turned in our favor. We will see faces and find names that we never knew existed as being part of Eastern corruption, all to be turned over to the authorities.

In speaking with the US representatives, we were told many crooked players could be looking at 15-25 years in jail. This is where we would like to see the Eastern Swamp cleaned up once and for all! The people need it, and the people deserve it.

Finally, things seem to be shifting into place, and as we've reflected upon before, what a long strange trip it's been! To all who have made it along with us thus far, may God bless you. To those who have not, we pray you are now in God's hands.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | A Change Is Gonna Come

Sam Cooke - A Change Is Gonna Come \(Official Lyric Video\)

For a significant period of time and often at great expense, Neil Keenan and Group K tramped around the Asian battlefields while acquiring information that would enable Neil to re-file his International Lawsuit on the world's behalf. Although the world did not participate with Neil in his original filing, in the final analysis the Accounts to be opened were intended to be specifically for world humanitarian projects.

Unlike the World Bank set up by the Cabal, these Accounts were to benefit humanity first and foremost, had the lawsuit been allowed to proceed and the Accounts be released as planned. The leading question is why did the lawsuit not move further into the justice system? Here we have a blatant interruption of due process.

Unfortunately, while being backed up by the cabal for nefarious reasons, of course, Obama ordered a change in assigning judges to the case. A very honored and revered Judge Hollowell was abruptly removed, and in his stead was placed Obama's own Economic Advisor's brother named Fulmer, who amazingly was not even a Judge at the time! Obama specifically named Fulmer to preside over Neil's lawsuit with one purpose in mind... to completely block it from proceeding any further.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

When Attorney Bill Mulligan withdrew his actions without prejudice before “Judge” Fulmer, the “Judge” clearly stated that should this case ever be re-filed, it would be re-filed ONLY in his courtroom with this order extending throughout the US... Now imagine this happening just as Neil predicted it would when he became aware of the intentional change in judges!

However, unbeknownst to most, Neil accumulated many important documents and agreements during the next few years while waiting for the right time to re-file them in Manhattan District Court as well as to demand that a new judge preside over the case. Fortunately, for years Neil prepared a strategic plan to begin and complete this colossal fight.

At the same time, he and his Group K team successfully demonstrated the ease with which any major nation could take down the evil, corrupt NWO. Witness the previous downfalls of Sarkozy, Berlusconi, Queen Beatrix as well as other household NWO names now and in the near future.

Former Queen Beatrix of The Netherlands: Dispatched courtesy of the efforts of Neil Keenan, Group K and others. Her parents were the founders of the Bilderberg Group – and she was the head of the Bilderberg Group.

Former President of South Korea Park Geun-hye: Dispatched and currently incarcerated.

As Neil says, *“If we can do it, they sure as hell could... if they wished!”

Currently, you will find Neil and Group K opening up still another avenue that in time will surely break the financial pockets of the Cabal as well as serve humanity worldwide. As you already know, this is with the ‘Healing Machine’ technology and the new ‘Healing Elixir’.

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

More information in this regard will be forthcoming in the following weeks. Both means of healing are incredibly effective as well as being tremendous game changers. The biggest losers soon will be the NWO and their ilk. It is very tough to put the elephants back in the barn once they are let out! Well, the elephants are already loose to the peoples' benefit!

The immediate need is to get more 'Healing Computers' out there into the world. The waiting lines are currently way too long, and so many deserving people are in immediate need for healing intervention.

In addition, and to top it off, we will soon have the Free Energy devices, so those who are interested are wise to start getting into line now as they will be available in less than 2 months. These machines will produce 30 kilowatts per hour, and further information will be released shortly.

Next, the Water Treatment Technology is also nearly ready to be released. This fantastic technology will clean up our oceans and straighten out the horrific mess the Cabal made with Fukushima. Our oceans will ultimately be returned to us... whether they like it or not!

Have you ever played a sport where you had someone on the ropes and were about ready to put things away when you gave them a slight second to catch their breath, only to find there is so much more behind their second wind where you abruptly lose your steam?

This is where we now precariously find ourselves in the Western Hemisphere as world events heat up far above and beyond the status quo. There is no question the Cabal is on the ropes, but they are still attempting to work their way out of their current predicament.

They have their people continually moving surreptitiously with desperate hopes of finding ways out of the very swamps they so cleverly (or so they thought) created for themselves. It is our job to finish them off once and for all! No second chances, as there have already been too many chances.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Just imagine how viciously cold and calculating they've been to what they consider our weaknesses: They mistake kindness and compassion for weakness, and they expect their own who still continue to live among us to assure them of safe passage.

Do we allow them such privileges when we know full well their utter lack of humanity and insane greed on the planet, as well as their ongoing genocide? Or do we strip them and force them to stand before We the People to receive their long overdue justice?

In 1965 the song Eve of Destruction was published, and while this song applied to the East at the time, it seemed even then that the shoe should have been put on the other foot... that of the heavily corrupt West.

Barry McGuire - Eve of Destruction

Now, however, today the once “invincible” Cabal is stuck mightily between a rock and a hard place so such a song really does apply to those who've stolen for so long with impunity from the East as well as by any means from other world inhabitants.

Long-suffering victims of the Cabal, too numerous to mention, can look back into history and see how destructive and sociopathic the Cabal has been and how it continues to wreck-havoc even up, to this present day.

The members of the Cabal consider everything on the planet to be their own, including humanity (as Hillary so coldly described some of us as the “deplorables”). Tragically, everywhere you look you see their criminal markings and colossal interference. It is not time for us to relent or stop to rest, but rather we must continue to move strongly united and courageously forward, never giving them a chance to breathe while we strip them of their arrogance and blatant criminality.

We must also immediately and forthrightly lend assistance and support to people such as USA President Donald Trump, Hungarian President Janos Ader, Philippine President Rodrigo Duterte, Russian President Vladimir Putin, Chinese President Xi Jinping and the newly elected South Korean President Moon, a good man and no relation to that Cabal piece of crap known as Ban Ki-moon.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

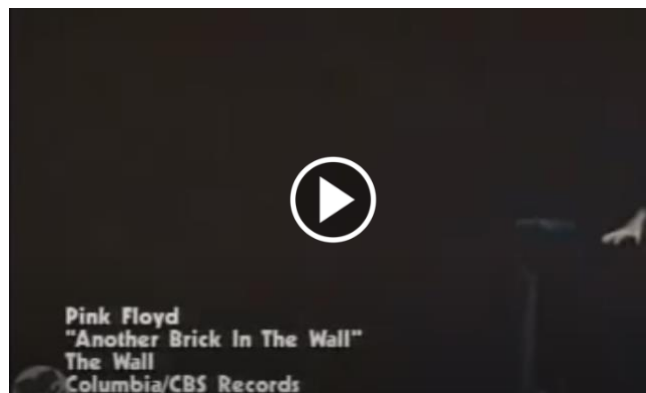

Many hands are needed in our diligent quest to take down what we've come to know as the "New World Order". At times it may be hard to distinguish "who is who", but the leaders listed above are a good solid team, fighting fire with fire and winning at doing so despite the lies and subterfuge of the MSM. At times, the disparate political affairs on the world stage may confuse you, but give it a chance and you might find the swamp's being drained just as promised.

President Trump is by far smarter and much cleverer than those in opposition to him. He is still wisely purveying his territory and is definitely ready to take the gloves off for this historic, formidable battle on behalf of We the People. So, when this President does take effective and expedient action, these enemies of humanity had best get their "traveling" shoes on and find a new place to live; if they aren't in the nets of justice now.

They are where they are now due to their complicit entrenchment and nefarious activities as members of the so-called Shadow Government. Foolishly, they thought they were safe hiding within the US, but those days are done and gone forever! They've hid like cowards, because they've never had any real cajones.

They've fought like "Tinkerbells", because that is their intrinsic nature. They are the stinking, rotting remains of the Old Roman Republic where pedophilia and child abuse were common, and women were mistreated and used just for procreation and nothing more, many of whom died in childbirth.

Pink Floyd - Another Brick in the Wall Official Music Video

Treasonous papers are already being drawn up as we speak, and, of course “the man” (Obama), called Tinkerbell in Europe and Russia, is the “sweetheart” who along with his fellow cronies are behind most all of the criminality.

It is rather funny to see the team they put together filled with pedophiles, other sexual deviants, and false-hope heroes such as John Kerry, John McCain, and many others whose claim to fame has been built upon a preponderance of lies and their often hidden, high crimes against the people. These sick, nasty scoundrels have now been made fully aware of being placed on immediate notice that they are solely on borrowed time from here on until justice is done!

Many more are suddenly scrambling to look for places to live outside the US, despite their unheeded hopes that Trump and his administration will forgive them. Of course, there can be no forgiveness in our new kind of aware and responsible government which is thankfully, at last, one for the people.

Despite the Cabal's unrelenting attacks against our President and his team, We the People had best keep aware with our eyes wide open, because some still brazenly walk among us, believing they are above the Law and, thus, immune from prosecution.

The Cabal, Khazarians, Globalists, etc. are in desperate form at the moment, but they are still fighting back with everything they can muster.

With a few wins they could be right back in the game with more dark financing to take a solid shot at our President and destroy our country in the process. This must not be allowed to happen, so allow me now to close a few metaphorical doors on them.

The French and German Elections are just such examples of how the Cabal will cleverly attempt to keep their fingers on the power buttons (and their hands in the “golden cookie jar” of worldwide funds). In the race in Germany there is the incumbent Angela Merkel who literally has been tearing Germany apart with her own meddling hands on behalf of her compadres in the New World Order. Her German constituents mean nothing to her so long as she achieves the desired results that the One World Government demands.

Should you walk down any German Street, you will clearly see the damage Merkel has done to her country and its people. Does it matter to her or her cronies? No, not at all! In fact, it seems tragically comical that being the Globalist she is, she ironically finds her opponent in this election, Martin Schulz, to be equally driven in destroying the German people and nation. This is Agenda 21 at its best or its worst for sure.

Unfortunately, the good and proud German people have to pick their poison in choosing which of their compromised candidates will lead their nation as committed, ardent Globalists – Angela Merkel or Martin Schulz, the former Parliament President of the European Union. Writing in a third uncompromised candidate would save yourselves and your country, although this is not going to happen. With either of the two Globalists mentioned you will slide into a deeper European Union pot of mounting crap where you will no longer really be safe in your daily lives.

In France it didn't matter that an unknown Macron ran against Marine Le Pen, because the Cabal had placed enough migrants and others with "voting rights" in order to topple their French citizenry. Yes, France went down and Macron, an unknown won.

"Tinkerbell" Obama and other Globalists came in to support Macron and with heaps of money and a non-French base they stole the country from the French on behalf of their quest for the New World Order and to eliminate the European people with Agenda 21.

Soon all of Europe will be in the same boat if they have their war. People, stay strong! There are ways to take them down, and I know the way.

We have further battles going on throughout the world, including embattled President Trump taking on the entire “Deep State Establishment”. In retrospect, a huge mistake was made by letting Trump into the “hen house” of corruption, as he is very foxy indeed! The “Deep State Establishment” are blowing their not-so-hidden agendas with their numerous, failing attempts to undermine Trump’s Presidency.

Soon they will be paying heavily for it, as they are doing their best to conceal everything good about Trump and paint him and his staff with broad strokes of lies of corruption. Of course, these efforts will fail, as many everyday American people are waking up and are clearly seeing through the maze of deception by the opposing forces.

President Trump has wisely and effectively split both parties now with even prominent Democratic financiers/directors vowing to support him, his policies, and his government. Many of their original Democratic buddies no longer carry any weight other than crocodile tears in abundance while both Rothschild parties (Democrats and Republicans) have been tossed into the dust heaps of desperation.

Trump is continuing to drain the swamp, as he has been since day one... step by step...

Throughout the world the same process is happening, as we look at what you perhaps may not know. More than ever, vote smart, People, and do not allow the Globalists to be in power! It is your personal lives and that of your families that we are talking about here.

Western Desperation Sets In

Japan and Korea support the Globalist New World Order, seeing they have been allies for what seems like forever. Remember, it was Emperor Hirohito who initiated the Act of 1921. He flew to London to meet with American President Warren Harding, French Prime Minister Clemenceau, and English Prime Minister Lloyd George.

Hirohito flew there so together all could orchestrate the beginning of WWII. Can you imagine. No sooner had WWI ended, and the Cabal was already making plans for a Second World War!

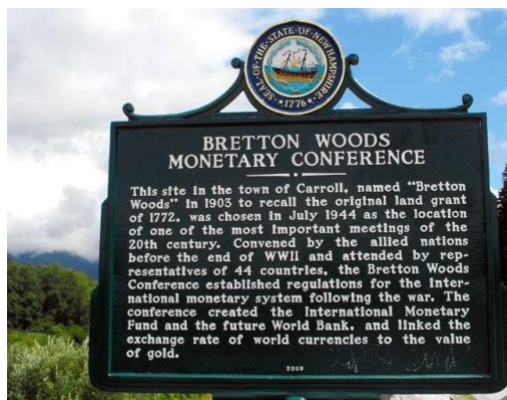

Look closely at the players: They are ALL Cabal! The ink on the TREATY OF VERSAILLES AGREEMENT in 1918 had not yet dried, and our "Corporate Governments" were selling us down the river for another tragic War.

The US and England would finance this next War, and the others would be instrumental players which they were and always have been, and always will be so long as we allow them to continue.

The Bretton Woods Agreement

This was clearly intended to be an Agreement to share the Global Accounts via humanitarian packages, but it turned out to actually be the financial shot that gave the strength to the Cabal / Globalists to make it this far.

What actually happened by signing such an Agreement was that the East opened up the doors for the Western Globalists to steal anything and everything within the Accounts.

How did they do it? By utilizing the new Western Financial System, they set up with the BIS, IMF, the World Bank as well as the Vatican and Bank of England.

This Financial system was set up to do just what it did... which was to rape the East.

Even at that time this was about population control! Without the financing countries were in deep trouble, and the East, which deposited 85% or more of the Assets, were not even allowed to use their own Deposits.

Only the Western Khazarians, who are not Jewish, benefited. Do not mistake them for being one and the same as the Jewish people, as many often do.

As for the Bretton Woods Agreement, it was fraudulent from day one and remains so even today. While that ink also had not yet dried on the paper, the Khazarians had already begun to steal from the East to build their proxy nations and operative world. You should be aware of and fear this, because their target is still depopulation, and YOU are the target! People foolishly vote for their representatives while simultaneously being the targets of death along with their families, friends and neighbors.

Remember the Marshall Plan? It was “supposed” to finance the restoration of those nations rampaged by World War II with infrastructures first and foremost to be rebuilt from the ground up. Ah, yes, Mr. Marshall, they “implanted” the plans so perfectly without nary one designated dollar for such a fake plan. It was entirely an outright theft of the Accounts from the very beginning.

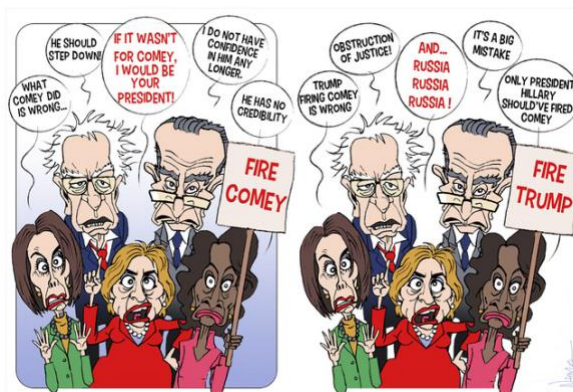

Ironically, before the war, Taiwan and Japan had agreements in place to rebuild any cities that would be destroyed or needed to be built up to satisfy Western needs, including Singapore, Seoul, and others in the East which at that time were considered to be Western Allies. How were they to be well taken care of and from where? The Accounts!

The MARSHALL PLAN was a ruse to theft and nothing more. We must thoroughly wipe it off our “make-believe” history and bury it with everything else we have been indoctrinated with in school, thanks to the Cabal.

Fortunately, the hidden truths of history are now being revealed by ethical scholars so We the People no longer have to accept or believe the old Cabal bullshit that was thrown at us.

It is time to eliminate these phonies and throw them in the garbage heap of pathological history where they belong. Do it and do it now, beginning with those who are brutally attempting to abuse and destroy our legitimately elected, honorable President!

We must no longer allow them to distract us with their “FAKE News” (so aptly called out and described by our President!) propaganda nor permit them to monopolize our media and public discourse.

The Mitsubishi Foundation is currently making the most of Japan's gold, and they are also attempting to buy Korean Gold for the Cabal.

Osaka's precious metals companies are purchasing gold by cleverly utilizing their own airplanes from many different countries and by moving them back and forth to Japan. Kim Hyangmi is 60 years old and has graduated from the best schools in Japan. She is heavily involved in Casinos, and within Korea she is doing business with a Japanese fund. She is tied heavily into the West as are all Japanese players at this time.

The Crown Foundation, a Chicago based organization tied into the Democratic party, has been desperately attempting to purchase Bunker Assets in Korea. They need to stay relevant; otherwise, the Chicago groups will be in dire straits. Obama has hurt them with his recent shenanigans even though they made him.

"Tinkerbell" (Obama) is currently running around the world stage attempting to play his crafty "ex-official" secondary role, although he never did lead anyone or anything. Yes, he is trying to manipulate nations into offering him assistance – when in fact he has little.

He is supporting Iran and others hoping to find wiggle room to create the WWII that he and his Cabal handlers wanted, but chances are getting far stronger that he likewise will be imprisoned before you can say "_____". (There might be some Civil Insurrections, but not WW3.)

The corrupt Khazarian / Globalists continually work among themselves as they structure their offensive games. Just a few days ago, three Japanese businessmen flew to South Korea. Their purpose? To buy GOLD. They have past experience in purchasing gold from South Korea which they converted into jewelry and took to Japan.

So, yes, you are right in thinking they have returned to steal more GOLD that does not belong to them. Too, the Japanese players Kobayashi and Minobe are back at it again attempting to do a much smaller transaction...that is 1,000 MT of Gold in Hong Kong. By the way, it is Mei Hua Gold. Note that the buyer is a US BANK.

Our "dear friend", Mr. Lee, received 850 Billion USD from the US in exchange for a sample of the Yen (Japanese money) which Mr. Lee provided to the US.

THE PURPOSE OF THE MONEY IS TO BUY THE YEN RESTING IN THE BUNKERS.

The IMF printed this money, and you can figure out the reason why: The dollar will be useless, or at least they figure it this way, and it secures their future. WHOSE future? The Cabals, not OURS!

Here is a young man from Japan, Hiroshi Tuchiya, who has completed 6 deals for the Cabal's Japanese/American factions.

Evidence / Letter Sent to Neil:

*Several large and small funds from Japan will be set in Korea this week.
My people will be involved in this deal. Korea is still stealing, yet no one is going to jail.*

*My friends also know the Indonesian situation, but Korea has no interest at all, because they do not care who steals the Dragon Families' money whatsoever.
Indonesia and Korea are attempting to deal every day of the week and looking for funds.*

They also believe the existence of Depositors and or threats of the US Government and Donald Trump means nothing, because too many organizations are running wild in both Korea and Indonesia trying to steal bunker assets.

This is the reality of Indonesia and Korea: We need your help Neil Keenan

There is a South Korean named Kang Seong-uk. He has long-served as an assistant to a US Army General in Korea. Until recently, he was moving the Korean Bunkers. He is involved in the sale (both buy and sell) of the bunkers. Along with the US Generals, he is moving the Bunker Assets.

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Since November of last year, the Korean Government has been confiscating bunkers. This is one of the reasons former President Park was imprisoned. Unfortunately, the Elders who are being played for fools by the Government are still waiting for payments in the amount of $17 Billion USD!

Now how foolish or scared are they? The reason for such sales is simple: they are old and poor and need a break, and it does not matter how they get it. (Some of you may feel compassion for what they are going through.)

To continue further now on what is happening over there: There is a US Military base in Yongsan in South Korea through which is where Kang Seong works out of. There is also a Casino in this US Military Base where the Assets from the bunkers are being laundered. Yes, they set up a Casino (without the President's knowledge) and are cleaning house for the Cabal!

Mr. President, it's time to get yourself involved in this one. They will use this money to destroy you if you give them the opportunity to do so.

Send your people in immediately and pull those SOB's out as soon as possible!!! In other words, the final destination for the Assets is the white-washing of extensive corruption in the Military Base, the Bunkers' final resting place before being placed into the market!

A Further Note for Neil Keenan

Dear Sir:

President Moon of South Korea proposes a meeting with you as soon as possible. Please reply. I've discussed with Mr. Moon who has proposed to you this meeting about Moon Jae-In who was the Senior Secretary to the President for Civil Affairs at that time of President Roh Moo-hyun, February 25, 2003 – February 24, 2008.

His Mission in the Blue House is as follows:

- ▶ 1. Supervision of the corruption of the president's family relative.
- ▶ 2. Examination of qualification inadequacy such as corruption or illegal act of candidates of high-ranking officials of ministers.
- ▶ 3. Monitors and supervises to the public prosecutor's office.

The factual story of South Korea is that whenever the regime changes, they plunder the Bunkers so the time is right for the Cabal to plunder, plunder, plunder!

Release the Kraken, Mr. President!

South Korea is about Money, Money, Money!!! However, President Moon is NOT a Globalist. They lost their puppet when President Park was imprisoned. (Group K also had lots to do with this!)

What About Indonesia?

As it is Neil's favorite place, he has a strong desire for a better life for all Indonesians. (Of course, Neil has many places that he calls home, seeing he cannot stay put.) A while ago, Neil stayed in a certain region in Indonesia when he was in considerable pain due to poisons and more.

Because of his diligence and sincere commitment, Neil is filled with information on Indonesia, but he will cut it short by simply saying this: A silent Coup is about to take place in Indonesia with the US Shadow Government leading the way.

They will attempt to remove President Jokowi without so much as a shot fired. Remember a few years ago when Neil stated that the Clintons sent Columbian Drug Money to Indonesia in an attempt to assassinate the President? Well, that money was used to finally set things into motion, and it seems NOW is the time for it!

The Vice President of Indonesia must be extremely careful because he is the physical target.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

The World Economic Forum and many Indonesians are in on this, so President Jokowi must stay fully aware with his security detail remaining fastidiously alert.

The Coup Assessment Plan Includes:

- ▶ Put pivotal figures in government seats to maintain the EU.
- ▶ Acquire the Bunker financing to remove World Patriot Leaders in order for them to lock up nations worldwide to do their bidding.
- ▶ If necessary, remove the sitting President which is what the Shadow Government is also attempting to do with President Trump this very minute. As long as the US remains without a Globalist in Power, they do not have control over the situation.

However, should the US fall into the Globalists' hands, they will have control over the entire Western Hemisphere, and they will take down the English with what they have already planted from within. There might be some tremendous fights in the US, but the sooner the US Government acts on this, the better it will be for all... EAST AND WEST ALIKE.

Release the Kraken!

The Release of New Technologies:

The Latest: There are no glitches; errors were man-made. In the testimonials of latest clients, they were wary of glitches, only to find out there are not any. As it turns out, they are well aware of the machines and how they work. Unfortunately, their training was hurried stateside. See more information in the video.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | The Inside Word – A Consensus Has Emerged From The Family

August 21, 2017

The person known as the “Asian Insider” has just sent us many insights (as perceived by the Family) in terms of ‘the end of the line’, relating to Neil Keenan and Group K following through:

“Kudos to you. Way to go Neil Keenan and Group K!

I know exactly what you are up to, with an awareness shared by no other and you really have the game plan locked down don't you? All remain sitting and waiting in terms of what you will do next (especially in the Eastern hemisphere) and you do keep everyone wondering.

Well, I believe I can shed light on what you are up to and if my well-informed conclusions are indeed proven to be accurate then I cannot wait to see the results, given that the East is in dire need of your assistance at this time.

Our Family has heard much said in terms of the others who have purported to be working with us during the last two years – but believe me brother, not a word is true.

While you were sick, we absolutely prayed for you, you are special.

We heard many promises bandied about but even whilst sick, you prevented the West (even when working from your bed) from stealing gold and other cached assets from all throughout Asia.

I am clear about the reason that you continue this fight; and it is because it is your destiny. The Family has queried “The Spirits” many times as to why you continue to push onward despite the sickness and pain you (and even your team) have been through, and the answer is always “destiny”. It is an entrenched, fundamental need for you to complete that which you have instigated.

Indeed, the destinies of your team members are entwined with this effort in the same way. Given the magnitude of this mission, how could they have become involved if this was not the case? They are all tied into one and the same thing and it seems that time is closing in fast on you; and so, I wonder when you will close in on them?

Neil Keenan, we are all of us – this entire planet; waiting on you. You decide what happens here with regard to the Collateral Accounts which means this matter affects everything. And yet silence.

Of course, you are doing a fantastic job in keeping the Cabal on their toes by publicly making available the “healing computer” and the other advanced technologies that will follow soon.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

It is well known (amongst what is still a relatively small number of people) that the “Cabal” have suppressed multitudes of advanced, would-be beneficial technologies for well over a century now. Both yourself, your team, and various associates have achieved more than almost any others in terms of bringing such advancements finally into the public awareness.

And on this count; once out of the bottle, the genie cannot be put back in. The dark ones now hold sincere (and well justified) worries in terms of their medical/pharmaceutical ‘deathtrap industries’.

As you planned eight years ago with the now soon-to-be-publicly-available free energy system, you have played an important role in beginning the release of formerly suppressed technologies.

Your efforts are dismantling them brother, piece by piece and whilst we enjoy watching this play out; we preferred it much more when you were here in Asia.

The world needs your help (some do not even realize how much the efforts of yourself and your Group K have already contributed to their ongoing existence and wellbeing) but only you know exactly how things are going to happen and you are correctly positioning yourself by remaining silent during these crucial final movements of this epic battle.

“The Swamp”, as President Trumps call it, is the concept of a predicament that also must be addressed here in the East, and it is here where Group K will earn its rewards. Your last unfortunate incident was nothing to make fun of, however you have relentlessly shown “them” that nothing keeps you down.

You have many friends over here praying for you, and also even in locations such as Fiji and elsewhere – places you would have no idea that you had supporters. We all know you are on the way, and “The Spirits” have made it clear you will be here soon.

Please hurry. Do not forget us in fighting your Western wars. We are sure you love the action over there, but remember there are more than enough battles to be had in other places.

We will see you shortly,

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Don't Back Down

August 31, 2017

What you are seeing in these four videos are Assets stolen from South Korean bunkers – but these are the commissions being divided up among the criminal “brokers” who are stealing on the behalf of the Cabal.

The year: 1921.

The location: London, England.

The players: Lloyd George (then Prime Minister of the United Kingdom), Georges Clemenceau (the former Prime Minister of France), Warren Harding (then President of the United States), and Japanese Emperor Hirohito.

And the sole purpose? The conspiracy to create World War II. No sooner had the Treaty of Versailles (1918) been signed, with the ink still wet – the above parties went into darkness to plan and indeed create what would later become known as WWII, with all necessary financial arrangements laid out from beginning to end.

AMANAHA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Along the way to engineering World War II they accumulated many assets from overwhelmed nations and sent the acquisitions immediately to places they felt would keep these assets safe.

Bunkers were constructed underground and even underground under bodies of water. Once assets were loaded into place, they then would collapse the bunkers (or at least the entrances) and bury the workers who would never be able to speak one word of what was located there.

They buried the workers alive to protect these secret cache locations.

Treasures? Yes, even Jack Sparrow would have been proud of such a haul. How do I know about such things happening? Because I have seen the inside of bunker doors and the dried blood from those who were trapped within in their attempts to get out. Nearly every bunker has a story.

If you've followed us for the past two years or more, you will realize that we've delivered some heavy hits against the Cabal's smuggling and stealing operations of the Monetary Assets in the South Korean bunkers. You can check out evidence of some of the assets in the videos.

The holdings within the bunkers are comprised of nearly every currency on the planet (totaling in the Quintillions) – not just Gold, US Dollars and Euros.

Yes, there are many select videos that will come out and expose these criminals far and wide – should they continue their crooked quest of stealing assets which do not belong to them! These are videos of each one of you inside of your offices as well as your homes.

You will be invaded and we will see how much you like it.

The highly sophisticated electronics we have access to will peak right into your bathrooms and record your nefarious conversations even while you are on the shitter!

In 1980 during a military coup, Chun Doo Hwan became the President of South Korea and he took over control of most of the South Korean bunkers. It did not matter to him or to any of his cronies as to who deposited or owned the Assets.

In 1988 he relinquished control of the government, but to this very day still manages most of the Assets.

Actually, the bank's doors are now officially open for the Cabal to purchase Gold; thereby illicitly strengthening their global financial position.

Should the Gold and/or Assets still remain in the bunkers, then the Cabal is just waiting discreetly for the moment when the Elders and 21 Guardians are suddenly relieved of their duties by the President of South Korea in the very near future. And then they will strike.

Then the bunkers will be theirs until someone else is next appointed.

For over a month I have been monitoring their movements via the satellites, and I can see them moving the assets around. There are many going from bunker to bunker looking for particular assets the Cabal has requested, which they can move immediately to cash them in.

Understand, once again, that this corruption has been happening for a very long time from the ex-President to the more recent Presidents. As you know, all South Korean ex-presidents have been, and continue to be financed by the Cabal – who have brazenly continued stealing from the bunker Assets that are legally owned by the Depositors. Heads are now keenly turned toward South Korea with the full realization that the current government officials will be retiring and, thus, expecting the Cabal to assist them in their retirement living.

President Park is a stark example. She blatantly used more than 2 BILLION KRW in attempting to stop her impending impeachment process, but she still ended up in prison. The funds she used were bunker funds, of course, which were plundered through the work of her henchmen.

The old-style politicians are like foxes and maintain a hold on these assets even after stepping down! They have cleverly used many nefarious strategies – to outright harm the public.

Their roots must be cut!

The scam that is currently operating is now being dealt with directly and forcefully by the Cabal (and all the nations that fall under their umbrella) – so the Assets will not be available for distribution in the open market.

Yet if one wishes to create an annoyance all they have to do is e-mail; leszek.lehnert@gmail.com

Most people will never see the results of this, but some just might feel its sting. They will be cashing in their notes in the following places: Closing locations currently are Miami, Zurich, Hong Kong and Special large family holders in Manila. Other locations are possible, depending on quantities.

This story does not end here but continues on with the Bretton Woods Agreement and the Establishment of the BIS, IMF, WB and others that allowed the Cabal to claim the collateral accounts as their own. You see they hi-jacked the financial system not only once in 1945 but also in 1990.

Twice they have made promises and walked away from them stealing from the Eastern Depositors and calling everything their own.

This time there will not be any further agreements and the world will move on without such monsters.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Hurricane Irma Weaponized: HAARP Weather Warfare—Methodology Exposed September 6, 2017

Those in control of the HAARP installation at Clam Lake Naval facility in Wisconsin are responsible.

These Cabal operatives are the ones who have directed and concentrated recent weather events such as Hurricanes Harvey and Irma. And they can stop Irma right now or allow it to continue – which must be their mission.

Needless to say, the Cabal have the power and the wherewithal to save or destroy many a life in this situation.

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Related: University of Alaska Fairbanks – Geophysical Institute: HAARP

These transmissions are used to manipulate weather, including the spawning and directing of hurricanes; and the intensification of hurricane winds. The same HAARP Weather-Weapon transmissions are now being polarized by the Clam Lake Facility.

The HAARP Alaska facility is a more modern version of the Clam Lake HAARP facility although both utilize the same principles. Observe the antenna configurations of the two facilities and you can see the similarities.

Related: Extremely Low Frequency Transmitter Site: Clam Lake, Wisconsin

We have been advised by well-placed sources that the old Clam Lake facility is where the Cabal are secretly directing their Weather Warfare control transmissions from: Right at this moment for Hurricane Irma, and recently for Hurricane Harvey.

Our intention, once again, is to halt these nefarious activities by exposing them publicly.

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | Desperate Nations Still Have Dangerous Weapons – Don't Be Fooled

October 5, 2017

For quite some time we have drawn very specific and timely attention to how desperate nations, just like desperate people, do desperate things. Currently it is especially critical for us to show you how truly desperate times are unfolding for the Cabal, while at the same time there is still more to be done to curtail their lust for death and destruction.

Although they might be down, they continue to hold some very powerful weapons over our planet and humanity's head. Despite their definite weakening, so long as they hold such fatal weapons as Chemtrails, HAARP, Vaccines, and much more, their heinous goal of reducing the planet's population is still possible.

Most recently we felt the powerful and horrific hurricane effects of HAARP in the United States, while Mexico endured the wrath of two earthquakes. How much longer are we going to tolerate these "man-made" tragedies perpetrated by corrupt and deranged governments (which, coincidentally, do not exist; only Corporations do)?

We have been bamboozled long enough! Now it is time for us to gather together and take control of our "servants". Unfortunately, we still continue to vote for those politicians who clearly do not abide by the people or for the people, but, instead only for their own personal greed for power and money. Time is of the utmost now to vote them out of their corrupt and ethically challenged hold over us! 2018 is fast approaching!

By the way, before President Trump was elected, most corrupted countries were friendly with the US, as they realized our nation was rapidly declining under Obama as well as prior administrations. However, with President Trump in office now they really fear how this new government (Corporation), as well as Russia and China, will react should they discover the following information presented here.

We pray that President Trump, President Putin, Premiere Xi Jinping, and the Golden Dragons... upon reading this... will mobilize and put planes and ships, and even their secret services, quickly into effect while also taking direct action to incarcerate and bring to justice the following people for perpetrating not only criminal acts against each and every nation, but also against each and every person on earth!

Here Are Some of the Nefarious Criminals:

- ▶ 1. Jeongdaeseong – Korean resident living in Japan
- ▶ 2. Mori – Korean resident living in Japan
- ▶ 3. Nishida -Japanese
- ▶ 4. Hippo – Japanese
- ▶ 5. Kobayashi – Japanese
- ▶ 6. President Moon – Korea
- ▶ 7. Emperor Hirohito – Japan
- ▶ 8. Prime Minister Abe – Japan

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

Reading the above with discernment you will understand how many times with brazen impunity the Japanese and Koreans have been and continue to loot the bunkers WITH THEIR GOVERNMENT'S PERMISSION!

Yes, South Korean President Moon, Japanese Prime Minister Abe and Japanese Emperor Hirohito have opened the doors, working together to steal the bunkers and gold which belongs to the legitimate Depositors, mostly the Golden Dragons. This has nothing to do with the Western Allied Powers and their Western Financial System set up for the sole purpose of stealing the Eastern assets.

As was mentioned previously, they illegally hijacked it in 1945 and then again in 1995. South Korea's Ex-President Park was nabbed by her government, but its people are repeating the very same things that she did, even though she now sees through prison bars. So how are they actually looting the bunkers?

They are approaching religious organizations and specific bunkers which have procured "exempt status" from both South Korea and Japan in order to facilitate and succeed in their blatant thefts. This then is a joint transaction with both governments fully knowing the where, which and how. What are their transportation methods?

They recruit middle-age Korean women (40-65 years old) in Seoul as well as the rest of Korea. In turn, said women travel within a weekly group tour. After the initial journey the women change over with the average team of 30 women. This has been going on far, far too long with each person carrying 4 Kg of gold given to them by the tour broker. Thirty women (men not allowed) carrying 4 Kg of gold simultaneously totals 120 Kg of gold! There are numerous groups leaving monthly so the ultimate numbers are shocking. The carriers (called mules in the West) outside Seoul receive $2000 USD and those from Seoul receive $600 USD.

There are also many brokers to pay who demand more commissions in Seoul. Again, this has been happening for some time now, and it is for the sole purpose of keeping the Globalists in good financial shape so they are able to continue doing great harm to humanity.

With both Korean and Japanese governments approving the aforementioned shady transactions, the dynamics of coming and going are relatively easy. The “borders” they cross are similar to the ones Obama created where everything and anything he wanted in or out of the US went right on through while the “Border Agents” looked elsewhere.

These matters will continue to escalate worldwide until concerned government (Corporate) leaders immediately and steadfastly take charge at last and end this vicious cycle! Otherwise, ALL of us will lose our precious freedoms and will be finished as a sovereign people.

It is sinful to even allow the Globalists to breathe our air when they have attempted quite intentionally to destroy it as well as us! If our leaders do not take charge of ending these crimes against humanity, then it's time We the People take full responsibility to do so ourselves.

To date we still aren't able to trust what is called “governmental authority”. A good look at FEMA in the Florida Keys is an example. Who really knows what they are doing behind the barricades they've erected? Group K wants to know what is happening to our people, don't you?

Especially after the tragic hurricanes (HAARP) in the US and the devastating earthquakes in Mexico (HAARP) we now know only too well the end games of the Cabal as well as the score. So, it's best that we take corrective and decisive action now... before it's too late!

NEIL KEENAN UPDATE | It Goes Around And Around In Circles

November 2, 2017

It all began in what now seems like lifetimes ago. Daniel Dal Bosco, an Italian citizen—who unknown by Neil at the time that he worked with the Italian P2 Freemason Lodge while also a financial consultant to the Vatican—stole Dragon Family Asset Notes with a value of $144.5 Billion USD that were entrusted to Neil by the Family.

Prior to this nefarious event, while supposedly working with integrity with Neil, Dal Bosco misrepresented himself in securing the safekeeping of said Notes. Unfortunately, this “wolf in sheep’s clothing”, Dal Bosco, turned out to be a “wannabe” Cabal member who was out of his league and possibly out of his mind in thinking this theft would simply go away – without any serious consequences or justice being served in the future.

It appears that Dal Bosco had big dreams which he believed would come to fruition based upon his taking a huge discount on the Notes – or nothing at all. Tragically, this heinous act by Dal Bosco prevented the world from then acquiring Free Energy which was already a plan set up to be put into place by Neil using the financing from the Notes.

Consequently, this blatant theft blocked humanity from entering a long-awaited age of energy abundance.

To add further intrigue and deviousness to the matter, the World Economic Forum, the UN, the Vatican and the Italian Financial Police / Government also did their parts in preventing the necessary transactions to fund free energy.

Despite this tremendous setback, Neil never gave up over the years and even today, still continues to steadfastly persist along with his team known as Group K to do whatever is necessary to accomplish his game plan – working against many devious forces – to help free humanity in a number of ways.

It is interesting to note that there are many making false claims as to being part of Neil's loyal team, but they are all just full of fake bluster and desperate to be put on a platform where they'll be noticed and listened to by ANYONE!

You can actually find them on other websites misrepresenting Neil's mission with outright lies and distortions. (Neil will ultimately shove their lies up their cans, but not now.)

Most of these "pretenders", espousing themselves wherever they find room on the Internet, have always just talked and never did anything for anyone in the world – other than promoting themselves.

The Trillion Dollar Lawsuit Trails Leads to Davos and United Nations

The operation to flush out the leadership of the dark cabal has now zeroed in on the World Economic Forum at Davos, according to agents involved.

Italian P2 lodge member Daniel Dal Bosco, who has been under complete 24-hour surveillance since absconding with over $1 trillion in financial instruments, has led investigators to Giancarlo Bruno, "Head of the Financial Services Industry" at the World Economic Forum, investigators say.

The latest breakthrough in the ongoing criminal investigation has created a state of extreme tension in Western power corridors, especially Washington and Geneva.

"The world will not be the same when this is over," a senior CIA source says. The conversation intercepted between Dal Bosco and Bruno is like something out of a weird spy movie, the investigators say.

It can be paraphrased as follows:

Dal Bosco: "You need to help me, I am being followed by about 30 spaceships."

Bruno: "I told you never to contact me, no matter what."

According to investigators there are now more spies than normal citizens in the small Italian town where Dal Bosco is now staying and the pressure is beginning to wear on him. Neither Dal Bosco nor Bruno were available for comment at the time of this writing.

The trail from Bruno leads to the leadership of the United Nations as well as the Obama regime in Washington, the investigators say.

There is a long list of arrest warrants that has been readied and you can be sure a lot of people will be skipping the next Davos meeting out of fear of being arrested.

AMANAH'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

"The air in Washington is so thick now with tension that you could cut it with a knife," a source close to the action in D.C. says.

The tensions and divisions within the secret Western government are leading to ever more "incidents," reaching the public eye.

- In one incident, the body of Yuri Ivanov Deputy Head of GRU was found "accidentally drowned," last week. He was in Syria helping prevent World War 3 from breaking out in the Middle East.*
- Then we have the case of MI6 Spy Garreth Williams, who was found stuffed inside a bag in his bathroom. The case is creating thick clouds of disinformation.*
- Then we have the on-again, off-again rape charges against Julian Assange of Wikileaks.*

All these incidents point to deep division between various Western intelligence and police agencies. However, the Italians are looking especially isolated in all this.

In China, meanwhile, factional tensions are also rising with three main factions allying themselves with different factions in the battle for control over the financial system of the West.

There are also three factions in the West battling over the new financial system.

- 1. The incumbent faction is the New World Order faction that still hopes to start World War 3 and start a global fascist government.*
- 2. Against them is the informal alliance that believes control over the world financial system should belong to the people of the planet*
- 3. A third faction just sits on the fence waiting to ally themselves with the victor*

The Trillion Dollar Criminal Case

...Against Top Davos, UN Officials & Others Will Go Ahead Despite Sudden Death of Key Witness

Criminal charges will be filed this week in New Jersey in a $1 trillion robbery case that implicates top officials of the World Economic Forum (Davos) top United Nations officials including UN Secretary General Ban Ki Moon and members of the Italian P2 Masonic Lodge, according to top US law enforcement officials and lawyers for the owners of the over $1 trillion in stolen financial instruments.

The individual directly responsible for stealing the funds, P2's Daniele Dal Bosco was recorded asking Giancarlo Bruno "Head of the Financial Services Industry" at Davos to have myself and three other individuals murdered.

AMANA'S ODYSSEY: PROFILE OF VALOR & VICTOR ©

In addition, Joe Bendana, the man who assisted in the case within the US on behalf of Neil Keenan and also provided affidavits to other governments and Interpol was also threatened directly by Dal Bosco 4 days before he was found murdered in his residence, Newark, New Jersey, last Saturday, September 4, 2010.

Police are treating the death of Bendana as a homicide because of the threats and because there was a security breach at his residence the night he died.

As soon as Bruno's name was made public by this writer, we were contacted by a senior P2 Lodge member who offered "an international scoop," involving impossible amounts of Philippine gold, UN Secretary General Ban Ki Moon and an individual by the name of Marco Di Mauro.

This photograph of an alleged Philippine bond worth “Five Hundred Dodecallion USD-CFR-Trilateral Commission,” was sent as proof.

We are waiting for more coherent information from this source. The Trilateral Commission was founded in July of 1973. Clearly it does not fall in line with the date, October 24-25, 1966, issued on the Mother Gold Guarantee Deposit.

How could this have been issued when the Trilateral Commission did not exist at this time? I believe they are attempting to discredit this writer.

The entire incident began in June 2009 when two Japanese were illegally detained by Italian Treasury police and had $134.5 billion worth of bonds, they were carrying confiscated. This incident was reported briefly in the international media before being dismissed as a “fraud.” However, the Japanese were not detained because they had diplomatic passports.

The bonds were real and were illegally confiscated by the Italian Treasury Police.

Shortly after this incident, the P2 Lodge, at the bequest of the Italian Police offered to assist them in cashing these bonds, which are owned by an astronomically wealthy Asian family. They offered the bonds back to this family at 10% of the face value but the family had no intention of allowing themselves to be extorted relating to bonds they already owned.

At a later date a family associate agreed to protect a further $1 trillion worth of financial instruments and they were placed into the custodianship of P2 "banker" Daniele Dal Bosco (Mr. Dal Bosco is actually not a banker nor ever has been a banker).

Dal Bosco then absconded with the bonds and tried to cash them variously with the UN with the assistance of Giancarlo Bruno of the World Economic Forum who is one of the coordinators. It is purported that Mr. Bruno set up the entire operation with the UN and OITC which Dal Bosco turned to for support once they recognized that Neil Keenan was not going to allow them to steal the bonds.

Dal Bosco states that he is working with his lawyer, Interpol and the UN but makes it perfectly clear to this writer that he refers everything over to OITC (he has no attorney holding the bonds to respond to), has never spoken to Interpol and the UN and Dal Bosco/Bruno/World Economic Forum/UN/David Sale/OITC are some of the known co-conspirators of this theft.

The OITC is headed by a Cambodian by the name of R.C. Dam.

Dam was at one point the designated heir of Indonesia's Sukarno as signatory to a large pool of gold stored in various parts of Asia (This is the same gold that was supposed to back the new US dollar that President Kennedy was assassinated for trying to issue).

However, Dam was stripped of this power after the OITC was involved in a series of fraud cases. As a result, the bonds cannot be cashed by them. Italian Prime Minister Silvio Berlusconi also tried unsuccessfully to cash the bonds with the Chinese government.

Dal Bosco has been under complete surveillance since the beginning of this incident. That is why intelligence agencies recorded his requests for murder contracts and his threats to various individuals. Furthermore case files have been opened up against Dal Bosco in Milan, Italy and in Interpol.

Interpol is now actively involved as are most of the world's intelligence agencies because they believe the trail in this case will lead eventually to the World Economic Forum, the UN and a group of Oligarchs who have been plotting to create a fascistic world government. These Oligarchs have also been trying to start World War 3 and carry out an unprecedented genocide of two thirds of the world's population.

Senior sources report there is still chaos in the Western corridors of power, especially Washington D.C. because of the impending bankruptcy of the Federal Reserve Board.

There are moves, reported in our last newsletter, to launch a Gold Backed Amero to replace the US dollar. However, a different faction is still pushing for a Gold backed Treasury dollar controlled by the Congress. There is no conclusion to this fight but the turmoil is expected to intensify as the September 31 US fiscal year end approaches.

Because of this chaos Chinese and Asian sources are now offering to sell large denominations of US Dollars and Euros at a 37% discount to super-wealthy individuals. The only thing that is certain about all these financial shenanigans is that the global governmental structures set up after World War 2 are all starting to collapse.

With sincere appreciation for so many of you supportive followers on both sites, you will be the first to see what will soon turn the world upside down! It could have been kept secret, but Neil wants all of you to know what he has been doing with his pal, despite Neil having been challenged with more than one poisoning attempt.

As mentioned earlier, Neil never sat back on his hands nor ever gave up despite so many desperate and sinister attacks by the Cabal having come his way.

However, now it's all come full circle – right back to a promising new beginning where Neil first started: Free Energy, the Clean Water Plasma Technology, and many other new technologies that are ready to follow right behind them.

It may appear to be far more than one could ask, but it is only just the beginning, as there are many more to come! So, buckle your seat-belts, because you are about to be taken on an adventurous ride, beginning now, that you will never forget.

Enjoy your reading; it is truly something special.

All the Best,

Neil Keenan & Group K
